Disposed of the Criminal Cases.

The criminal docket was called up by Judge Chapman in district court last Thursday and some disposition was made in every case thereon.

D. M. Jones and J. H. Fairfield made an appearance and both were fined on the indictment of keeping a gambling room. The two other indictments found against both men were passed by the court with the understanding that their practices should in the future cease. Jones was fined $30 and costs, while Fairfield's was $55 and costs. Both men gave security for payment.

The case of state vs. H. D. Crooker was called and the defendant plead not guilty. A bond for $300 was furnished, with County Attorney Travis as surety, and the case was continued until the September term.

The case of the state vs. Ward was the last one called and the defendant also plead not guilty. The date of his trial was not fixed.

NAMED THE WINNERS.

Plattsmouth Democracy Places a City Ticket in the Field.

J. A. GUTSCHE HEADS THE TICKET

Morgan For Treasurer, Hempel For Clerk, Vass For Police Judge and Barwick and Dwyer For School Board Members.

It generally requires a democratic convention to draw a crowd, and Monday night's gathering of the city democracy was no deviation from the rule.

When Chairman D. C. Morgan of the city committee called the assembly to order, the hall was crowded to the doors. D. O. Dwyer was made temporary chairman and D. W. Coffey temporary secretary, and no time was lost in getting down to business. A committee of five, composed of Messrs. Guy Livingston, Wm. Neville, Jno. Cassidy, Jno. Ledgway and Wm. Shea, was appointed to attend to the credentials, and after they had reported the sixty-one delegates present as fit for the fray, their report was adopted and active business was commenced by making permanent the temporary organization.

In accordance with the call, the nomination of a candidate for mayor was first considered. A motion that the vote be had by a call of the wards was rejected, and the convention decided to make nominations by an informal ballot. Tellers were then appointed and the informal ballot resulted as follows: Gutsche 57, Herrmann 4. Mr. Herrmann promptly arose and moved that the four votes cast for himself be given to Mr. Gutsche and that the latter be declared the nominee by acclamation. The motion prevailed by a chorus of ayes. Mr. Gutsche was called upon and in a short address outlined his views. He favored lower taxes and an economic city government, and pledged himself, if elected, to make an earnest effort to conduct his administration closely on these lines. The address was well received and was greeted by a storm of approbative applause.

Then came the city treasuryship contest. The informal ballot resulted: Morgan 39, Breckenfeld 19. The formal ballot did not change the result, and Mr. Morgan was declared the nominee.

The city clerkship nomination was next in order, the informal ballot resulting as follows: Fox 14, Miller 24, Hempel 21. On the formal ballot Fox lost four, Miller gained one and Hempel three. None of the candidates having received a majority, a second ballot was had, in which Hempel came out victorious, the vote standing: Fox 4, Miller 24, Hempel 30.

The police judgeship contest developed a surprise, as the renomination of Police Judge Archer was thought to be a foregone conclusion. On the informal ballot Robert Vass received 35 votes, Judge Archer 21, with three votes scattering. The result on the formal ballot was in Vass' favor, standing Archer 24, Vass 30, with three votes scattering.

The question of nominating the two candidates for the school board brought out five names—Messrs. J. E. Barwick, D. O. Dwyer, Adam Kurtz, Samuel Waugh, and Mrs. B. S. Ramsey. The informal ballot resulted as follows: Barwick, 32; Dwyer, 30; Mrs. Ramsey, 15; Kurtz, 10; Waugh, 6, while on the formal ballot Barwick received 51, Dwyer 45, Kurtz 10, and Mrs. Ramsey 12. Messrs. Barwick and Dwyer were thereupon declared the nominees.

This concluded the formation of a ticket and after Chas. Hempel was made the chairman of the city committee, the convention was adjourned.

Bryan Returns to Washington

The Lincoln Journal's correspondent at Washington says: "Representative Bryan returned from the west Sunday afternoon. He announced that he had a most delightful trip and that his meeting at Omaha was the best he ever held in that city. Mr. Bryan expects that the Plattsmouth and Pawnee City postoffice fights will be settled this week. He will appear before the house committee on Saturday in advocacy of his amendment to elect senators by direct vote of the people. Mr. Bryan was given a surprise party this evening on invitations sent out by Mrs. Bryan in honor of his thirty-fourth birthday.

Tobias Knocks the Persimmons.

Col. Annin, the Washington correspondent, sends the following to last Thursday's State Journal:

"The skimming snickersnee of Tobias Castor got its deadly work in today upon seven republican presidential postmasters and their names, as follows, were sent to the senate for confirmation: J. L. McDonagh, Ord; Volney M. Street, Nebraska City; C. H. Meeker, McCook; R. B. Wahlquist, Hastings; James Costello, Grand Island; J. P. Chesney, DeWitt; A. G. Moderow, Stanton; and Frank W. Murray, Pender. Those of Ord and Grand Island were promised last December, but have hung fire for want of personal and present leverage. The remainder have been fixed up within the past week by the industrious persecutor of the Nebraska republican saints.

"There is no consolation whatever in the list for the soft money democratic brigade and the advocates of fusion. Each and every name on the list had the indorsement of dominant democracy. They were sent up to the white house from the postoffice department at 11 o'clock yesterday and remained only twenty-four hours on the president's table. The Nebraska City postoffice made the quickest time of all."

Zach White a Free Man.

The following special in Friday's papers is from Nebraska City: Zachary T. White, who was convicted of hanging Secretary Morton in effigy at the last term of the district court and who has been confined in the county jail for two weeks past, is a free man. Ever since White's conviction his friends have been active, and a numerous signed petition is now ready to be presented to the governor. Yesterday a letter was prepared asking Judge Chapman to remit the fine on the grounds that the jail was unhealthy, that White's wife was made to suffer by his confinement and that White had already been taught a salutary lesson. The letter was signed by W. L. Wilson, Carl Morton, H. N. Shewell, D. P. Rolfe, Ed. Sheldon, W. A. Cotton and Duncan MacCuaig. This afternoon the clerk of the court received the following order from Judge Chapman, which was immediately obeyed:

"In consideration of the unhealthy and unfit condition of the Otoe county jail and the sickness of the prisoner, I deem it proper to remit the balance of the fine imposed upon the said Zach T. White and hereby remit the same upon payment by said White of all costs in said prosecution. The clerk of the court is directed to accept security for costs and White's personal recognition for his appearance at the next regular term of court.

Sheridan's Big Coal Mines.

Capt. H. E. Palmer of Omaha who was in Plattsmouth Saturday, is interested in the city of Sheridan, Wyo., and is enthusiastic over the prospects of that place, which he says are now brighter than ever.

According to the captain, Messrs. Dietz and Cady of Omaha have recently purchased the mines of the Sheridan Fuel Co., and will immediately increase their capacity so as to give employment to between two and three hundred men. The coal produced from these mines is said to be fully equal to that of the famous Rock Springs mines and is meeting with a ready sale wherever introduced.

The great Chicago and Omaha packer, Cudahy, has agreed to put in a packing house at Sheridan as soon as hogs and cattle can be supplied in sufficient quantities to keep the plant running.

Hymeneal.

The marriage of Mr. Jno. B. Meisinger, jr., and Miss Nannie Antill was consummated Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the bride, Main and Fourth streets. County Judge Ramsey performed the ceremony. The groom is a son of J. B. Meisinger, one of Cass county's wealthiest and best known farmers, and is a member of the local implement house of Meisinger & Lohmann. The bride is a most estimable and unassuming young lady, and they seem to be well-mated, indeed. THE JOURNAL extends its heartiest congratulations.

HANGING POSTPONED

Murderer Harry Hill's Lease on Life Is Extended.

SUPREME COURT GRANTS A STAY

And Fixes the September Session of Court as the Time for a Rehearing on His Case—It Looks Like Butter—An Expensive Tooth.

The Execution Postponed.

Attorney Matt Gering, counsel for Harry Hill, the condemned murderer, journeyed to Lincoln Tuesday to appear before the supreme court on appeal of the case to that court. The case will not be heard before September, and sentence will be suspended until the court reviews and renders decision. Yesterday's State Journal says:

"Harry Hill, the murderer of Matt Akeson, near Weeping Water, who was sentenced to be 'hanged by the neck until dead, and to pay the costs of the prosecution,' will not be executed April 13, the date fixed by the court in passing sentence. Matt Gering, attorney for Hill, was before the supreme court yesterday and asked for a suspension of sentence pending a review by that tribunal. An order was issued by the court and the execution will not take place until further orders from the supreme court.

"Hill's attorney brings the case up on error, alleging misconduct on the part of the jury in that the members were permitted to go to a hotel and stay all night and occupy separate apartments; that the verdict is contrary to law, is not sustained by the evidence, and that the punishment is excessive and unusual. Hill and a man named Benwell, who were arrested at Lincoln after a long chase, and tried for the murder of old man Akeson, Hill receiving a sentence of death and Benwell being sentenced to the penitentiary. The murder was particularly brutal and the perpetrators narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of a mob. It will probably require several weeks or perhaps months for the court to review the case."

Confirms the Report.

The report that Mayor Butler would receive the appointment as postmaster at Plattsmouth, published in THE JOURNAL, is confirmed by Col. Annin yesterday, who writes to the Lincoln Journal as follows:

The slate of Nebraska appointments is pretty well cleaned up. There are half a dozen postoffices only remaining to be filled where the terms of incumbents have expired, and these would have been filled long ago if papers and protests and affidavits had not been filed against the leading candidates. The case at York is a typical one, where Coles has been prevented from receiving his commission by reason of a number of frayed and raveled at the edge charges, none of which amount to a pinch of snuff.

At Plattsmouth and Pawnee City matters have been more complicated still. The democratic committees, state and county, split in their recommendations and Castor and Bryan took opposite sides. Mr. Bryan claimed consideration at the democratic pie counter in his district and insisted that he was now a good enough supporter of the administration to be consulted about these, the only two decent offices left unmingled by Castor's axe. The plea has embarrassed the postmaster-general, who was obliged in looking over the lists to admit that the district had been pretty well skinned while the national committeeman had full swing at the guillotine.

It is said that Representative Bryan has received the absolute promise of the Plattsmouth and Pawnee City postoffices.

An Expensive Tooth.

Jerry Farthing sallied into Judge Ramsey's office yesterday morning and had a warrant issued for the arrest of Prairie Joe, the Indian doctor in charge of the Kickapoo Sagwa company now showing in this city. The complaint charged him with malpractice. It appears that one of Jerry's boys went to the Indian doctor with an aching tooth and the doctor pulled it out. Jerry claims that the tooth was perfectly sound and hence had the Sagwa dispenser placed under arrest by Constable Thrasher. The case, however, did not come to trial, as Jerry and the doctor arrived at an agreement whereby Jerry dropped the suit on the doctor's paying the court costs and putting up the price of a sound tooth, whatever that may be. It is understood, however, that the affair cost the Indian doctor something like $40.

AROUND THE COURT ROOMS.

DISTRICT COURT.

County Attorney Travis will take a well-earned vacation this week, and will journey to Washington, D. C., for a visit with relatives for a week or more.

A decree of divorce was entered by Judge Chapman Saturday in the divorce case of Ida M. Young vs. T. Edward Young, and the plaintiff was accorded the custody of the children.

The jury in the case of Lawyer A. N. Sullivan vs. Mrs. E. E. Goodwin, wherein a judgment was asked for attorney's fees, accorded the plaintiff a verdict for $152. The judgment and the sum already paid makes the fee amount to $400. The sum sued for was $500.

Judge Chapman adjourned district court Saturday until April 2nd, at which time the damage suit of Mrs. Effie Thompson vs. the M. P. will come up for trial. The jurors were all dismissed except those who were chosen this morning to try the Thompson case.

JUSTICE ARCHER'S COURT.

In the case for forcible entry and detainer of John C. Roddy vs. Louis Rowe and wife, Judge Archer Saturday decided for the defendant, assessing the costs against Roddy.

Judge Archer last Thursday rendered a decision in the replevin case, in which Lon Marshall and Cal Graves are contending parties. These parties indulged in a horse trade several weeks ago, and Marshall became dissatisfied and commenced proceedings in replevin to obtain possession of the horse he had formerly owned. The judge's decision was in Graves' favor. Notice of appeal was given and the case will probably be carried to a higher court and turn out to be another calf case.

CONGRESSMAN BRYAN WAS IN TOWN.

Congressman W. J. Bryan, the brilliant representative of this district at the national capital, was in the city for several hours on Friday last. He arrived from Omaha, where he addressed a large audience at Exposition hall and received an ovation, on the B. & M. noon train, and, after dining at the Hotel Riley, passed a few hours in calling upon friends and members of his party. He departed for Washington via Omaha at 3:45 p. m. and arrived at the capital on Sunday evening, after an absence at speech-making in the west of two weeks.

COUNTY COURT.

Licenses to wed was issued in county court Saturday to Mr. Wm. McLean and Miss Libbie J. Riley, both of Omaha. Rev. Davis performed the marriage ceremony.

The suit of Jas. S. Kirk & Co. vs. Jos. Shera was on trial before County Judge Ramsey last Monday. The evidence was submitted and an adjournment taken until next week, at which time the arguments will be made. Geo. Spurlock appeared for Kirk & Co. and A. J. Graves for the defense.

COURT ROOM NOTES.

The county assessors met in the court house on Tuesday and decided that this year's assessment should be conducted on the plan of a one-fourth valuation on both personal and realty. Last year the realty was assessed at one-fourth value and the personal at one-third.

County Superintendent Geo. Farley departed for Weeping Water on Monday to oversee the teachers institute which will hold forth in that town for the next two weeks.

Police Judge Berka of Omaha Monday decided the Bennett-Rosewater libel cases. On the charge made by Bennett the defendant, Rosewater, was dismissed, but on that made by Mrs. Bennett he was held to district court in the sum of $700.

Aurora, the county seat of Hamilton county, will soon commence the erection of a new $60,000 court house. Architect Gray, of Lincoln, who performed a like service for Cass, will furnish the plans, and the commissioners of Hamilton have forwarded a request to County Clerk Dickson for a copy of the contract between Mr. Gray and this county.

Thought He Was a Goner.

When Monroe Wroth heard some two weeks ago that a grand jury was to be convened, he immediately made up his mind that the climate of Cass county was not particularly adapted to his health, and proceeded at once to make himself conspicuously absent; and when the findings of the jury were made public and it was seen that two counts for gambling had been found against Mr. Wroth, the wisdom of his conclusion was at once apparent.

Sheriff Eikenbary heard Saturday that Monroe was regaling himself with the salubrious ozone at Hamburg, Iowa, and Deputy Harvey Holloway was sent post haste to that city to prevail upon the wanderer to return. Wroth agreed to come without requisition papers, and the officer landed in Plattsmouth with his prisoner Sunday afternoon.

George Poissall went surety for Wroth's appearance in district court when he should be called.
