Lincoln's new democratic postmaster, J. II. Harley, has appointed Tom Allen as his deputy. Tom Allen is an old Cass county boy and his many friends here will vouch for his competency.

Sunday last the regular quarterly meeting of the M. E. church was held and the sacrament of the Lord's supper partaken of. Elder Britt preached both morning and evening to large congregations.

Lawyer Allen Beeson is building an addition to his cottage on the Platte bottom road northwest of town, and is preparing to move his family and household effects thither within the next two or three weeks.

Twenty-three young ladies and gentlemen will receive the rite of confirmation at St. Luke's Episcopal church next Friday evening. Rt. Rev. Bishop Worthington, of Omaha, officiating at the ceremony.

The fiftieth or golden anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Atwood was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at the home of S. H. Atwood. Guests to the number of nearly one hundred were present and assisted in making the occasion a memorable one.

The man Noland, who escaped from Chief Detective Haze at Omaha a few days ago, was captured at Weeping Water Friday forenoon. After returning to Omaha without his man Haze opened Noland's trunk and found etters from relatives at Weeping Water. Word was sent to the city marshal at Weeping Water and Noland's arrest followed.

Jas. Hall of Eight Mile Grove precinct departed Saturday for Murdock, where he will visit with his old acquaintance, Robert Metteer. The two are seriously thinking of attending the Midwinter exposition at San Francisco, and it is more than probable that when Mr. Hall returns bome he will have visited that distant land of the orange groves.

Wallace Roach, an employe at the Nebraska City starch works, was caught in an elevator belt Monday morning and badly injured. The unfortunate man was thrown from the belt into the corn bin, a distance of twenty feet, where he was rescued by fellow workmen. His clothing was entirely torn from his person, his right leg broken and both shoulders badly wrenched and bruised. It is thought he will survive.

The officers as yet have not been able to permanently locate J. W. Woods, the gambling house proprietor, who attention of those indebted to the firm was lately indicted by the grand jury. but who previously skipped town. Sheriff Eikenbary was in Council placed in an attorney's hands for col-Bluffs and Omaha Tuesday, and learned that Woods was in Council Bluffs last Thursday, but his present whereabouts were not discovered. Woods is also wanted in Council Bluffs for leaving an unpaid board bill.

Saturday was the busiest day Plattsmouth has seen for a long time. Main street was lined with wagons from ten o'clock in the morning till late in the afternoon and merchants all reported a splendid trade. What caused it? Why the free terry to be sure. No less than one hundred and twentyfive teams came over from Iowa between sun rise and sun set and this would hardly believe that a man-who has paddled the "Foot Prints of Time" in Missouri and acted on the town board of Elmwood would be so thoughtless as to "blow out the gas," but the evidence is against our townsman S. D. Eells in that very act. He not only came near going over the sleepy road himself but was about to take Charley Clapp and J. T. Ritchey with him. They were all at Plattsmouth this week and slept in adjoining rooms at the hotel. Spice either blew out the gas or turned the valve too far. The gas in Clapp's room got so strong that he and Ritchey woke up and hearing Spice wheezing and coughing they raised the alarm, and when gotten out he was almost asphyxiated. Lucky for them they woke up or we would now be writing a three handed obituary.

"I positively will not use cosmetics," said a lady to the writer, "vet my complexion is so bad that it occasions me constant mortification. What can I do to get rid of these dreadful blotches?" 'Take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," is my prompt reply. "Your complexion indicates, that you are suffering from functional derangements. Remove the cause of the blotches and your cheeks will soon wear the hue of health. The 'Favorite Prescription' is a wonderful remedy for all diseases peculiar to your sex. Its proprietors guarantee to return the money if it does not give satisfaction. But it never fails. Try it." The lady followed my advice, and now her complexion is as clear as a babe's and she enjoys better health than she has for many years.
