IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

Ex-Sheriff Tighe was in the city on Monday.

J. Q. Adams, the Eagle banker, was the guest of his daughters in this city Saturday.

John Becker, wife and daughter of the precinct were Council Bluffs visitors Friday.

County Clerk Dickson journeyed to Louisville Saturday to look after his lumber interests in that village.

Messrs. Ernest Pautsche, of Louisville, and F. W. Schleifert, of Murdock, were callers at these headquarters on Monday.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Thrasher has gone out into the western part of the state to serve some papers in federal cases.

Dr. R. B. Wallace, of Union, was in town Thursday attending a session of the pension board, of which he is a member.

John E. Langston, formerly of this city, was elected village clerk of Havelock at the last meeting of the trustees, vice Sam Hinkle, whose term had expired.

The funeral of Mrs. Antill occurred from the family residence on Main street Sunday afternoon, and was held under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and D. of B. lodges, the interment taking place at Oak Hill.

Up to date Mayor Newell has received just even forty applications from people who want a job on the police force. As there are only three positions to be filled some thirty-seven people are going to be filled with disappointment.

Robert Troop of the precinct drove in twenty-seven head of fat steers Friday and disposed of them to Wiley Black. They averaged 1163 pounds and brought Mr. Troop over $1,100, and the market price is considered low at that figure.

The Lincoln Call progresses a step too far when it prints the name of Eli Kenberry and dubs the man sheriff of Cass county. Sheriff Elkenberry's name is bad enough without distorting it further. Henceforth the Call may consider itself boycotted in Cass county.

Complaint was filed against all places keeping nickel-in-the-slot machines at Nebraska City last week. Police raided the saloons and locked the machines up in the city vault. Here's a pointer for the Plattsmouth authorities, although the question of finding the city vault might prove a serious one.

A branch of the Coxy army is being organized at Lincoln, and it is reported that one of the recruits is none other than our former townsman, Miner Stockwell. If they could just secure a whole regiment like him we'll bet a red apple it would have some kind of an effect on the president—probably frighten him to death.

The Lincoln Herald says: At last a civil court has seen fit to step in and enjoin a Catholic priest from holding services in his church on Sunday. The only wonder is that, being a republican and a candidate for congress, this court did not restrain the priest from praying at all. This is about the essence of the modern idea of republicanism.

In the opinion of many citizens the council erred last week in refusing to issue a license to Fred Egenberger, and the hope is generally expressed that the question will be reconsidered and a license granted the gentleman. THE JOURNAL views the subject in much the same light, as Mr. Egenberger is a worthy young man and was blamed for matters which he did not deserve.

The Glenwood (Ia.) Daily Times has been resurrected after a slumber of almost a year, and is now a welcome visitor at THE JOURNAL'S exchange table. J. B. Lachapelle is its publisher and J. A. Basom, formerly of the Murray Banner and the Nehawka Register, both of this county, is its city editor. THE JOURNAL trusts that the people of Glenwood will give the Times the support it deserves.

HAVELOCK HAPPENINGS.

From the Mechanic.

Dr. Cook, medical examiner, was at the shops Monday morning.

Ed Martin and wife, of Plattsmouth, visited Thomas Bibby and family this week.

Wm. Ackerman returned last Thursday from Cheyenne, Wyoming, and will go to work again in the shops next Monday.

O. C. Smith closed the deal with Hubbard Bros. last Saturday for the house and lot he has been occupying for some time.

Arthur Neff got the nail and end of the little finger on his left hand punched off Friday morning, causing a lay-off for some time.

We learn that W. A. Crane, the founder of the Mechanic, is now devoting his time and talents to agriculture in the vicinity of Plattsmouth.

Monday morning Pat McCallen, boss boilermaker at Plattsmouth, took charge of the boiler shops here, vice Alex Clifton, as assistant foreman.

Will and Nina Tucker, brother and sister of Mrs. C. A. Rankin, visited with the latter on Tuesday last and went from here to Belvedere, this state.

From the Times.

Miss Lizzie Kroehler, of Plattsmouth, was visiting her brother, George Kroehler here this week.

Andrew Kroehler, a B. & M. tinner, formerly of Plattsmouth, but now working at Alliance, stopped off here Tuesday to visit while on his way to work.

F. B. Holmes and C. L. Langston have each purchased a horse and expect to get them in training for the state fair—when they will be in trim to capture first money in the roadster races.

P. McCallen has been appointed foreman of the boiler shops, taking effect last Monday. Mr. McCallen is an old time employe of the B. & M., and was foreman of the boiler shop here when the shops were first opened and gave up his position on account of ill health. We are glad to see him back with us and so much improved in health.

A Long Handle Dust-Pan. (New, patented, easy as a carpet sweeper), given away with every cloak, cape or suit bought of O. E. Scofield's Exclusive Cloak Store, 16th and Farnam streets, Omaha. Bed rock prices guaranteed. 11

See Brown and save money this year on your wall paper, paints and oils.

Rev. Fred Warren, a reformed local sport, occupied the pulpit at the South Park Baptist church Sunday and is said to have delivered a discourse that was "hot stuff," and the equal of Sam Jones' ablest effort. He touched upon the practices of rushing the growler, shooting craps and gambling in general, and exposed the whole business. A number of his former companions were roasted brown on both sides. One of them informed the writer that he did not care for the roasting, but did not exactly like the idea of the evangelist giving away the secrets of the profession by making reference to "horse dice," "strippers," "suckers," etc.

Omaha ain't in it with me now when it comes to prices on wall paper, and it is the same way with drugs, paints and oils.

BROWN'S PHARMACY. Natural gas has been discovered at Casper, Wyoming, and the people of northwestern Nebraska feel jubilant over the prospect of their being as fortunate as the Casper people. Natural gas would make a great boom for northwestern Nebraska.

Two Women Fatally Injured.

Thursday afternoon as the Denver train on the B. & M. was nearing Liberty, Gage county, it ran into a buggy occupied by two ladies, killing one horse outright and mangling the other to such an extent that it had to be killed. Both women were injured, and it is feared fatally.

Will Be Punished.

Some fien in human form has taken the liberty to write obscene notices upon the walls of our city postoffice. This writing referred to some of Plattsmouth's most respected young people, upon whose characters there is no blemish, and be it understood the perpetrator of this vile act will be punished to the full extent of the law if found out. (Signed)
