IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

Miss Mia U. Gering has been selected as deputy postmaster by Postmaster Fox.

D. F. Sheesley of Tipton precinct was in town Thursday attending district court as a witness.

Andrew Pitman of Nehawka was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday and gave THE JOURNAL a pleasant call.

C. J. Zaar, of South Bend, and Henry Behrens, of Avoca, were in town Saturday and called at these headquarters.

Hezekiah Strong and Chas. Banning drove up from Nehawka Thursday morning and boarded B. & M. No. 5 for Omaha.

A Mrs. Lewis, who resides in the south part of town, was attacked by a vicious cow last Friday and according to reports was severely injured.

Postmaster Fox has forwarded his bond to the department at Washington. It is in the amount of $18,000, and is signed by James M. Patterson and Horatio N. Dovey.

David Miller, who has been engaged in settling up the business affairs of the Chase Manufacturing company at Weeping Water, was at home for a visit with his family over Sunday.

E. E. Day, of Weeping Water, was kicked in the neighborhood of his liver by an ugly horse the other day, and for some hours it was feared he would die. He is now almost well enough to play even by kicking the horse.

The democratic nominee for congress in the first district this fall must be an advocate of bimetalism. If he is anything else he will not be a western democrat and as such deserves the certain defeat which awaits him.

Miss Kate Felthuser, the young lady who filed a complaint against Eddie Wooster at Nebraska City, charging him with attempted rape, has concluded not to prosecute the young man, and accordingly withdrew the case.

Mrs. Oliver King, one of the parties afflicted with small-pox at Bethlehem, became delirious Wednesday afternoon and wandered away from the house. Her husband and the quarantine guard soon overhauled her and returned her to the house.

It is estimated that M. P. passenger receipts have fallen off over fifty per cent since the first of the month. How much more notice does the M. P. management desire to learn that timetables should be modeled to suit the patrons?

Rev. J. J. Williams, accompanied by his family, departed for his new home Thursday at Syracuse, where he has accepted the Baptist mission. The people of Syracuse will find in Mr. Williams an excellent gentleman and an earnest worker.

The railroads are experiencing a coal famine, caused by the general strike among the bituminous coal miners. Several roads have exhausted their supply of fuel, and the Wabash has been compelled to discontinue running many of their trains.

Consumers of hard coal will save several dollars per ton by laying in their next winter's supply right now. The freight rate war which has been on for the past week has affected the rates on hard coal, so that that commodity can be sold at from $6.50 to $7.00 per ton.

A public sale of real estate belonging to the estate of Henry Mertens was held at the court house on Saturday. A seventy acre tract was purchased by C. H. Parmele for $40 per acre, and nine acres of timber land on the hills along the river south of town brought $3 per acre.

Prof. Noble is packing his household goods and will depart this week for his new field of labors in the insurance business at Lincoln. For the next two or three months Mrs. Noble will visit with her parents at Atlantic, Iowa, while her husband is becoming accustomed to the corrupt atmosphere in and about the capital city.

A telegram from Alliance announces the death of Frances, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sexton, and a later report is to the effect that Mrs. Sexton is very low with measles and her recovery is in doubt. Mr. Sexton is a former resident of Plattsmouth and his many friends here extend their sincerest sympathy in his sad misfortune.

The Conway-Akeson reward case is being threshed over again in the district court, whither it has been appealed. Detective Malone and Chief Cooper have filed answers in which they lay renewed claim to the reward on the ground that the arrest and discovery of the murderers was due to their efforts.—Lincoln News.

A tramp called at a house up in Shaferville Thursday and asked for some coffee, saying he wanted it for his companion who was lying sick in a box car at the Missouri Pacific yards. The coffee was furnished him, and visions of small pox immediately entered the woman's head. The police were notified and the sick man was visited, but he did not have the small pox.

The Plattsmouth Wheel Club is the name of a new cycling club which was organized in this city Monday evening and altogether the organization starts out with a strong membership and flattering prospects for success. The following staff of officers were chosen at the meeting last night. President, C. A. Marshal; treasurer, Geo. B. Lehnhoff; secretary, C. S. Sherman; captain, T. M. Patterson; lieutenant, T. K. Pollock.

The demise of John O'Leary, the aged store keeper at La Platte, occurred Thursday at about noon. He has been ailing for several months, and his death was due to old age more than to any other particular complaint. A well-known character in and about La Platte, he will be greatly missed by the people of that vicinity. The remains were interred at South Omaha on Saturday, the funeral being held under the auspices of the A. O. H.

The Nebraska City celebration of the nation's birthday appears to have "petered out." Not a cent having been raised by the committees to defray the celebration expenses. In the meantime the Plattsmouth people have "got together," raised a big fund and prepared for the biggest eagle-screaming in the history of the town. The Nebraska City folks are invited to come hither and join the festivities. Visitors are always well treated in Plattsmouth.

D. O. Dwyer, attorney, Plattsmouth. Z. W. Shrader, one of our weekly readers at Nehawka, was in the city yesterday and called at these headquarters.

Fatal Shooting at Waverly

Billy Holt, a section hand on the Burlington, was shot and instantly killed last Wednesday at Waverly by City Marshal Charley Kroesen. Particulars of the affair, as near as can be learned from the conflicting stories told, are in effect that Holt, with his brother and three or four other young men, were intoxicated and making a night of it and disturbing citizens. The marshal urged them to disperse and threatened the party with arrest. They showed fight and Holt, the marshal claims, struck and kicked him. He drew his revolver, firing to frighten them. Holt ran and Kroesen, so the bystanders say, fired a second time, the ball striking Holt just above the right nipple, causing instant death. Holt has a reputation that is not good. He has caused trouble before and was once under arrest.

We are pleased to announce that F. G. Fricke & Co., our enterprising druggists have secured the agency for the Japanese Pile Cure; a most wonderful discovery for the cure of piles of every kind, which they will sell with a written guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. It is said to be a specific for that terrible and dangerous disease. Get a free sample and try it.

Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all diseases of the respiratory organs are of like germ origin, and it is only lately that they have been successfully treated. In Holt's case, by steam inhalation, American scientists have succeeded, where Koch and Pasteur failed, in perfecting a cure that cures. For particulars address California Chemical Works, Omaha, Neb. 18-14
