

THE NATION'S DEAD.

Plattsmouth People Unite In Honoring Their Memory.

FLORAL TRIBUTES, ORATORY.

The Bicycle Club's Road Race—Won by Bright of Pacific Junction—Other Items of General Interest to "Journal" Readers.

Decoration Day Doings.

Yesterday was given over by Plattsmouth people to the paying of tribute to the heroes who fought for the preservation of the nation in time of war and whose remains now lie peacefully resting in Oak Hill cemetery. A large majority of the city's business houses were closed throughout the day, and the entire populace entered into the ceremonies with a zeal which plainly displayed that veneration was in every heart for the nation's heroes and preservers. The exercises proper commenced at 2 p. m., when the members of the G. A. R., the W. R. C., and the Jr. O. U. A. M. marched to Rockwood hall and listened to an address delivered by the Hon. E. R. Holmes, of Lincoln, and to the rendition of a musical program, the numbers of which were befitting to the occasion. The march to the burial grounds was taken up at 3:30 p. m., where ritualistic services of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. were held by those societies. Following came the covering of graves with wreaths of flowers.

The day was an ideal one and altogether the ceremonies were conducted in a manner which did credit to Plattsmouth's patriotism.

The Handicap Road Race.

Seldom has any local athletic event occasioned as much genuine interest as did yesterday's handicap road race. The entries numbered over a dozen riders, but after the handicapping committee had allotted the handicaps, only seven took the mark and participated. The riders, together with their handicaps, were as follows: W. J. Streight, 10 minutes; Fred McCauley, 6 minutes; J. K. Pollock, 5 minutes; Ed. Martin and J. Bright, 4 minutes; T. M. Patterson and Tom Parmelee, scratch. The course was twice around the fair grounds "horn," a distance of eight miles. Bright was first across the line at the finish. He comes from Pacific Junction and although a comparative novice, he shows promise of becoming a fast wheelman. His actual time was 33:57. Tom Parmelee came in second, his actual time—30:22—being the best ever made on the course. J. K. Pollock was third in 34:35.

Did Great Credit To the State.

Congressman Bryan was one of the orators at the big Arlington Decoration day celebration yesterday, and Billy Annin writes from Washington to the Lincoln Journal, in reference to Mr. Bryan's address, as follows: "The speech of Representative Bryan was one of the best efforts which he has made in Washington from any forum. It was well considered, tasteful, and delivered with much effect. He spoke for nearly fifteen minutes on patriotism and the duty of the people to preserve the government so that it would be worth fighting for. Secretary Morton is quoted this evening as saying that Mr. Bryan's speech was the best of the occasion, in good taste, fitness and adaptation to the opportunity and that the delivery was perfect. It did, he says, great credit to the state."

Glass of all kinds at Gering & Co's.

A well-known railroad man recently in talking about the recent freight rate war said: "The position of President George Gould of the Missouri Pacific was clearly defined in an interview he had with one of the best known railroad officials of the west, who went on to New York to interview Mr. Gould about the Missouri Pacific's position."

"The man from the west saw Mr. Gould, who was very quiet in his treatment of the rival officer. The dignified manner of the Missouri Pacific's president considerably excited the visitor, who rather vehemently remarked that if Mr. Gould persisted in his course of demoralizing freight rates it would ruin all the railroads in the west. To the excited speech of the freight man Mr. Gould calmly replied that if all the other railroads in the west passed into the hands of receivers the Missouri Pacific would be the one road remaining out of the control of the courts and he proposed to reduce rates until rival roads began to play fair." This was all the satisfaction the man who traveled out of the west got from George Gould, who, in the recent freight fight followed absolutely in the footsteps of his father.

AROUND THE COURT ROOMS.

DISTRICT COURT.

Andrew Factor was admitted to bail by County Judge Ramsey Friday, and after H. D. Crooker had gone upon his bond in the sum of $500, he was released from the Pearl street jail. Factor was indicted by the late grand jury on the charge of securing notes on false representations.

COUNTY COURT.

A marriage license was issued Saturday evening to Mr. Peter L. Sutler and Miss Charlotte Fickler. Both parties reside in the country south of town, the bride being the youngest daughter of Godfrey Fickler.

JUSTICE ARCHER'S COURT.

Harrison Graves received a sentence of $2.50 and trimmings for being drunk, and in default of cash was committed to jail.

Judge Archer has rendered judgment against Aaron Batterson and in favor of D. S. Draper for $21.00 in a suit on account for shelling corn.

Wesley Beeson was given a hearing in police court Saturday afternoon on a charge of assault with intent to rob Harrison Graves. He was discharged.

A complaint was sworn out in police court last night for the arrest of the inmates of a house of prostitution, but the complainant appeared this morning and withdrew the charges.

In the replevin suit of John Holmes vs. M. Morrissey, wherein the ownership of thirty-three bushels of corn were at stake, Justice Archer decided Saturday in favor of defendant.

Calvin G. Tabor has commenced an action in Judge Archer's court against the Missouri Pacific railway company, alleging that defendant company caused him $200 damage by setting fire to his hedge and meadow land, and for which amount he brings suit. Tabor resides near Weeping Water.

The judgment for $150.00 in the case of Christina Johnson vs. the People's Building, Loan and Savings association, obtained by plaintiff by default, has been set aside by Judge Archer on motion of defendant, who confesses judgment for costs and excepts to the court's jurisdiction. The case will be appealed on error to the district court.

Maurice Grant filed a complaint before Justice Archer Saturday charging Ashley W. Thrasher with the theft of a valise full of clothing and a watch, the whole valued at $50, thus making it a complaint for grand larceny. The theft is alleged to have occurred on the first of last December. Thrasher's present whereabouts are unknown.

COURT ROOM NOTES.

The commissioners have added a handsome new desk to the furnishings within the private office of Judge Chapman.

Miss Gertrude Kerney, County Judge Ramsey's deputy, journeyed out into the country last Friday to take some depositions.

Ex-County Commissioner Louis Foltz came up from Weeping Water Friday to deposit his taxes with the county treasurer. Mr. Foltz is the same genial, whole-souled fellow as of yore.

THE PLATTSMOUTH JOURNAL not long since made a wonderful ad about the Louisville Courier-Journal appropriating matter from its columns without giving proper credit. Last week Bro. Sherman stole bodily an editorial from this paper and appropriated it as one of its own without credit. We are glad to assist in making THE PLATTSMOUTH JOURNAL a better paper, but would like to have proper credit in the future.—Weeping Water Republican.

The Republican scribbler is evidently suffering from indigestion. THE JOURNAL has published nothing from the Republican without giving proper credit, and it never will. The Republican man is in bad need of pills.

J. W. Hendee, the hardware man, has placed himself at the head of the list of public spirited citizens and forever endeared himself to the thirsty people of Plattsmouth by establishing as a regular institution a barrel of ice water at the corner of Fourth and Main streets.

Does your gasoline burn well? If not, try Gering & Co., for the next lot.

HAVELOCK HAPPENINGS.

From the Times.

Mrs. Frank Eaton, of Colorado City, Colorado, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Greusel this week.

John Wright stored away a choice specimen of steel in his right eye yesterday and is now nursing the injured optic back to health.

Master Mechanic Greusel left on No. 2 for Aurora, Ill., yesterday afternoon where he will visit relatives, returning home Monday.

Fred. Warren, for a long time an employe at the shops but lately of Plattsmouth, is in town this week. Fred is studying for the ministry and intends going to college next fall.

Chas. Hempel, an old employe of the B. & M. at Plattsmouth, goes to work in the boiler shops here on Monday and will probably move his family to Havelock in the near future. The gentlemen is a brother and brother-in-law of Ben Hempel and D. O. Hewitt.

The April statement of the Burlington showed a decided improvement over the same month of last year. The gross earnings were $2,495,646, a decrease of $494,753 as compared with April, 1892; the net earnings were $840,322, an increase of $115,936; the surplus fund shows a gain of $40,322 against a deficit of $90,514 in 1893, making a total gain in the surplus of $138,836 over last year. This result is the outcome almost entirely of a curtailment of expenses, as all sources of gross earnings show a heavy falling off compared with the same month of last year.

A wonderful stomach corrector—Gering's German Liver Pills.

COLLEGE HILL NOTES.

Last Friday's frost struck us very hard. The garden truck and potatoes were badly demoralized and turned all black, and the grapes badly scorched. My apples, plums and blackberries, on account of being so well protected by trees, escaped, but others fared not so well and their apples, cherries and other fruit were ruined. Those living on high lands escaped altogether. The young corn was also badly damaged, but only on low lands. Small grain looks sickly, and if we do not get rain very soon will be ploughed up and planted in corn. C. S.

Gering & Co. guarantee a fit in spectacles or no sale at the very lowest prices.

J. M. Woodson has made some extensive improvements and repairs at his bath house on Sixth street, and is now ready to accommodate the public. During the coming heated season a swimming bath will be among the luxuries, and will doubtless be liberally patronized. Mr. Woodson has pretty strong competition in the free baths offered by the Missouri river, but the absence of danger of drowning in favor of his swimming pool will more than offset the difference in price.
