Hundreds of Cars and Other Property Burned by Strikers-Losses Will Reach Over $1,000,000 Strong Force of Military in the City.

CHICAGO, July 7 .- Instead of declaring Chicago under martial law Friday morning as was expected in some quarters United States army authorities held off for the time being and told Mayor Hopkins to go ahead and see what he could do towards preserving order. Mayor Hopkins consulted with his advisers until 11:30. Then he wired Gov. Altgeld demanding five regiments of militia.

Gov. Altgeld at once ordered out the First and Third brigades. The First brigade is composed of the First and Second infantries, Troop A, Battery D and the Seventh infantry, all of Chicago. The Third brigade comprises the Third and Sixth regiments, from Elgin, Ottawa, Bloomington, Rockford, Streator, Freeport, Galena, Sterling, Dixon and other cities.

Three hundred extra policemen were sworn in, increasing the police force to 3,300. There are in the neighborhood of 1,000 deputy United States marshals in active service, and half that number of deputy sheriffs. The Leavenworth regulars, 300 strong, and those from Fort Brady, 150 strong, arrived Friday morning. The force available in the city Friday night was therefore roughly as follows:

Some of Friday's Events. The following abbreviated sample of events of the day show the temper of the strikers:

From Brighton Park to Sixty-first street the yards of the Pan-Handle road were Friday night put to the torch by the rioters. Between 600 and 700 freight cars have been destroyed, many of them loaded. Miles and miles of costly track are a snarled tangle of heat-twisted rails. Not less than $750,000-possibly a whole $1,000,000 of property-has been sacrificed to the caprice of the rioters. The long lines of cars were simply left to burn as they might. Hundreds of these cars were loaded with anthracite coal, and as the woodwork burned away great beds of the burning coal were dumped on the rails. These coal heaps will glow with intense heat for days yet and wherever they touched the rails the steel was twisted and warped and coiled inextricably. The damage done to the tracks in this way cannot be

At least 200 of the cars were loaded with by anarchists to destroy the heads of anthracite coal, worth five dollars a ton-not less than $15,000. There were also twenty cars loaded with meat and a dozen or more others filled with valannually turned over $1,500,000 worth uable furniture. These the rioters

In an attack of the strikers upon a passenger train at Kensington William E. Anslyn, a striker, was shot and fatally injured by Gerald Stark, a special officer of the Michigan Central railroad. Stark also wounded Frank Udess, a striker.

Late in the afternoon a gang of over 200 men overpowered the watch at the north end shops at Pullman. They entered the buildings and walked through them, but detectives discovered what the plans of the strikers were and reported them to Superindent Middleton in time for him to get protection and thus frustrate them. These plans, as reported, provided for an attack upon the shops at three points -the north end, the water tower and

REACHING OUT.

The Strike Rapidly Spreading Toward the He Thinks the Presence of Federal Troops East.

CLEVELAND, O., July 7 .- The meeting of local railway men to consider the question of striking lasted until nearly daybreak and ended in a practically unanimous decision to go out. Committees were sent to the various troops from Chicago, insisting that yards to inform the men of the action their presence there was an intaken and to notify them to quit work at 6 a. m. road in Detroit was tied up after 10:30 Friday night in accordance with the action of the joint meeting of reprehoods. All the railway firemen, switchmen, yardmen, brakemen and freight handlers in the city went out. The engineers and conductors did not strike, but it will be impossible to operate trains, as the en- | He continues: gineers will not work with non-union firemen. The Michigan Central, which had heretofore been free from the strike locally, is tied up. The night trains were not sent out and twenty engines were sent to the roundhouse. At the union station a Detroit, Lansing & Northern train already made up, was the only train which went out. A Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee train drawing a Chicago & Grand Trunk Pullman car, also left the Grand Trunk depot without molestation.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 7 .- Grand Master Sargent of the firemen has received word that the strike fever is moving south. At Memphis the firemen report that great pressure is being put on them to go out. The firemen are particularly solicited because if they go out the engineers will not work with the non-union men who take their places. The situation here is not changed. The Big Four local employes are still out, but trains are running. The Chicago & Eastern Illinois will run all of their day passenger trains. Many of the Vandalia shop men are out but the train service is unimpaired, although officials are doing the switching.

NEW YORK, July 7 .- All vacations in the police department have been stopped by order of Superintendent Byrnes, and all members of the force, from captain down, who had left the city on their vacations, have been summoned by telegraph to return

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 7 .- The present indications are that Buffalo is selected by Mr. Debs as the next objective point to tie-up. With two such railroad centers as Chicago and Buffalo embarrassed traffic between the west and the east would be seriously impaired.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7 .- At Phoenix, A. T., Judge Hawkins, of the United States district court, has issued an order placing the Atlantic & Pacific road in Arizona in the charge of United States Marshal Meade, and conferring upon him all the power to operate it. Little violence has been done along the line, though nearly 100 men have been arrested by the United States authorities. The action was taken at the instance of the receivers of the Atlantie & Pacific.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 7. - Gov. Fishback has issued a proclamation calling upon all officers and others in authority to arrest the leaders of the strike, if in Arkansas; and if in another state the proper warrant should be sued out to bring them to the scene of their crime for speedy punishment.

PEORIA, Ill., July 7 .- The switchmen in the Peoria & Pekin union yards have voted to remain at work and handle all freight. They say they have no grievance and will not go out.

PITTSBURGH, July 7. - The non-arrival of passenger trains over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad from points west of Fort Wayne caused much excitement at Union Station. For the first time passenger service from the west was seriously interfered

The feeling among the trainmen in Pittsburgh has undergone a great change and the indications for their joining the boycott are very strong. It is believed that the events of the next few hours will mean much to this city.

St. Paul, Minn., July 7 .- A general order for a strike on the St. Paul & Duluth road was issued at 11 o'clock. Every switchman in the yard had quit his post by noon. Thursday this road discharged a number of switchmen who refused to handle cars from the tiedup roads between St. Paul and Minneapolis. General Manager Plough was waited on and asked to reinstate the men, but refused to do so unless the men handle all cars. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 7 .- At a meetshops of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & strike in sympathy with the Pullman | night it passed away in fiery splendor, boycoit. About 500 men went out.

WASHINGTON, July 7 .- Senator Allen (Neb.) introduced in the senate a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five senators, not more than two of whom shall be of the same party, to consider the advisability or necessity of government ownership of railroads and telegraphs and to examine the existing troubles between employers and employes, and discover what legislation is necessary to prevent strikes and lock-outs in the future.

ALTGELD PROTESTS.

an Invasion of State Rights. WASHINGTON, July 7 .- In a long telegraphic dispatch addressed to the president late Thursday night Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois, loudly demanded the withdrawal of the federal sult to the people of the state and an invasion of the rights of the held that there was no necessity for nois, and intimated that when, in his opinion, the necessity arose, he would notify the proper authorities in the proper way.

He claims that it is not soldiers that sentatives of all the local brother- the railroads need so much as it is men to operate trains, and that the conditions do not exist in Illinois which bring the cause within the federal statutes, a statute that was passed in 1881, and was in reality a war measure.

"The question of federal supremacy is in no way involved. No one disputes it for a moment. But under our constitution federal supremacy and local self-government must go hand in to the constitution.

"To absolutely ignore a local government in matters of this kind, when the local government is ready to furnish assistance needed and is amply able to enforce the law. not only insults the people of this state by imputing to them an inability to govern themselves or an unwillingness to enforce the law. but is in violation of a basic principle of our institutions.

"As governor of the state of Illinois I protest against this and ask the immediate drawal of the federal troops from active duty in this state. Should the situation at any time get so serious that we cannot control it with the state forces we will promptly and freely ask for federal assistance, but until such time I protest with all due deference against this uncalled-for reflection upon our people, and again ask the immediate withdrawal of these troops. I have the honor to be yours respectfully.

"JOHN P. ALTGELD, "Governor of Illinois." The President's Reply.

"EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 5, 1894.—Hon. John P. Altgeld, Governor of Illinois, Sprinufield III.: Federal troops were sent to Chicago in strict accordance with the constitution and laws of the United States, upon the demand of the post office department that obstruction of the mails should be removed, and upon the representations of the judicial officers of the United States that process of the federal court could not be executed through the ordinary means, and upon abundant proof that conspiracies existed against commerce between the states. To meet these conditions, which are clearly within the province of federal authority, the presence of federal troops in the city of Chicago was deemed not only proper but necessary, and there has been no intention of thereby interfering with the plain duty of the local authorities to preserve the peace of the city.

VOTED ON TARIFF.

The Senate Takes Final Action on the Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 5 .- In the midst of intense excitement at 10:41 Tuesday night, having been debated for three months and one day, the tariff bill, amended to take effect August 1, 1894, passed the senate by a vote of 34 to 39 -a strict party vote, except Senator Hill, who voted with the republicans against the measure. The populists divided their strength, Senators Kyle and Allen voting in favor of the bill and Senators Peffer and against it.

Senator Hill in a brief speech said that in his opinion the bill imperiled the possibility of permanent democratic success in any northern state for many years to come. As between a populistic income tax on the one hand and a republican tariff law on the other, he chose the latter as the least of two evils. As between pernicious class legislation fraught with dangerous consequences to the country on the one hand and simply high tariff taxation on the other, he preferred to endure the latter, at least for a brief period. Calls of "Vote!" "Vote!" kept coming from the democratic side and at 10:25 o'clock the clerk began to call the roll.

Thursday and thousands mourned its fall. This morning nothing but smoking ruins mark where on Thursday the Administration building, Machinery hall, the Agricultural building and the Manufactures building stood outlined against the sky.

The fire broke out shortly after 6 o'clock and though speculation is rife as to its origin nothing is definitely known, but it is supposed to have been incendiary. It was first discovered in the southwest corner of the Terminal station, whence it spread rapidly. It seemed as though everything conspired to help along the work of destruction. The buildings were like tinder, there was a scarcity of water, and confusion reigned supreme.

The fire was discovered by several boys at 6:15 o'clock in the southwestern corner of the first floor of the Terminal station. When first seen it was but an incipient blaze, and the boys enminutes. They were unsuccessful, however, as the fierce gale which was then blowing from the southwest fanned the fire, and before an alarm could be turned in the fire had reached the second story of the building.
