

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

Dr. Butler, of Weeping Water, was a county seat visitor yesterday.

Josias Tighe of Center precinct was in town Friday visiting his brother, John.

J. Q. Adams, of Eagle, was in the city Saturday, a guest at the home of Oliver Dovey.

C. J. Zaar, one of South Bend precincts' most thrifty farmers, was in the city Saturday.

Postmaster Walter Pailing and Attorney George W. Clark, of Greenwood, were in the city Tuesday.

J. W. Thomas is again running his Platte river ferry at Oronopolis, and is ready to serve all who are travelling his way.

A little daughter of Geo. P. Meisinger, living near Cedar Creek, was knocked down by a cow on Thursday, and received painful but not serious injuries.

Miss Kittie Russell of Weeping Water, who has been visiting at the home of A. B. Knotts in this city, left Tuesday evening for a visit at Val-lisla, Ia.

Geo. Erickson, one of the best known and most progressive farmers in the vicinity of Greenwood, was in town Saturday and gave THE JOURNAL a pleasant call.

J. Q. Adams and son, Alpheus, of Eagle were in town Sunday evening visiting with the former's daughter, Mrs. O. C. Dovey, and journeyed to Omaha Monday morning.

The town of Glenwood, Ia., is actually so sleepy that it does not provide a public watering place for teams. Perhaps that accounts for the large number of Iowa farmers who come to Plattsmouth to trade.

Prof. Waterhouse, superintendent of the Weeping Water schools, arrived last Friday from a visit with his children in Pennsylvania. He was visiting with County Superintendent Farley in this city Friday.

Geo. Davis has moved his family and farming effects back from Frontier county. He is now rather thoroughly convinced that Cass county is the place for him. Western Nebraska has no further charms for him.

Down at Weeping Water they have quite a number of enthusiastic bicyclists, but they don't care to ride on a Sunday for fear of being drummed out of society. What? It must be unbearable to live in a country town.

The oratorical contest for a Democrat silver medal, which was to have been held at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, has been postponed for the reason that some of the contestants were not fully prepared. The date for holding the contest will be announced later.

Miss Gertrude Marsland has gone to Bradford, Yorkshire, England, and will remain abroad until November, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Marsland accompanied her to New York, from which place she will sail Saturday in the Cunarder, Servia—Lincoln Journal.

During the storm which passed over western Nebraska the other day a farmer named J. W. West, who lives near Gandy, and his wife were struck by lightning. Mrs. West was instantly killed. Mr. West had strength enough left to go for assistance, but it is now thought that he cannot survive.

Cass county is soon to lose one of its newspapers—the Nehawka Register. In last week's issue Mr. Carlisle, the publisher, announced that this week the publication will be discontinued, and the plant removed to Burchard, Pawnee county, where a new paper will be established.

The funeral of the late H. A. Waterman was held from the residence of the son of the deceased, John Waterman, last Friday and was attended by a large number of friends of the family. Rev. J. T. Baird preached the funeral sermon and the remains were interred in Oak Hill cemetery.

A man whose business was putting in baglar alarms stopped on the road between Springfield and Louisville to take a bath in the Platte. He forgot to attach one of his machines to the pockets of his pants, and when he went to dress he found that all his money and a gold watch were missing. No trace of the thief has been discovered.

The track of the Burlington extension from Sheridan to Billings is being laid at the rate of one mile per day. Over sixty-five miles have been already completed. Over 2,000 men have been sent to Sheridan, but many of them refuse to work after they arrive there, so that the company has finally decided to only send out those who show symptoms of being willing to work.

The Nebraska City Press says: Judge Strode's over-enthusiastic friends in Lancaster county must realize by this time that the Cass county delegation can not be depended on to serve as Lancaster's cat's paw in the congressional convention, just because Judge Chapman and his Cass county supporters were generous enough to yield to Field two years ago.

A most distressing accident occurred Thursday at Syracuse, in the drowning of Miss Clara Doman, aged 17, in the Little Nemaha river. It seems that she, in company with her brother went fishing. He left her on the bank and went around a bend a few rods from her. On his return he did not see her, but found her hat and fish pole. An alarm was at once given and in a short time her helpless body was found. She was the daughter of the oldest resident of Syracuse, and was one of a large family. This is the first time that the circle has been broken by death.

The members of the wheel club have abandoned the project of constructing a race track on the Chicago avenue ball grounds by reason of the fact that too much expensive grading would be required to make it level. The scheme now advanced is to wait for the falling of the Missouri and then lay a track out on the sand-bars east of town. A three-inch layer of cinders mixed with earth spread over the course would make a fast track, sure enough, and it ought to be constructed without any great expense. Meanwhile the club races will be held out at the fair grounds.

The Chicago Inter Ocean, speaking of the destruction of property by the mob at Chicago, says the Burlington lost 170 cars. About 5 per cent of these were loaded with grain and the balance were empties. An ordinary box-car is worth $400. Averaging the value of the above 170 cars at $400 each makes a total loss to that company of $68,000. To this must be added the damage to rails, ties, switches, etc., about $5,000, or a total of $73,000. The total loss will foot up over $80,000, which Chicago or the state of Illinois will have to pay.

Joe Wurga and Fred and William Ohm furnished a little diversion for the neighborhood around Fourteenth and Main streets on Friday night, in which the reputations and records of both families were fully discussed. After the usual threats were made by both sides, Wurga adjourned to police court and caused a peace warrant to be issued against the Ohms. The case was heard Monday morning, when Judge Archer arbitrated their differences and threw the case out of court.

THE JOURNAL freely admits that it would be wasting space to tell of the incompetency of Col. Polk's little brother while serving the city as its attorney. The public, however, can expect the "little brother's" record in detail should the republicans of Cass county choose to make him their candidate for county attorney, and we promise faithfully that we shall tell only facts. In the meantime the "little brother" will not be given the chance to pose as a martyr.

Don't buy a bicycle until you see us. The "fifty-dollar ladies'" is certainly a sensation. We are sole agents for them. LEHNSOFF BROS.

We have seen a number of watch chains ornamented with a pretty charm in the shape of a watch case opener, which obviates the use of a knife or finger nail to open the watch. They are sent free on request by the Keystone Watch Case Company, of Philadelphia, Pa. You'll see them here, and you'll buy them.

The Keystone Watch Case Company is the largest concern of its kind in the world. Its capacity is 2500 watch cases per day. It manufactures every description of case, but its great specialty is that most popular of all watch cases, the Jax. It has gold filled. These are equal in beauty and wear to solid gold—while they cost only about one half as much. Boss and other Keystone cases are the only cases that have the famous Non-pull-out bow or ring, which saves the watch from theft and accident. The Keystone Company does not retail, but our local jewelers handle the cases and swear by the thief-proof qualities of the ring.

Governor Crounse has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $200 for the arrest of Robert Moorehead for the murder of Alva Sharpe at Falls City. Moorehead is charged with striking Sharpe on the head with a shotgun on the fourth of July and from the effects of the blow Sharpe died shortly after. Moorehead escaped and his whereabouts are unknown to the officers.

A number of Hastings citizens, says a dispatch from that town, have entered into a guessing match with a couple of rainmakers named Morris, who arrived Monday from Iowa. The citizens guess that it won't rain there within the next five days and the Morrises that it will. If the former lose they forfeit $400, and if the latter lose they are out their time and the cost of material. Operations commenced Monday.

County Treasurer Eickhoff returned last Monday from a hurried trip on business to Chicago. He reports that everything is quiet with the railroads at that place and that there is very little likelihood of any further disturbance.

Burlington freight engine No. 31, together with two cars of merchandise and one of stock, were derailed just this side of White Cloud, Kas., Tuesday evening. Engineer James Napier, Fireman Schirner and a brakeman were on the engine at the time of the accident, but all escaped unhurt. The three cars and engine were badly wrecked. The accident was caused by a landslide.

Judge J. B. Strode of Lincoln was in the city Friday to look after his congressional fences. He wants the republican nomination for congress so bad that he can almost taste it, but the chances are against him securing the support of the Otoe county delegation. Judge Chapman also wants the nomination, so his friends are pulling strong for him, and it looks as if he would capture the delegation, provided, however, John G. Watson don't want it. —Nebraska City News.

AROUND THE COURT ROOMS.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Chapman held a short session of district court Tuesday morning and then adjourned court until Friday morning.

Judge Chapman returned home from Nebraska City last evening and will hold district court tomorrow to hear the case of Jansen vs. Lewis. The judge hopes to clean up the docket by tomorrow and thus adjourn the present term of court which first convened in May.

COUNTY COURT.

Judge Ramsey last Tuesday heard a charge of incorrigibility preferred by John Frieck and wife against their daughter Anna, and decided to commit the girl to the reformatory at Geneva.

A warrant was issued in county court Friday for the arrest of Frank Wannamaker, who is charged with making threats against the life of his father-in-law, Carl Pankonin. Both complainant and defendant reside near Louisville. A trial of the case will be had before Judge Ramsey next Tuesday. Pankonin made the same kind of a charge against Wannamaker several months ago but withdrew the complaint before the case went to trial.

JUSTICE ARCHER'S COURT.

The case of John Swoboda vs. Philip Forno was heard before Judge Archer on Tuesday and taken under advisement.

In Judge Archer's court today Kopp, Driebus & Co., wholesale confectioners of Omaha, were awarded a judgment by default for $147 and interest, against D. T. Dudley of Weeping Water.

"Barnum" Miller is after the stranger who has been running a spindle on the streets for a few days past. "Barnum" loaned the spindle man a couple of dollars the other day, but the fellow failed to return it according to the agreement. As a consequence "Barnum" levied on the fellow's spindle on last Saturday and unless the money is produced, the outfit will be sold to satisfy the claim.

COURT ROOM NOTES.

A. S. Cooley, of Eagle, Cass county's sweetest singer, was in town Saturday looking after some business for the Solomon Ward estate, for which he is administrator.

Progression.

Hearts change, intelligence grows. The thing you loved a little while ago is common now, and small and tame—it almost makes you blush with shame to think you loved it so.

And yet, somebody, you do not realize. That what today you dearly love and prize will undergo as much of change—will seem as dull and strange, and you will not desire.

There's nothing constant underneath the sun. We're seeking something better, every one, change is the universal law. We follow where the magnets draw. Till our brief race is run. —ALBERT EICHERY.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Sent for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. The long dry spell has struck western Nebraska with unusual severity, and a large per cent of its farmers have been literally starved out. As a consequence they are moving back east, and in travelling out in the county one will meet emigrant's wagons by the dozen moving eastward. The real estate agent who has western lands on his books will find it hard for a while, at any rate, to make a sale on the strength of this year's crops.

Cool and Beautiful.

Is Hot Springs, South Dakota, best reached by the Burlington Route. Palatial hotels, wonder-working waters, pure air, and magnificent surroundings are only a few of its attractions.

The Burlington's local agent will gladly give you full information about Hot Springs, and also—if you ask for it—a beautifully illustrated folder.
