

A. S. Cooley of Eagle was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

Jos. Hall of Eight Mile Grove precinct returned home yesterday from a two months' visit with relatives in Indiana.

The Weeping Water depueban, with characteristic enterprise, is publishing a neat daily edition during the soldier's reunion.

Bush Robbins of Denver, who was called hither to attend the funeral of his brother on Wednesday, returned to his labors Friday.

Church Howe's peridy to Chapman will not be forgotten. The next time Church asks for anything from Cass county he will get it—right in the neck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Craig, Mrs. Perry Walker and daughter, Grace, and Sarah Baker constituted a party of pleasure-seekers who journeyed to Hot Springs, S. D., Friday.

Geo. Anderson, foreman at Peppersberg's cigar factory, departed for Kansas City Monday night in response to a telegram received Monday afternoon announcing the death of his father.

Weeping Water, during the reunion, is overrun with thieves and thugs, and house-breaking is unusually prevalent. Some half-dozen residences were broken into yesterday and property to the value of $300 carried away.

Samuel Chaney, the proprietor of a hotel at Riverton, Ia., a small town in southwestern Iowa, attempted to shoot a man the other day for having eloped with his daughter. He was disarmed and a tragedy avoided.

Congressman Bryan left Washington last night and will arrive in Omaha Friday afternoon. He will go back that evening, however, to Atlantic, Ia., where he makes a speech for General Weaver on Saturday afternoon, and he will be in Lincoln Saturday night.

The public will anxiously await a report of Councilman Steimker's investigation as to the late glove contest, but the general opinion seems to be that Mr. Steimker will make no report. It was simply a dodge to fasten blame on the county officials.

The Nebraska City News, in its account of the late republican congressional convention, makes the following cruel thrust at a Plattsmouth man: "On the 63rd ballot Chapman lost three votes after a short speech by Judge Sullivan of Cass county."

Michael Hogan, a well-to-do farmer, living about five miles north of Columbus, Neb., accidentally shot and killed himself about six o'clock last Friday. He leaves a wife and family. He was getting through a wire fence when the gun was accidentally discharged.

Anton Zimmerer, of Nebraska City, who a short time ago announced himself as a candidate for state treasurer subject to the action of the republican state convention, has withdrawn his name. Mr. Zimmerer entered the field too late, and found to his sorrow that the republican state convention, which has given out only when one's candidacy is announced a centry in advance.

Supt. Ed Bignell of the B. & M. has four very large and magnificent ears of yellow corn hung above his desk at the depot, which he is fond of showing to the calamity howlers who come in his office with their doleful tales of woe and of the failure of the Nebraska corn crop. The ears were secured at LaPlatte by Claim Agent J. M. Saxton Wednesday, while he was up in that direction scouting around and viewing the crops.—Lincoln Journal.

Collector North of the internal revenue department Tuesday received a letter from the acting commissioner notifying him that the law taxing playing cards two cents per pack might pass at any time. Mr. North is instructed to ascertain at once from the dealers exactly how many packs of playing cards they have in their possession in order that the tax may be collected on the day that the bill passes.—World-Herald.

If Mr. Dutton of the county board does not kick on the cost bill amassed in the recent coroner's inquest, it will be almost the first time during the gentleman's official career that he has failed so to do. Kicking seems to be Mr. Dutton's chief stock in trade. Perhaps during the campaign the man may conclude to drop officious airs and reside in the same sphere with the common people. No one can tell different, for a man who needs votes often acts queerly.

As a presiding officer Judge Windham, of Plattsmouth, is par excellence. A thorough parliamentarian, quick, yet accurate, he seems to have the faculty of doing the right thing at the right time. Judge Windham made many new friends last evening and his unanimous election as chairman in the face of such rivalry which although entirely friendly is nevertheless spirited and determined, is an honor he has just reason to feel proud of.—Nebraska City Press.

Cass County Independents Convene.

The people's independent county convention, held at Wabash last Saturday, was called to order by G. S. Upton, chairman of the county central committee, and on motion G. W. Peterson was chosen temporary chairman and B. F. Allen secretary.

The following committees were appointed:

On credentials—David McCaig, H. C. Madding, W. J. McAllister, M. O. Weed, Ed. Dorr.

On resolutions—G. S. Upton, Silas Crabtree, H. Strickland, H. G. Race, D. W. Hill.

Committee on credentials reported fourteen precincts and wards represented with 105 delegates with credentials and entitled to seats.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That we reaffirm the principles of the people's party as laid down in the Omaha platform. During the two years that this famous declaration of principles has been before the people it has proved itself worthy of the great party that formulated it and its principles is the key-note of the country from ocean to ocean.

RESOLVED, That we endorse the action of our senator and representatives in both branches of congress, and also approve of the action of Wm. J. Bryan, in his faithful work in behalf of the common people of this country.

RESOLVED, That the action of the state officials in regard to the means and methods employed in caring for the funds of the state be denounced and that we insist on a strict performance of their duty, so that the men found guilty of appropriating the money of the state be dealt with in strict conformity to law.

RESOLVED, That when the legislature convenes next January that one of the first acts of that body shall be the passage of a bill for the relief of the drought stricken people of the state.

Delegates were elected to the state, district and float conventions as follows:

State convention—F. W. Vallery, B. F. Allen, L. G. Todd, A. M. Russell, G. S. Upton, H. C. Madding, W. G. Waugh, W. D. Hill, H. Elliott, J. McClelland, J. Hollister.

Congressional convention—G. S. Upton, H. Strickland, J. A. Rankin, J. Clark, J. P. Rouse, B. F. Laughlin, C. S. Wortman, J. R. Trockmorton, J. McClelland, H. Hubbard, W. J. McAllister.

Float convention—Henry Hardnock, J. M. Carter, H. D. Barr, E. Norton, Ed. Dorr, J. Clarke, J. M. Campbell, L. G. Todd, A. Strickland, D. W. Foster, B. M. Miller.

A. M. Russell was made chairman and B. F. Allen secretary of the county central committee, and each precinct and ward represented named a member of the committee.

A Gasoline Explosion.

What came near being a serious accident took place Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. H. Deitman at Wabash, this county. While the family were eating supper the gasoline stove in an adjoining room exploded, filling the room with flames, spreading so rapidly as to almost completely shut off all escape. Fortunately help came in time to extinguish the fast spreading flames and save the occupants and property.

The everlasting procession of prairie schooners is still wending its weary way eastward. Next spring they will wearily wend westward again, and most of them will be glad to get back. As a rule the people in the states east of us are no better off than those west, or those in Nebraska, and this everlasting moving around hunting for Utopia isn't what it is cracked up to be.—Nebraska City News.

Box Butte Is In the Swim.

ALLIANCE, August 15th, 1894.—EDITOR JOURNAL—Box Butte county is under water. The heaviest rain during the past five years fell here yesterday, and for about three hours this level prairie had the appearance of a vast sea of water. Box Butte county soil will now go into winter quarters in the best condition ever before known, thus insuring a good start for all kind of cereals the coming season. Judging from the present and future crop prospects, I predict that those who bartered their land away for a mere nothing, and left here a few years ago, will in the near future, tear their hair and gnash their teeth and say: "O, what fools we were!"
