

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

John Shail, one of South Bend precinct's prosperous young farmers, was in the city Wednesday and gave THE JOURNAL a call.

Mrs. H. R. Reese, of North Platte, and Mrs. Walter Scott, of Omaha, are in the city, the guests of their parents, H. C. McMaken and wife.

Joe Sedlocek and wife returned this morning to Alliance, where Joe is employed in the B. & M. repair shop, after a week's visit here with relatives.

John Robbins, jr., departed Saturday evening for Ashland where he will attend school and incidentally play football on the Ashland high school team.

The stone quarry at Nehawka is reported to be doing a rushing business—having 120 men on its pay roll. That means that building or improvement of some sort is going on or in prospect soon.

United States Marshal White had his right hand crushed Tuesday afternoon by the cords in a weighted window in his office breaking and the window falling upon it. No bones were broken.—World Herald.

John Ellis, a farm hand employed near Fremont, was trying to shoot some squirrels the other day when his gun exploded, with the sad result of putting out one of his eyes and otherwise injuring him about the face. He was taken to a hospital in Omaha for treatment.

John Conway, a Johnson county farmer, has been put in the county jail at Tecumseh on the charge of trying to carve a neighbor farmer, William Dyson, over a dispute arising from the ownership of a colt. He will be obliged to board on the county forty days to compensate for two washes he cut across his neighbor's face.

Postal notes are no longer issued by the postoffice department. This change took place on the 30th of June when the new and lower rates for money orders went into effect. Now money orders up to $2.50 cost but three cents, and from that up to $5.00 cost five cents, so that it would be no more economic to get a postal note than a money order.

The first of the Burlington's annual harvest excursion trains passed through town Wednesday, No. 5 being in two sections. Both trains were filled, most of the passengers coming from Illinois and Indiana. Their mission is to take a look at the western farm lands, but quite a few disembarked at this station with the intention of confining their sight-seeing to Cass county.

Jacob Vallery, jr., returned from a visit to the state fair Tuesday. He reports that the display in all departments is simply astonishing; that in farm products, including corn, the display is, in his judgment, better than he ever saw at the state fair, while the show which is made by those localities having the benefit of irrigation is great beyond description. He advises everybody to go and see the fair.

U. S. Senator John Sherman, Gen. Nelson A. Miles and a number of friends have gone to Cherry county, this state, on a hunting trip. The party journeyed over the Northern from Chicago to Missouri Valley, and at the latter place met by General Manager Burt and Attorney Hawley of the Elkhorn and escorted to Blair, where a special car was taken. After the hunt the party will visit the Black Hills.

Thursday was certainly a day for the breaking of records. Robert J., the pacing wonder, put the record for the mile down to 2:02; and Pinkey Bliss, the little Chicagoan, clipped a second and over off the bicycle record for the flying mile and set the mark at 1:22.5. Two things are established by yesterday's records—the two minute horses is a strong probability and the bicyclist is better than the pacer or trotter.

The result of the hot wave of last July may be judged by the fact that instead of 40 to 70 bushels of corn per acre, as the farmers expected, they will have to be content with an average of about 8 to 10—certainly not more than the latter figure, so S. A. Davis reports. C. H. Parmelee thinks, however, that there is enough corn in the county, not counting that which has been kept over from former years, to last the farmers the year through.

A rather interesting case from Cass county reached the supreme court yesterday. It had its origin in the voting of bonds by the township for the building of a bridge across the Platte at Louisville. When the time came for making repairs the town asked the county to do it, and upon the refusal of the commissioners to foot the bills, the case went to the district court and a decision was given against the county. The matter now comes to the supreme court on appeal.—Lincoln Journal.

OBITUARY.

DIED—August 31, 1894. Mrs. Polly A. Oldham, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dora Moore, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Deceased had been for some time in failing health, principally caused by old age, being past seventy-seven years, having been born in Howard county, Missouri, in 1817. She was a relative of General Robert E. Lee, of Governor Jackson, years ago a distinguished governor of Missouri, and also of Stonewall Jackson, the celebrated confederate general. Her husband, Jackson G. Oldham, preceded her to the Great Beyond on June 11, 1890. Both now lie side by side in the Oak Hill cemetery at Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Mrs. Oldham left surviving her children as follows: J. G. Oldham and R. C. Oldham, living near Beaver City, Furnas county, Neb.; Curza Baker, residing in Holt county, Neb.; H. L. Oldham, residing at Murray, Cass county, Neb.; George J. Oldham and Dora Moore, residing in Plattsmouth, Neb., and Lavina Connelly, residing in Sheridan county, Neb.

Mrs. Oldham and her family located on a farm about eight miles south of Plattsmouth in June, 1866, where she had lived until a year or so ago, when she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Moore, in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Oldham in disposition was quiet and unassuming, and most devotedly attached to her family. Her disposition was of that character which always attracts, and friendship once formed with her was lasting. Her kindly disposition made her a universal favorite with all who knew her.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends, who so kindly gave assistance and sympathy on the occasion of the death of our dear mother, we tender our sincerest and most grateful thanks. May they long be spared the sorrows of similar bereavements. GEORGE J. OLDHAM. DORA MOORE.

Hatt & Otto have on tap at their neat market a sample sack of sorghum molasses made from sugar cane raised this summer on their farm out on the Platte bottom north of this city. Two acres of cane were planted this year as an experiment and the crop will prove sufficient to make 300 gallons of sorghum. The latter product sells for fifty cents per gallon, and Hatt & Otto will thus realize $75 per acre on the sugar cane. Next year they propose to put more of their farm into sugar cane, this year's returns being entirely satisfactory.

Deafness Cannot be Cured By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

It comes with mighty poor grace for the republican candidate for county attorney, Sigel Polk, or his big brother, Milton, to solicit votes among republicans for the former. During both of the campaigns waged by County Attorney Travis he was openly supported by the Polks. The latter gentlemen will awake after election to a realization of the sad truth that party perfidy has its reward. Sigel is a gone gossling.

Elmer Fulton, an inmate in the Iowa institute for feeble-minded children, located at Glenwood, was drowned at Twin lake, the fishing resort situated on the Iowa side of the river about ten miles south of this city. A party of inmates were on their annual outing when the accident occurred.

Passenger trains on the Burlington will be discontinued Saturday west of Holdrege and mixed trains, daily, substituted. The people in the section affected are up in arms, but it will avail little as the fat to cut expenses wherever possible has gone forth.—Omaha Bee.

Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all diseases of the respiratory organs are of like germ origin, and it is only lately that they have been successfully treated. In this taken by steam inhalation, American scientists have succeeded, where Koch and Pasteur failed, in perfecting a cure therefor. SONNETS

(Upon the death of Mrs. Annie O'Rourke.) THE SUMMONS, I think that while she stood there all alone An angel rose before her, and he said "Dear sister, all thine earthly years have fled; Beyond the things of earth thy soul hath grown. The Father bids me bring thee to thine own." And then he set a crown upon her head, Bright, but to us invisible, and led Her shining spirit upward to the throne. And then her eyes took on a clearer sight, As, dropping from her head, she arose. She saw four Pathways, leading up a height. To enter one white Gateway at the close. She smiles! all care forever laid at rest— That gate leads to the City of the Host.

CONSOLATION. I reckon this is a bitter loss to me; It is no little thing to lose a friend. In such deep, awful solitude, to bend Above an unfamiliar face, and see No answering smile in eyes that used to be So full of light. Lo! this is all—the end Of earth. Her way leads up, its paths extend On, and still onward, to eternity. Yet there could be no night had not the day First charmed us with its rose and silver hues. Be thankful for the rose, and let the grey Drop on thy heart its soft and healing dews: For it is much, in this bleak world, to say One had so kind and true a friend to lose! ISABEL RICHIEY.
