HE USED HIS KNIFE.

An Iowa Farmer Provokes a Quarrel and Is Struck.

FUSION IN CASS IS NOW CERTAIN

The Democratic and Populist County Central Committees Meet at Union and Agree on a Fusion Ticket—Dutton's Weak Excuse.

Meagre particulars come from the Iowa bottoms just across the river of a cutting affair which happened last night. Ben Lincoln, a farmer who lives three miles north-east of the bridge, provoked a quarrel with a young farm hand and hit the fellow with a club. The youth responded by pulling out a pocket-knife and plunged it into Lincoln's abdomen, making a deep gash some five or six inches long. Lincoln bled profusely, but a doctor was summoned and his wound was attended to. It is not known whether Lincoln's injury will have a serious result.

Fusion Now a Certainty.

A meeting of the democratic and populist county central committees was had at Union yesterday, and an agreement was perfected between the two committees which insures the election of the entire anti-republican ticket in Cass county in the coming campaign.

At the democratic meeting the declination of Louis Foltz, democratic nominee on the legislative ticket, was read and accepted, and the name of David McCaig, one of the populist nominees, was ordered put on the ticket in Mr. Foltz's place. The name of B. F. Allen, populist nominee for state senator, was also ordered placed on the democratic ticket. A motion that the democracy of Cass county be requested to vote for Geo. Leidigh, the democrat whom the populists nominated for float representative on Tuesday last, was carried. Chas. Grimes handed in his resignation as chairman of the county central committee, and M. Archer was elected in his place.

At the meeting of the populist central committee the resignation of Dr. Madding, one of the populist nominees for representative, was accepted, and the name of H. G. Livingston, democratic nominee, was inserted. The candidacy of Mr. Leidigh was also endorsed.

The joint action of the two committees makes the fusion ticket read as follows:

State senator—B. F. Allen.
Representatives—H. G. Livingston and David McCaig.
Float representative—George W. Leidigh.

It makes a combination which is certain of election, and the democrats and populists of Cass county are to be congratulated on their "getting together" on such an amicable basis.

Dutton's Silly Defense.

As was expected, Polk's News (doubtless with promises of county printing in view) rushes to the defense of County Commissioner Dutton in regard to the shameful and partisan action of that gentleman in refusing the use of the district court room for the Holcomb meeting on Tuesday night. The News makes the defense for Mr. Dutton that a rule was passed two years ago by a democratic county board forbidding the use of the court room for political meetings. Grant that such a rule was passed, although it is ten to one that the plea has its origin entirely within Mr. Dutton's imagination, what does such a defense argue? The enactment of that order two years ago can in no wise excuse the present board. If a former county board makes an unjust ruling, are those who follow bound to carry the order into effect? Most certainly not. The proper thing for any fair-minded man, upon becoming an officer of the people, is to correct his predecessor's mistakes. He should seek to serve the people and not make the wishes of the people subservient to his own. As a fact, there is no good excuse Mr. Dutton's course. He is guilty of mean partisanship and the voters of this commissioner's district, having already taken his measure, will proceed to snow him under in next month's election good and deep.

Parties who profess to know say that out of the last twenty-four railroad damage suits tried before the supreme court of the state, all but one were decided in favor of the railroads. Where is the honest republican who now dares dispute that the railroads knew what they were doing when they dictated the nomination and secured the election of Judges Norval, Post and Harrison. Such a record as possessed by the present supreme court is a disgrace to the fair name of Nebraska. Shame on a party which will allow itself to be ruled by such a corrupt and rotten gang.

The announcement that the Missouri Pacific railway would run a special train from this city to the Elmwood fair on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, appears to have been an error. Col. Stoutenborough, the local M. P. agent, inquired of headquarters and was informed that no such arrangement had been made. This precludes any possibility of Plattsmouth people attending the Elmwood fair, as the regular trains are run in such a manner that the people from here would be forced to lose almost two days in order to spend one day at the fair.

A district court item in the Lincoln News reads: "In the case of the Sprague Electric Motor company against S. D. Mercer, tried last term, the court found that there was a case involving the same issues before the Cass county district court, and therefore dismissed the case. The plaintiff is a creditor of the Plattsmouth electric street railway company for $8000, which claim has never been satisfied. Its suit against Mercer, who owned 55 per cent. of the road, was to recover his unpaid subscription to the capital stock."

We are pleased to announce that F. G. Fricke & Co., our enterprising druggists have secured the agency for the Japanese Pile Cure; a most wonderful discovery for the cure of piles of every kind, which they will sell with a written guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. It is said to be a specific for that terrible and dangerous disease. Get a free sample and try it.

The action of the democratic state convention shows that a little good sense has at last taken possession of the leaders. That a union of all parties interested in the welfare of the state should be made, that the crew who have wrecked the credit of the state should be forced to surrender their important trusts to men of honesty and patriotism.—Weeping Water Eagle.

The Nebraska City News has found it necessary to keep standing for the past few days words expressive of the great satisfaction and peace of mind its editors are enjoying over its forty years existence. This might be some more of somebody's business, but if the present News is a fair specimen of the result of forty years experience in the business, it is evident that the antiquarians down the way have missed their calling.—Nebraska City Press.

Japanese Liver Pellets are small, but great in their effects; no griping; fifty doses twenty-five cents. Sold at Fricke & Co's.

The Elmwood fair people are having bad weather and the attendance on that account promises to be slim. They deserve better luck, for the Elmwoodites are an enterprising lot and have arranged an exhibition which merits a big attendance.

Guy Livingston, the democratic nominee for the legislature, is a young man of marked ability, sound as a dollar on every question pertaining to the welfare of the state and the interests of Cass county, and goes into the campaign on as clean, clear cut and well built platform as the sturdiest reformer could wish for.—Weeping Water Eagle.

Major McKinley was the magnet which drew Will Richardson to Omaha this morning.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address

The steel of the Burlington route is now connected with the Northern Pacific at Billings, Mont., so that through trains to the coast will soon be running on the Sheridan line. The assistant division superintendent, dispatchers, roadmaster and repair shops of the Burlington are now located and in full swing at Sheridan, Wyoming.

Capt. L. D. Bennett journeyed to Omaha this morning to meet with the surviving officers of the Army of the Tennessee, who were booked to pass through that city today. Mr. Bennett was a member of that division of the army during the rebellion, and he looked forward to a meeting with the officers with great pleasure.

A young Belgian has just invented a lamp the like of which has never been seen before. The lamp is composed of 8,000 pieces. It is 6 feet high and measures 3.10 feet in diameter. Its light is so strong that one can read by it at a distance of 600 feet. The lamp is fed with lard oil, and the consumption is said to be very small.

GOOD PASTURE—Parties who have horses desiring to put in a good stalk field, with plenty of water, can be accommodated by applying to or addressing, at Mynard, W. T. RICHARDSON.
