HE COPPED THE POOLS

A Sleek Pool-Seller Makes Away With Other People's Money.

CHOOSE A QUEER SORT OF BED.

A Nehawka Swede Reclines His Head On a Railroad Tie And a Locomotive Pilot Unkindly Fractures His Skull—O her No ea.

Run Away With the Pools.

During the pendency of the fair at Elmwood a gang of sharpers came into town to work the fair. Among them were two brothers named Connolly. One of them opened a box for the sale of pools on the races at the saloon and another member of the gang kept the book. Pool-selling was not very brisk, but something over $100 was taken in during the three days of the fair, and it was placed in a drawer behind the counter in the saloon, which was kept by a man named Deitz. It appears that the pool-buyers had nearly all been lucky, and had won nearly every bet they had placed. On Friday evening about 6:30 o'clock after the free-for-all and all the big races had been run, Connolly went hurriedly into the saloon and called for the cash, saying he desired to "settle with some of the boys who wanted to go home," and the bar-keeper handed the money over to him. As soon as the money was placed on the counter he swept it into his pocket and, excusing himself, stepped out at the back door—and skipped out of town with it. A few minutes later the winners began to come in to get their money, and then there were lamentations. A search was instituted, but to no purpose. Others of the gang were there, but of course, they were ignorant of the run-away's whereabouts, and the pool-buyers were compelled to pocket their losses. Several men well-known in this city were losers by the rascality of the pool-seller, Connolly.

A Queer Bed.

While Ole Olsen, a Swede who lives at Nehawka, was walking along the M. P. railroad track Saturday afternoon he became weary and lay down beside the track to rest, using the end of a tie for a pillow. Soon after a train came along and the corner of the cowcatcher struck his head a glancing blow, laying open a place on the skull bone almost as large as a man's hand. Up to yesterday Olsen had not regained consciousness, but it is thought that his accident will have no serious result.

County Attorney Travis is too busy to get out among the people to rustle for votes but the voters will not forget him on election day, and will say "well done good and faithful servant." We want you another term.—Weeping Water Eagle.

The friends of Miss Mamie Gibson in this city will be pleased to learn of her marriage to Mr. W. S. Scott. The happy event occurred at Lincoln yesterday and the young people will be "at home" to their friends in that city after November 1st at 1427 L street.

Carl Fricke had the misfortune to spill a pan of hot water on his left forearm yesterday and scalded that member so severely that it will enforce his absence from duty for some two or three weeks.

J. H. Thrasher returned home last night from a short business trip to Hastings and Kearney. He says everything looks favorable to Holcomb in that part of the state.

The young ladies of the reading room association are arranging to give a "poverty" social on Tuesday night, Oct. 16. Look out for further announcements.

A Stolen Overcoat.

Geo. Edson, the well-known Liberty precinct farmer, and a man from Elmwood named Dean, drove into town yesterday afternoon and hitched their team next to the Mumm building on Fifth street. Dean wore a borrowed overcoat, worth some $15, and when he walked over to the buggy at about four o'clock, the coat was missing. It was surmised that some tramps were guilty of the theft, but the officers hunted high and low without avail. Dean will now be called upon to buy his friend a new overcoat.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Corbett and Fitzsimmons are matched for a fight for $10,000 a side and a purse of $40,000 offered by the Florida Athletic club. They met in New York City yesterday and completed articles of agreement without the wrangling which usually characterizes such gatherings. Each deposited $1,000 and proceeded to talk business. Corbett stated that his theatrical engagements would not be completed until May 1st, and that he would like two months training, and have the fight after July 1st. This was agreed to and the Florida Athletic club offered the $40,000 purse, which was accepted.

The First National bank of Kearney closed its doors at noon yesterday. The books show that there is an deposit, subject to check, $25,000, and time deposits $25,000. It was one of the Buffalo county depositories, and the county is the heaviest loser. Treasurer Stuckey having a little over $12,000 on deposit. The city comes next with a little over $7,000. The assets are given at nearly $300,000 and the total liabilities at $160,000. The failure was caused by an utter inability to collect or realize on assets at present, but it is believed that the depositors will be paid in full in time. There was but little excitement caused by the suspension and no run was made or attempted on any of the other banks.

J. W. Thomas, the Platte river ferryman at Orepolis, will launch a new boat tomorrow morning, the dimensions of which are 12x48. Mr. Thomas is sparing no effort to improve the facilities of his ferry and asks the public's patronage.

S. C. WELLS & CO.—Gentlemen: I write this letter to acknowledge the value of your Shiloh's cure. I think it is the greatest remedy ever discovered for lung diseases and croup. The life of one of my friends, who for two years was believed to have consumption and whose cough was terrible, was saved by Shiloh's cure. She is now entirely well. My baby that is now nearly two years old was also saved by Shiloh's cure. Baby was croupy and would never have survived without your remedy. I had not believed there was such a good croup medicine in the world. I would not be without a bottle of it in the house for two times the price of it. It has saved me many a dollar in doctor bills. Sincerely,
 MRS. J. B. MARTIN.
