WEEKLY JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1894.

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

Mayor Gorder of Weeping Water was in town Sunday visiting his mother.

B. F. Turner, a former Plattsmouth citizen, but now a resident of Chicago, was in the city yesterday.

P. J. Shafer of Weeping Water was a Plattsmouth visitor today, and made THE JOURNAL a pleasant call.

The latest returns make it certain that Sturdevant is defeated, the Nebraska City News to the contrary.

Henry Snyder and nephew, Geo. Snyder, both of the precinct, have returned from a four week's visit at the former's old home in Highland county, Virginia.

Chas. Vallery, Will Stadelmann and Frank Rauert, all three Plattsmouth boys who are now in the employ of the Burlington in Chicago, are here for a short visit with their parents in this city.

Alex Walker, son of Jas. Walker, one of Murray's best-known citizens, departed for Lincoln Wednesday to take a two year's course in the medical department at the Cotner university.

The Junction Recorder contains more advertising than any country weekly which comes to this office. The merchants of that vicinity evidently have faith in the business maxim that "advertising pays."

The next few days are often like the initial blows of an ax upon the trunk of a tree. No matter how sharp the ax or how hard the strokes, the tree top never trembles or declines until a succession of blows has been patiently struck.

Captain Riley Miller one of the best-known Indian scouts and hunters in the whole Black Hills country, is in the city visiting with H. C. McMakeo. The two will depart the last of the week for the Black Hills to enjoy a hunt.

A pack of villainous vandals set fire to the African M. E. church in Nebraska City on Halloween night and the building was completely destroyed thus causing a loss of $1,000, and at the same time took from the colored people of Nebraska City their only place of worship. The perpetrators of the deed deserve the severest sort of punishment.

A man from Pocatello, Idaho, recently sent to Salt Lake for some furniture. His local dealer, hearing of this, called on him and said: "I had those same goods. Why didn't you buy from me? What did you have them?" Was the surprised rejoinder. "I never thought so; but I saw an ad of the things I wanted in the Salt Lake papers and sent for them." The moral is apparent.

A force of B. & M. linemen are at work putting in new copper telegraph wire throughout the entire local yards. It is the experience of the company that copper wire gives much the best satisfaction, as the smoke from switch engines has the result of rusting out the wire now in use in a comparatively short time. C. E. Yates, superintendent of the telegraphing department, was in town for a few hours today looking after the matter.

C. H. Babcock, the real estate agent, has just completed a property trade wherein Grocer McCourt has given his residence property in this city and some Havelock and Omaha lots in exchange for a 20-acre fruit farm in California. Mr. McCourt will retain his business interests in this city but his family will remove some time this winter to the California farm. Mrs. McCourt's health is poor, and it was for that reason that the trade was negotiated.

Wagner in Trouble Again.

Wm. Wagner, better known in this locality as "Sleek Bill," is again in trouble. Bill has made quite a record for himself during the past several years. His meanness was not displayed to any alarming extent until after the death of his wife some four years ago, when he won the affections of the young wife of old Jno. T. Hawks, a farmer down in the country, and caused their separation. Later on he betrayed one of Hawks' young daughters and was forced to marry her, but no sooner was the ceremony performed than he left the girl to care for herself and child. The sister of his first wife was a widow and he secured her to act as his housekeeper and care for his two children. The woman eventually made known her intention of marrying and Bill threatened to shoot her if she should marry any but himself. The woman refused to be thus coerced and Bill made threats of suicide. This was a bigger bluff than ever as he had been careful to remove the cartridges from his pistol before pulling the trigger. This was about two years ago, and a short time after he moved to Omaha, where it is said that he again married without going through the usual formality of securing a divorce from the former Hawks girl. Bill has kept away from Plattsmouth until only a few weeks ago, and he has returned last week by performing two acts of meanness, which deserve to send him to the penitentiary. One trick was to sell some clothing belonging to Jake Denson, the brother of his first wife, and then pocketed the money. His second act is the one which causes the rub, and his general coarseness stands an excellent chance of meeting its just reward. Bill drove out to the farm of Elias Sage, who lives in the southwestern outskirts of town, one day last week and represented that he had a contract to furnish 600 bushels of apples to some Omaha parties. He needed a wagon load more (45 bushels) to fill the contract. Mr. Sage sold him the apples and Wagner promised to be down either on Saturday or Monday last and pay for the apples. He failed to appear and Mr. Sage instituted an investigation and learned that Bill had no apple contract at all. He had simply driven the load of apples to Omaha and peddled them out by the bushel. Mr. Sage has filed a complaint before Justice Archer charging him with obtaining goods under false pretenses. It has developed that Wagner has recently been living with a laundry woman in South Omaha, and Sheriff Eikenbary went to that place Friday morning to bring Bill to this city for trial. The sheriff soon located his man and brought him to this city that evening and placed him in jail.

Another of Wagner's questionable deals has come to light. It appears that he uncoined one Aleck Powell, a farmer living on the Iowa bottoms, out of a load of onions on the same kind of a deal as he worked on Sage. Powell threatens to make Wagner suffer unless he puts up the coin for the onions. Powell, however, must take his turn as Wagner has two other prosecutions to answer before Powell can get a whack at him.

The criminal prosecution against Wm. Wagner, held before Justice Archer on Monday on the charge of defrauding Elias Sage out of a load of apples valued at $30, went against the prisoner. The testimony showed Wagner up as being an unprincipled villain and the court took great pleasure, and justly too, in giving Wagner a thirty day's sentence in the county jail. The costs amounted to over $20, and Wagner's term of imprisonment will thereby be extended to thirty-eight days. When he gets out the authorities may have something else in store for him.

An Unaccommodating Mother-in-Law.

Since Henry C. Code, the book-keeper for the Heyn Photo supply company of Omaha, left the city to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law, who had not died, experts have been going over his books and report a shortage of not far from $3,000. Last week some discrepancy was noted in his accounts, and he saw that the books would soon be investigated. He asked leave to lay off a day to attend the funeral of his grandmother in Council Bluffs, where he retained his home. That worthy lady is still on earth and in Council Bluffs, as also is Mrs. Code, who has no idea where her husband has gone. He did not even say good by to her. Code has flitted west. The photo people have not lost anything by him, as they calculate, and if anybody gets on his trail it will no doubt be his bondsmen.

All legal business given prompt attention, D. O. Dwyer, attorney, Plattsmouth.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Machinist Bob Schaper went down to Plattsmouth to visit over Sunday with his family. That night he started back to Havelock by way of Lincoln and at the latter place he met with quite a painful accident. In walking up a street from the depot in Lincoln to get a street car, and while passing across 10th street he slipped on something that he thinks must have been a banana peel. He fell heavily, throwing out his left arm to protect himself. As a result he is now nursing a broken arm, the bone having snapped near the wrist. Bob had the accident promptly treated and was around on his feet Monday, all right otherwise.

Japanese Liver Pellets are the best family medicine for liver complaint and constipation. Fifty pills in vial twenty-five cents. Sold at Fricke & Co's.

Miss Grace Wiles returned today to her studies at the Cotner university, Lincoln, after a short visit out in the precinct with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles.

The late election was replete with surprises throughout the country, but none were greater than the fact that, although the republicans have probably carried every congressional district in the state of Nebraska and elected two-thirds of the legislature, their candidate for governor, for whom they made their greatest struggle was defeated and Silas A. Holcomb was elected by a plurality of almost 3,000. This fact is now conceded by the republican state central committee. The victory is not of great consequence, although its very significant—doing much to vindicate the course pursued by Mr. Rosewater and his Omaha Bee.

Mental depression, wakefulness, lost manhood caused by errors of youth or later excesses quickly cured by Magnetic Nervine. Guaranteed by Fricke & Co.

The biggest horse of the late lamented campaign is on the republicans of Harlan county, Iowa. The members of that party put in all of Tuesday night celebrating what they supposed was a republican victory with comfortable majorities for all candidates. When they awakened the next morning they found that the county had gone democratic by a small figure.

The Modern Woodman Accident association declines to pay Celia V. Shrock the amount she claims is due her on account of her husband's death. The association claims that her husband's death was not the result of an accident, but that he was subject to mental disorders and that he had misrepresented his physical condition to get the policy.—Lincoln Journal.

The campaign for the succession to Judge Strode has already begun and is raging quite warm. Among the gentlemen mentioned who would like to drop into this stepping stone to congressional honors, the district bench, are J. R. Webster and E. H. Wooley. There are still a few precincts to hear from.—Lincoln News.

Omaha's canal bonds were defeated, the number of votes cast in favor of the proposition falling several thousand short of the required two-thirds majority of the entire number cast at the election. The promoters of the scheme will ask for a special election.

Indications seem to point to the conclusion that the government at Washington will have the able assistance and wise counsel of Col. H. M. Bushnell just as soon as Congressman Strode's need of a private secretary becomes pressing.—Lincoln News.
