

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

A. H. Bushnell of South Bend precinct and a regular reader of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL, was in the city Friday patronizing Plattsmouth merchants.

The postmaster has put up an elegant portrait of President Cleveland in his apartment in the postoffice. It is not suspected that he is booming him for re-election however.

Alix, the queen of the trotting turf, will, so it is said, soon pass into the hands of Havenmeyer, the big sugar refiner, for a consideration of $30,000. "Sweet little Alix" will then be sweeter than ever.

S. H. Wills of Eight Mile Grove is the fortunate possessor of a big grove of timber, and he says farmers living out on the prairie are cutting out a large quantity of dead timber and hauling it away at $1 a load.

The time on the Burlington between Denver and Chicago will be shortened one hour by the change in time Sunday. The train will leave Denver one hour later, arriving in Plattsmouth at the same time as at present. This is No. 2.

There will be no school Thursday and Friday, the 29th and 30th, of this month. Thursday is Thanksgiving and Friday and Saturday the teachers will attend the inter-county teachers' association at Plattsmouth.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An eastern capitalist who has quite an amount of money loaned out in this county, writes, since the election of Holcomb is known to be a fact, that he will hereafter loan money in Nebraska cheaper than ever. So much for the calamity howl.

Again the Plattsmouth JOURNAL is in good running order and issuing the daily as usual, a fact that we are pleased to notice. THE JOURNAL has always been one of the best newspapers in eastern Nebraska and merits liberal patronage.—Union Ledger.

The JOURNAL is pleased to note the election of Dr. W. A. Humphrey of this city to the secretaryship of the Missouri Valley Medical association, a new organization perfected at Omaha the other day by the homoeopathic physicians of this section of the country.

Burglars broke open the safe in a grain elevator office at Hastings the other night and carried off the small steel receptacle in which the funds were supposed to be kept. All it contained was a package of love letters belonging to one of the employes, who will grudgingly pay the postage if the robbers will return them.

Word comes from Lincoln that Conductor Cal Raney, who was injured a week ago out near Hastings, shows steady improvement and his physician and family have reason for believing that he will recover. This is pleasant news to Cal's many friends, as there is no more popular a ticket-puncher on the road than he.

E. R. Duffie, recently appointed judge of the Fourth judicial district (Douglas county) by Gov. Crouse to succeed Judge Walton, who resigned a few months since, called at the governor's office Saturday, formally accepted the appointment and took the oath of office in the office of the secretary of state. The new judge donned the ermine Monday.

West Side Junction, a small station on the M. P. just out of Omaha, had a bad fire Tuesday morning and three dwelling houses are in ruins as a result of the blaze. The loss will reach some $6,000. The hose companies did not respond until after a half hour and the flames had then gained too much headway to save either of the three structures.

Some comment has been made with regard to the allowance of pay made by the county board at its last session for four bailiffs for the sheriff during court term, and this has led to the discovery that the law allows a "competent number of bailiffs" to be appointed "at each term of court," to "wait on the grand jury and court during the term," who shall be paid by the county, etc., (see sec. 36, ch. 28, rev. stat.). There is no legal room for grumbling, unless it be at the discretion exercised by the court itself in the number of bailiffs appointed.

THE JOURNAL finds that a rumor is widespread among the people on the Iowa bottoms and at Pacific Junction that the B. & M. company has made all the arrangements and expects at an early date to put in a double track between the Junction and the Missouri river bridge, at the same time that a double track is to be put down through the big cut between the bridge and this city on the Nebraska side. It is well understood that the latter project has been settled on as a fact of the early future, and it is presumed that the dirt which will be taken out of the cut, made necessary in widening it for a double track, will be carried across the river to widen the grade for a double track there. It would be a good piece of business.

A WARM PROCEEDING

A Hot Contest Over the Custody of Two Children.

A CANDIDATE IN TROUBLE

Prohibition Candidate for Governor Is Made the defendant in a Big Suit for Libel—Various Other Interesting Notes.

County Judge Ramsey was hearing testimony of a rather interesting legal proceeding Saturday, when in the right of custody of two children is involved.

Sometime last summer Al. Burris left town for Chicago and left his two motherless children, one a six-year-old boy and the other a four-year-old girl, in the custody of Mrs. Beneke, an old lady who lives over in the Fourth ward. The mother was a daughter of Mrs. Godfrey Fickler, and the latter upon learning that the children were not receiving proper care, made application that she be accorded the custody of the little ones. Mrs. Beneke resisted the grandmother's application and secured C. S. Polk to look after her interests before the court. County Attorney Travis appeared for Mrs. Fickler. It appeared from the testimony that Mrs. Beneke has been receiving aid continually from the county, and it is on this state of affairs that the grandmother, who is rather well-fixed in these world's goods, hopes to get a decision in her favor.

Judge Ramsey decided the matter as to the custody of the two children Monday morning by giving the right of custody to Mrs. Fickler, the mother of the departed Mrs. Burris. The decision is certainly for the best interests of the little ones, as Mrs. Fickler is abundantly able to provide for and maintain them in a comfortable manner. Burris, the father, is a disreputable wretch and is utterly unfit to have a voice in the rearing of the little ones. The decision is altogether for the best.

Candidate Gerrard Sued for Libel.

E. A. Gerrard, publisher of the Looking Glass, a prohibition paper at Monroe, near Columbus, Platte county, has been sued by Thomas Flynn for $20,000 on a charge of criminal libel. The article appeared last week and charged Flynn with being the keeper of an assignation house of the lowest kind. Flynn has lived in Columbus twenty-six years, is well-to-do, and at present is keeping a saloon. The suit is the culmination of a series of letters written by one W. K. Lay, who has taken it upon himself to reform Columbus through a series of long letters published in the Looking Glass. This letter was No. 11. In previous letters he has roasted and abused city and county officials, newspapers, hotels, saloons, etc. Gerrard was candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket, and is worth $30,000 to $40,000.

Internal Revenue Collector North, says today's World-Herald, is getting ready to sally out and ask every man how much money he makes and why he doesn't make more. On January 1, 1895, the new income tax law will go into effect and it will be the duty of the collector or his deputies to "hold up" all comers—that is all comers whose monies amount to over $4,000 a year. As yet the collector has engaged no additional deputies—as the amount of the appropriation is to be passed by congress to pay for this service has not been decided upon, and as the figures will very largely determine the system and the number of men to be employed by the various collectors of internal revenue the delay is unavoidable. All the new regulations have been received at the local office, but Mr. North is not yet ready to tell what they are, as they are held in confidence until January 1.

The supreme court has again continued the case of the state of Nebraska against ex-Treasurer J. E. Hill and his bondsmen. A motion was filed yesterday, backed up by affidavits, as to the illness of bondsman Fitzgerald and John H. Ames and T. M. Marquette of counsel, asking for a continuance till some time in April, 1895. The court granted the motion and continued the cause till the next term. Following is the order of the court as filed: "Ordered that the motion for a continuance of this cause be sustained and the cause hereby continued until the next term and the commissioners heretofore named be directed to take no step for the selection of a jury until further order of this court." The supreme court has adjourned until the first Tuesday in December.

A Queer Failure.

Julius Bruggmann has been in business in Nebraska City for a number of years, keeping a stock of groceries, queensware, etc. Wednesday evening he locked his store and did not reopen for business yesterday morning. When this fact became known the firm of R. Lorton & Co. took possession of the stock to secure a debt of $400, and the Nebraska City National bank also filed an attachment for $150. This action on the part of Mr. Bruggmann was entirely unlooked for, as his stock will satisfy his debts four times over. He has been trying to dispose of his store, however, for some time, and being unable to do so, may have taken this method of getting it off his hands.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one remedial disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Address F. J. CHENEY, & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

The pilot on the engine which drew B & M. No. 5 this morning looked very much as if it had been calling on a series of slaughter houses. When the train pulled in the entire pilot had such a crimson appearance that loungers at the depot had their curiosity aroused over some imaginary accident in which some human being had collided with the engine. An investigation, however, disclosed that over east of the Junction a porker had strayed onto the track and had been ejected therefrom by the engine. One thing certain, it must have been an exceedingly large hog.
