

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

L. G. Todd, the well-known populist war-horse from Liberty precinct, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

J. J. Gustin of the vicinity of Murodock was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday and remembered THE JOURNAL.

Senator Manderson and his secretary, Wm. Annin, passed through this city Friday evening enroute for Washington.

Mrs. J. C. Cummins is reported as being very ill with pneumonia, and her countless friends will sincerely wish for her early recovery.

The Plattsmouth Roller Mill is attracting trade from quite a distance. Farmers come from near Melvern, Ia., to have their milling done here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith are the parents of a bright little daughter which put in an appearance at the Smith household on North Third street.

John Gobleman of this city died Tuesday at 1 o'clock a. m. of dropsy, after a lingering illness. He was about 50 years of age, and had numerous friends in this city and vicinity.

Chas. Heitzhausen, a Louisville boy, is officiating behind the bar at the McVey saloon, and visitors at that resort are now assured a warmer welcome than ever.

Lehnhoff's are the acknowledged leaders in holiday goods in the county. They will take pleasure in showing you through their mammoth stock and show you the difference in prices between this and former years.

Fred Warren came down from Havelock on Saturday and presided at a religious meeting held in Mercerville Sunday. He expects to enter Wesleyan university next month and will perfect himself for the ministry.

The Missouri Pacific railroad, by order of General Manager Doddridge, has ceased running passenger trains through Indian territory until such time as the holding up of trains by the noted Cook gang and other outlaws comes to a halt.

Advices received from Omaha are to the effect that the big exposition building and theatre, located in that city on Capital avenue and Fifteenth street, was burned to the ground early Tuesday morning. A church close by was also destroyed. The total loss is over $100,000.

Judge Benedict of Brooklyn, N. Y. was in town Tuesday looking over the Hotel Riley property and his other investments in this city. It was his first visit here and he seemed impressed with the general appearance of the town, the hotel in particular striking as an exceedingly handsome property.

George Bradt, the young farmer at Diller, who eloped with his wife's fourteen-year-old sister, Tole Hirsman was captured the other day. He and the girl were apprehended at Clay Centre, Kas., and Governor Crouse has issued a requisition for their return. Bradt will be charged with statutory rape.

James French, who robbed the post-office at Ponca, has been sentenced to one year and one day to the Sioux Falls penitentiary. French told Judge Dundy that he did not know the name of the fellow who was his companion in the burglary. French added that his own home was at El Paso, Texas, and that he was unmarried.

Dave Campbell, clerk of the supreme court, was in the city Friday and took occasion to step into County Clerk Dickson's office and sign up a special order of the court which allows Matthew Gering the additional fee of $200 for services in the case of Murderer Harry Hill. Mr. Campbell had inadvertently failed to sign the order before sending it here to the clerk.

The principal topic of conversation in railroad circles is the resignation of General Manager St. John of the Rock Island system. E. St. John is one of the best known railroad men in America and for many years he has been connected with the Rock Island. It is hinted by well-posted railroad men that Mr. St. John was charged by President Cable and others with not operating the road as economically as it could be operated.

The spectacle of half a dozen young men jumping aboard a moving passenger train for the purpose of enjoying a short free ride before the train gained any headway, was witnessed down at the B. & M. depot Wednesday when No. 5 pulled out for the west. There is no more nonsensical habit in the entire category than that of jumping aboard moving trains, and if the young men mentioned who make themselves ridiculous will not desist of their own volition, the authorities at the depot deserve to make an example of some one.

Musical instruments cheaper than ever at Lehnhoff's. Violins $3.00 up, accordions $1.00 up, banjos, guitars, mandolins, large line and big assortment sheet music.

LOUISVILLE NOTES.

The traveling public is well-served by Mr. Speaker, the landlord at the Hotel Speaker, which is a creditable institution for the town.

Among the business men of force and character in the village is Lew Boedeker, who is just now handling considerable stock for the South Omaha market.

As indicative of a creditable state of affairs there is not an empty store room or place for business in the town of Louisville. This is an exceeding good sign in these close times.

Messrs. R. T. Rochford & Co., is the name of a new firm which is putting in a stock of hardware, stoves, tinware, etc. Mr. Rochford is a tinner and his partner, Mr. J. F. Cole, is an experienced hardware man.

The Courier-Journal is one of the fixtures of Louisville, and is a faithful chronicler of passing events. The Mayfields—father and son—are its owners and managers. The name of L. J. Mayfield appears as editor.

Dr. A. Matthews is the name of an enterprising dentist, located at Weeping Water, who makes weekly visits to Louisville on Mondays and Tuesdays. He seems to understand his business and knows about how to push it.

Ray Waterman of Crete, is a new accession to the business of the town. He has opened a coal yard on the grounds of the B. & M., as successor to H. A. Waterman & Son. He is a nephew of John Waterman of Plattsmouth, and has good prospects.

The firm of Richey & Dickson, lumber dealers, is largely monopolizing the business in that line. Charles Richey, who has charge of the concern is a lively, wide-awake and active young man who has done remarkably well. He seems to be the right man for the place, his long experience as an assistant in the lumber business with his father making him a veteran at less than twenty-five.

The Bank of Commerce under the efficient management of Mr. Tom Parmelee, is doing a thrifty business, and abundantly demonstrates its usefulness and necessity as a factor in the business of a growing town and prosperous surrounding country. Miss Matie Newell, who has until recently been the manager of the bank at Cedar Creek, is now assistant cashier. Mr. Parmelee, although a very young man, has taken hold of the bank's affairs in a way that gives confidence, and makes it a pleasure to transact business with the concern.

The Louisville brick works have closed down for the season, having turned out over 3,000,000 vitrified or paving bricks for the market. This concern is owned by Henry Bolln of Omaha, and employs quite a number of people. It has four permanent kilns of 150,000 capacity each. These bricks are made from a mixture of fire clay, which abounds in this vicinity, and a species of shale, which is procured in the vicinity of Nehawka. The shale is a sandy clay, impregnated with bituminous coal and iron—what is called among miners coal or iron blossom. It is said to be a necessary constituent to bring about the vitrification of the fire clay, or kaolin. The brick are manufactured by machinery. An engine of 90 horse-power furnishes the power for running the brick machines, and boilers of 140 h-p. capacity make steam for the drying of the brick. George Wittmack is the local manager of the concern and seems to be a very competent man.

Don't be talked into having an operation as it may cost you your life. Japanese Pile Cure is guaranteed to cure you by Fricke & Co.

List of Letters Remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Plattsmouth Dec. 5, for week ending Nov. 28, 1894: Bednarsik, George; Denomero, Harry; Knox, John F.; Lindeman, Conrad; Johnson, Suvilda; Shanon, Ann; Tebrnek, Vac; Wilburn, Bob; Wily, C. E.

Persons calling for any of the above letters or parcels will please say "advertised." W. K. Fox, P. M.

Omaha drummers are noted for being very sociable fellows who are always equal to any emergency, and the story told on our friend, Bert Hoag, who travels for Allen Bros., of Omaha, shows that he is up with the rest of the boys. It is said that Bert took a few days off to make a visit with a farmer near here who is a devout Christian, and at the first meal Bert found himself called upon to ask the blessing. He was not accustomed to such a proceeding, but he bravely made the attempt in the following words: "We acknowledge the receipt of your favor of this date. Allow us to express our gratitude for this expression of good will. Trusting that our house may merit your confidence and that you may have many good orders from you this fall, we are, yours truly, amen."

The prettiest toilet sets, albums, plush and wood cases ever displayed in town are to be found at Lehnhoff's. The prices are very reasonable and they ask you to inspect the line before you make your purchases for holidays. It will pay you to trade at LEHNHOFF'S.

Buy the improved Singer sewing machine. Anton Trillity, local agent, office in Unruh's furniture store.

The Mortgage Record.

Cass county's mortgage record, as compiled at the court house, is as follows for the month of November: Farm property—filed, $33,190.30; released, $13,077.30. Town property—filed, $7,052.04; released, $5,575. Chattel mortgages—filed, $14,567.87; released, $4,468.45.

O. K. SCOFFIELD, the Omaha specialty Cloak and Fur dealer asks the ladies of Plattsmouth to call this month and see the French basket cloth Cloaks at $15.00, worth $20.00; Chinchilla Coats $18.00, worth $23.00; French Boucle Cloth $25.00, worth $30.00; Astrachan Capes, 30 inches long, $23.00, worth $28.00; North west Seal Capes $45, worth $55. Fine goods, all this year's styles, and more than your fare saved at Scofield's December Cloak and Fur Sale. Paxton block, Omaha.

The Lincoln News of yesterday remarks that "Dr. J. H. Hall of Cass county is among the republicans who are hopeful of securing some appointment in one of the state institutions under the incoming administration." THE JOURNAL would add that Mr. Hall is one of Cass county's best citizens, and his many friends would rejoice at his receiving the appointment to which he aspires.
