THE policemen who have begun a war on Police Judge Archer are likely to hear something drop at the next council meeting.

CHRISTMAS was observed with pretty near the usual amount of ceremony and eclat this year-including drinking sprees and fights.

Two STICKS, the Sieux murderer, was duly hanged at Deadwood Friday, and died with the Indian death song on his lips.

How appropriate it is to see the Nebraska City News rush to the defense of John C. Watson! After Benedict Arnold seld himself to the British he was the worst enemy America had.

AFTER Christmas came a cold wave which reminded the most indifferent that for a fact winter had come in earnest. A lowering of the temperature from 40 degrees above to 8 below in 36 hours is a pretty stiff change.

ALTHOUGH a tory, Lord Randolph Churchill was quite democratic in his general conduct, and was popular with the people in consequence. His loss will be severely felt by his party, both in and out of parlament. His illness is said to be a fatal malady.

The "book" our contemporary refers to is probably the sort of "book" players of whist make. Otherwise it might be troublesome to put hearts in a "book."

CONGRESSMAN TRACY of New York has moved an amendment to the new currency bill, making bank notes re-Crete Democrat.

JOHN SHERMAN is very close in the matter of personal expenses, and has pique at the Pullman company for over-charges which he proposes to take out by a bit of national legislation. He is soon to propose an amendment to the pooling bill which has passed the house. His measure prescribes onehalf cent per mile for lower and onethird cent for upper berths in sleepers, and provides fit penalties for a violation or over charge.

UNDER THE PAW OF THE RAILWAYS.

The Lincoln News, which is a staunch lengthy editorial review of the testiin Sunday's World-Herald, and very the servant of the railway powers. It manship which was remarkable. argues thus:

"Reference is made to this testimony of Mr Thurston at this time, not because it will change the statute of affairs or have any ten dency to prevent his election, but merely to will have to meet next fall when it goes before the people again on its record. What defense charges of forgery and fraud against Tom Ma jors in his attempt to break into congress when the testimony was in black and white? When will the republican party of Nebrask earn that it cannot play with fire without b ng burnt? There are none who will disput Mr. Thurston's ability or eloquence, but a man who has for twenty years represented a rail read company, not only in the courts but be fore legislatures and on the stump (see his own sworn statement), cannot change his opinion or his prejudices in a day merely because the mantle of the people's representative has faller upon him. Who believed Tom Majors when he professed to have recanted and been born again? Evidently the curse of Nebraska re leaders who refuse to profit by the lesson taught by the recent loss of the governorship, but it sist on giving the best office in the party's gift to a railroad lawyer who openly admitted that part of his duties was the influencing of legisla tors in behalf of his corporaton. We have, indeed, fallen upon troublous times."

The Quick Path to Bimetallism.

Shall we substitute bank notes for greenbacks and treasury notes, or ex ercise the option to redeem in silver To do the latter is to restore bimetallism, so far as silver already coined is concerned to restore to the former would be no real aid, because the same parties who now draw gold on paper SIXTY-FIVE per cent of the taxes silver certificates, demand their re demption in gold, and use the samearpremium, and we shall be on a silver basis." The treasury must exercise the right to redeem in silver when that is most convenient .- Omaha Werld-Herald.

As a member of congress, as speaker of the house and as a senator Mr. Carlisle has publicanism lies in the poor judgment of its shown talents, principles and characteristics which lifted him high on the roll of fame, greatly endeared him in the people and gave him a warm place in the hearts and esteem of the democratic masses, and had his home been north instead of south of the Ohio there are many who now believe that he would have been the democratic Mrs. Bloomer was a woman of much of Cleveland, with the best chance in the world of winning
