

WM. HEROLD & SON are Going to Quit the Business

OF SELLING CLOTHING AND CARPETS.

ALL GOODS IN THESE TWO DEPARTMENTS TO BE SACRIFICED.

A $5,000 Stock of Clothing and a $2,500 Stock of Carpets to be sold at prices that even the present low tariff rate does not justify. Two years ago we put in a Clothing Department as an experiment, thinking that Clothing could be successfully retailed from a General Stock, but we found that we were mistaken, and we are now ready to

- - Make Bargains of Our Mistakes - -

Suits that sold at $15.00, now go at $9.00; $10.00 suits at $7.00. Our $9.00 suits now $6.00; $5.00 buys a suit we formerly sold at $7.50. Our $4.50, $5.00 and $6.00 suits we have placed in one lot, from which you may take your choice at $3.50. Our $1.25 knee-pants suits for boys at 85 cents each. Better grades at a corresponding reduction. 500 pair of boys' knee pants at cost.

Wm. Herold & Son's
Good-Bye Sale.

200 pair of men's pants, sold at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, your choice for 75 cents.
25 dozen boys' waists, your choice for 15 cents.
30 dozen men's "8-ounce" blue denim overalls, sold at 75 cents; now 50 cents.
20 dozen men's unlaundried white shirts, re-enforced back and front, linen bosoms and cuffs, stayed throughout, only 39 cents each.

WE are determined to bid good-bye to our Carpet Department. We can not spare the room that this department takes, needing that space for other departments, therefore we will sell all our Carpets at less than cost. Come in and get our prices before buying.

WEEKLY JOURNAL,

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1895.

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

M. P. Meisinger of Cedar Creek was a welcome visitor at this office Saturday.

Walter Scott and family of Omaha are in the city visiting with H. C. McMaken and wife.

Conrad Schlater of Louisville precinct was in the city Friday and made these headquarters a pleasant call.

Andrew Pitman, one of Nehawka precinct's most prosperous farmers, was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

County Treasurer A. D. French of Glenwood, Mills county, Iowa, was a Plattsmouth visitor Friday and called at these headquarters.

The attention of readers is called to the half-page announcement of Messrs. Herold & Son which appears elsewhere in these columns.

A well-known young attorney of this city is booked to take a journey into the country within a short time and return with a wife.

H. G. Strong of Nehawka came to town Tuesday to meet his mother, who arrived that morning from Russell, Ia., to enjoy a visit with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swearingen entertained a party of young friends at their home on South Seventh street Friday evening. Those present report that they were excellently entertained.

The house of representatives Monday passed a bill making the Golden Rod the floral emblem of Nebraska. The abundance as well as the beauty of that flower makes such a law very appropriate.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Davies of Glenwood, Ia., are in the city as the guest of their son, Representative John A. Davies of Cass county. They are watching their boy perform in the legislature.—Lincoln News.

Bro. Stewart of the Murdock Columbian has gone into the lottery business in order to increase the circulation of his paper. He is offering cash prizes and advertising them in his paper, a thing decidedly in contradiction to the postal law.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

BORN—Sunday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. John Rutherford, a son. Unlike Gen. Marion, of whom it is said when he was born his body might have been put in a quart cup, this child is quite small, only weighing 4 1/2 pounds, but THE JOURNAL hopes it may come out all right. Here's our best wishes, anyhow.

Information from Hiawatha, Kas., gives news of the death of John Jennia, the old Swiss gentleman who lived in this city for several years prior to last fall. The old man was an eccentric sort of personage, but had many friends in this city who greatly regret his demise. The remains were interred at Hiawatha last Sunday.

The Wonders of South Dakota's Cave.

"The rooms in Wind Cave lay in tiers, over one another," says George A. Stabler, the postmaster at Wind Cave, in writing to a friend in Iowa. "We have found eight tiers so far, and the cave is like an eight-story house, each tier of chambers having a different formation. We have also been about 500 feet beneath the surface. We compare the cave to a huge sponge, two miles square and 500 feet high, all dried out. We have formations found in no place in the world outside of Wind Cave. One is the boxwork that you saw. There is no geological name for it, and it is so named on account of its resemblance to boxes. The Bride's chamber is the first room, and is 165 feet below the entrance. The first large room is the postoffice, being about 300x50 feet, with a beautiful dome eighty feet high. The room takes its name from the box formation on the ceiling, also on the sides, where visitors leave their cards. The Red hall has a very red formation, and the White room is perfectly white. The Devil's Lookout is a crevice sixty feet high, and very narrow. The scenery defies the grandest scenery in Switzerland for beauty, while the Queen's drawing room is hung with curtains and tapestry and decorated fine enough for the most exacting queen. The Methodist church is a beautiful chamber, with domes and arches and supporting pillars, while all is covered with the most delicate boxwork. This room was dedicated by Dr. Haucher, president of Black Hills' college, and now is a regular chapel. It is one mile from the entrance, and about 240 feet beneath. Music sounds delightful, and nearly all parties sing a hymn or two before leaving the room. Capital hall is the largest room on the short route, containing about three-quarters of an acre, with the ceiling sixty feet high. Two large lamps light each end, and the effect is grand. In the Amphitheater we find the Masonic goat, also the scenes and music of Midway Plaisance. In Turtle pass we step over an immense turtle. Fallen Flats are two miles from the entrance, and 350 feet beneath, being in the sixth tier of chambers. From here we ascend Cliff Chambers' Delight, a distance of sixty feet in Five Points. W. C. T. U. hall was dedicated by Mrs. Emma Kramer, president of the South Dakota Woman's Christian Temperance union. The Garden of Eden is then found, two and one-half miles from the entrance, and about 175 feet beneath. The room contains about half an acre, and is made up of domes, beautiful alcoves and fairy-like grottos, all covered and coated with a pure white and pink frost work, some being so delicate that a breath would destroy it. This is, or would be, paradise for fairies, and one always goes away with a feeling that he has had enough. The Corkscrew path winds around and down over 100 feet to Dante's Inferno, which is a dark and deep rocky pit, and one can almost imagine seeing the Imp of Darkness at the bottom."

The Temperance Meeting.

The W. C. T. U. meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon was well attended and productive of a fruitful discussion. Mrs. S. A. Davis presided, and Rev. Dr. Baird opened with prayer. The principal address was that of Elder Youtzy. The paper delivered by A. J. Beeson, and was a thoughtful one entitled "Christian Citizenship," albeit quite extreme on some points. Remarks anent the coming celebration of Washington's birthday were made by Rev. Dr. Baird. C. W. Sherman and C. H. Parmele were also called out and made a few remarks. The meeting next Sunday will be held at the Baptist church in South Park.

President of the Gosney Live Stock Company Writes:

Gentlemen:—I have for months been a sufferer from Itching Piles, and tried numerous so-called remedies which did me no good. I procured a box of MAGNET PILE KILLER, and I confess the first application gave me great relief, and while I feel I am not entirely cured, I believe that before I have the entire box used I will be well. To every one suffering with this unpleasant disease I sincerely recommend MAGNET PILE KILLER. Yours Truly, SAM GOSNEY, South Omaha, Neb. Pres. Gosney Live Stock Company. Nine days later Mr. Gosney writes: "I am entirely cured of the Piles and MAGNET PILE KILLER did it." For sale by Gering & Co.

In several state legislatures there are bills pending to cut down the rates charged on Pullman cars. The legislators think that they and everybody else should not be compelled to pay from $2 to $30 for a day's ride in a car and a night's sleep, and then "find" themselves. There is a bill in the Nebraska legislature and bills in New York, Illinois, Washington state, Oregon Minnesota and several others. If the bills pass it will require the company to reduce their rates. The railroads have come under the ban of state legislatures and there are transportation boards to see that the railroad rates are kept down, and yet Pullman has gone serenely on robbing the people, and there has been no concentrated complaint.—World-Herald.

The decision of Judge Caldwell in the garnishee cases of the employees of the Santa Fe, is more far reaching than would at first be supposed. His decision that the employes cannot be garnished will apply to Union Pacific as well as Santa Fe employes. The Union Pacific being in the hands of receivers makes it the property of the United States court, and, therefore, an employe of the United States court employes of government, state, county or municipal authorities cannot be garnished according to law. This is the point that Judge Caldwell has brought out and it is one that will be of interest to all employes of the Union Pacific system.
