

The Lincoln Journal suggests that Li Hung Chang is the first Chinaman to be shot in the face since the commencement of the war.

W. L. Ackerman and A. C. Helps, recent arrivals in Alliance from Havelock, have gone to work in the machine shops here.—Alliance Grip.

Sam Shumaker still has faith in the lightning rod as a lightning protector, and has bought a supply with which to furnish his customers—and he makes a good argument in its favor, too.

Gov. Holcomb Thursday afternoon sent to the senate the name of Robert Damarel of Red Cloud to be superintendent of the Hastings insane asylum, vice Dr. Johnson, resigned.

Col. M. D. Polk of the News passed his 37th milestone Friday, and aside from a stoop in his shoulders and the loss of several front teeth, the colonel is still pretty much of a spring chicken.

Messrs. Davies and Orton of this county had the good sense to vote against the Lambourn bill for the permanent location of the state fair at Lincoln, and helped to make up the number of votes necessary to kill it.

At the public school declamatory contest at Weeping Water Thursday Miss Dot Girardet was selected to represent the schools of that town in the district contest, which occurs in this city next Friday night, April 5th.

Presiding Elder L. F. Britt of Plattsburgh filled the pulpit at the M. E. church Monday evening and delivered a very interesting sermon. He also announced a revival to begin Thursday evening.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

People about the town are wondering where the Pabst Brewing company secured the photograph of our farmer friend, Sam Barker. A glimpse at the picture of his goatship which adorns the Pabst beer lithographs will explain the connection.

THE PLATTSBROUGH JOURNAL says that Smith Hines, who is quite well-known in this county, has rented a farm in Cass county, quit drinking and proposes to make a man of himself. We hope THE JOURNAL knows what it is talking about.—Nebraska City News.

Nebraska City had another fire in the business portion of the town early Friday morning. The loss, however, was only slight, amounting to $500. During the last two or three months Nebraska City has had about "steep dozen" fires, and several of them caused considerable loss.

Some twenty of her lady friends invaded the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Petersen on Saturday evening in honor of the 39th birthday of Mrs. Petersen, whom they completely surprised. The evening was passed in various social amusements and these present report a most enjoyable evening.

From the Courier-Journal we glean the information that Horace Brown and Tom Parmele, both of whom are ex-Plattsburghians, are candidates for trustees of the village of Louisville. The election occurs next Tuesday but it is not too late to import several dozen voters from Plattsburgh to cast their votes for the boys.

As a financial investment there is none better than to keep your buildings and farm implements well painted. It saves far more than it costs, besides it looks so much better to see everything painted up new every few years. Try this plan and you will thank THE JOURNAL for the suggestion.

The Tecumseh Journal says: A bashful young man of Tecumseh, while attending revival meetings, was approached by an earnest young lady, who said to him: "My dear friend, it would do my heart good to lead you to the altar." The young man hesitatingly replied that he appreciated the honor, but as he was already engaged to two girls he could not accommodate her.

Lee Sharp of Omaha was in town Friday visiting among old-time friends. He is now conducting an electric machinery repair shop and is doing well—his mother and brother living with him. He says, by the way, that the most wonderful revolution is going forward among the people on the silver question in Omaha, and new converts to free silver are made every day.

The bill providing for the permanent location of the state fair at Lincoln has been indefinitely postponed, and as the legislature will adjourn on April 5th, the bill is now completely dead. Having lost the fair in a contest before the state board of agriculture, Lincoln should have been content to lay plans to get it back again by legitimate means, without playing the baby act and seeking the assistance of a vile Nebraska legislature.

The gross earnings of the Burlington railway for the month of February were $2,060,550, a decrease of $367,842 from the same month of last year. The operating expenses were $1,454, 169, a decrease of $98,919. The net earnings from traffic over operating expenses were $606,881, a decrease of $268,423. With total expenses and charges balanced against the earnings for the month, there is a deficit of $208,619.

Mrs. Mary Wolf of Cedar Creek is now in the city for the treatment of her daughter, whose left foot has not been of much use to her, the cords of the instep having grown fast to the bones. Dr. Humphrey performed an operation on the foot some days ago, loosening the muscles or cords so that the foot can grow into a normal condition. A shoe with proper braces has been prepared for her to wear, so that nature can be helped.

Information from Thayer, Mo., gives the news of the death in that town on Tuesday last of Mr. S. H. Davis, after an illness with pneumonia. Mr. Davis made his home in this city for several years with his son Frank Davis, and with the latter has been living in Missouri for the past year. He had passed his three score years and was no doubt prepared to go having been a member of the Methodist church for a great many years.

The three-year-old child of Andy Arterbun, living five mile southwest of Blue Hill, this state, was fatally burned Wednesday last. The parents were out doing their evening chores and when they returned, being attracted by the screams of the child, they found the little girl in flames and a cradle in which was an infant all ablaze. The whole room was afire. The child died the day following after suffering untold agony.

The case of Clyde Opel, charged with having violated rules of the excise board in the sale of liquors out of hours, has been continued nine times. It was to have been tried March 26, but it seems to have dropped out of sight and all queries regarding its disposition are met with replies which indicate that those questioned do not know. The police record shows the last continuance to March 26, but Captain Mason says he does not know what has been done with the case.—Lincoln Journal.

We learn that Col. Polk's News, on the strength of its being the official city paper for this year, will insist on publishing all of the saloon license notices every day in two weeks, as the law contemplates, and will charge therefor the full legal rate—$13.25. The News insists that once a week for two weeks is not a legal publication; that the question was raised in Beatrice last year and the full two weeks' publication was required and it therefore has a right to demand the full legal rate. In our opinion Col. Polk's position is about right, but whether the saloon men will stand it is another question.
