ONE THING AND ANOTHER.

The B. & M. have evidently become tired of having employes of the shops at Havelock live in the city of Lincoln, and on the first of the month will discontinue the daily train between the two places. This move will have the effect of causing the shop men to reside in Havelock or provide their own conveyances to and from work.

An eastern paper says that it's more fun to see a man read a puff on himself in a newspaper than to see a fat man slip on a banana peel. The narrow minded man reads it over seven or eight times and then goes around and steals—appropriates—what copies he can. The kind-hearted man goes home and reads it to his wife and then pays up his dues to the paper. The successful business man who advertises regularly and makes money by it immediately starts to find the editor and speaks words of acknowledgement, and then two men leave the sactum and walk silently and thoughtfully down the street together and the business man takes sugar in his'n and they both eat a clove or two and all life is sweeter and peace like a gentle dove settles down on their hearts for that moment. Such is the experience of seed as it falls on different sod.

The Nebraska City News says that Matthew Gering was not satisfied with the result of the recent base ball game between the county officials of Otoe and Cass counties, and has authorized them to issue a challenge to the members of the Otoe county bar. Matt said that he could select nine lawyers in Cass county that could beat any nine lawyers in Otoe county, and they did not have to wait for any time in which to practice. In this challenge he stated very emphatically that only lawyers in good standing at the bar would be eligible to play, and that no deputies or representatives would be permitted.

The late rains assure the fall grain crop. The rye is looking well, and will make a large yield. The fall wheat generally is in fair condition, and that on new ground is good. Oats never looked so well as this season.

You have an undoubted right to stop your paper upon payment of all arrearages. Don't you hesitate on account of your tenderness for an editor. He would quit buying where he thought he was not getting his money's worth, and why should you not exercise the same privilege. And when you discontinue a paper do so manfully. Don't spitefully throw it back to the post master with a contemptuous "I don't want it," and have it returned to the editor with "refused" written on the margin. No gentleman ever stopped a paper in that way, no matter if his head was covered with gray hair. If you no longer wish to receive a newspaper write a letter to the editor saying so, and be sure all arrearages are paid.

A traveling man for a large bicycle house remarked the other day that 1895 will be the biggest year ever known for the wheel trade. Everybody seems to want a wheel, and it will be but a few years until they will be owned by nearly every man and woman in the country. A wheel is fast becoming an indispensable article.

A French judge before whom a divorce case was recently tried complicated matters seriously by handing down a decree divorcing the lawyer who appeared for the man who had asked for a divorce, instead of the man himself. He got the names mixed in his notes, and the tangle will take a good deal of red tape unraveling.

It has frequently been suggested that one of the most essential qualifications for making a success of lying is a reliable memory. The fellow who always aims to tell the truth, has no trouble in keeping track of what he said upon a given date, concerning such and such a matter. Try it.

The father who supports an idle boy and encourages him in the idea that in some way he will be able to get through life well-dressed and well fed, is training his son for the penitentiary or gallows. Even if the boy is too timid or too clever to plunge into crimes, he is looked upon by a majority of the people as a drone who is of no use to the community. Industrious men are reluctant to permit these fellows to associate with their daughters, and their old playmates who are making their way in the world by honest industry shun their companionship.

An Ohio girl recently sent her photograph to her best fellow and wrapped it in a newspaper on which was printed the advertisement of a stove firm. A part of the print adhered to the picture, and the young man was very much surprised to see staring him in the face, in bold pic-a type, the following words: "See name on leg."

Thos. E. Williams, of Louisville precinct, was in town on Saturday, and paid these headquarters a social visit. Dame Rumor appears to connect Thomas with the republican nomination for sheriff next fall.

The sheriff of a neighboring county went to serve a writ on a certain young lady, and upon knocking at the door was admitted by the girl's mother, who told him the young lady was in the next room, to go in and get her. The sheriff stepped into the room and found the young lady in bed dressed as for a living picture. He returned the writ with the following endorsement: "Found within named Lena Austin same as her mother found her, and returned writ unsatisfied for want of clothing."

A farmer near Tekamah, has entered suit against the St. Paul and Omaha road, which passes near his house where there is a crossing. For a year he kept a record of the number of times the engineer failed to whistle at the crossing and now brings suit for over $75,000. The fine for failing to whistle at a crossing is $50 for each failure.

The corner room of the Fitzgerald block, occupied by the First National bank, has been undergoing some alterations and repairs during the past week that add greatly to the appearance of that corner. The entire front has been taken out and replaced by large plate glass, and the entrance changed from the middle to the west side. This change will allow the alteration and improvement of the interior or office fixtures. But the best part of all the many improvements around this banking house is that the horrid green wall paper that has adorned the walls of late is to be covered by new paper of a less inflammatory pattern.

The Lincoln News says: Whenever Governor Holcomb finds time hanging heavily on his right hand he simply appoints Dr. Abbott as superintendent of the Lincoln asylum again. This is pleasing to both the governor and the doctor, and evidently makes no difference with the present superintendent.

It cannot be said with propriety that the state legislatures which have busied themselves with public measures in different parts of the country since Christmas, have altogether satisfied the people in regard to legislation on the delays and expense of litigation. A cheap and speedy means of redress of grievances and settlement of disputes is badly needed. Along with these there ought to be a general simplification of the ways to proceed. Details of reform are not for the press to formulate, but whilst courts are being multiplied and law machinery provided, it would be well for the bar to perfect a system whereby costs may be largely reduced and the dispatch of cases greatly accelerated.

Messrs. C. D. Grimes, Fred Morgan, and J. S. Livingston of Plattsmouth, arrived in the city Saturday on a short visit with Frank Irish. The first two gentlemen returned Sunday morning. Mr. Livingston remained over enjoying the hospitality of the city, until Tuesday morning going from here to Deadwood.—Alliance Grip.

Nature is busy at work doing her spring cleaning, and is thoroughly renovating her domestic affairs. She is putting down new carpets of green on the hills, and decorating her landscape with fresh drapery of the most gorgeous description. The housewife who is suffering from the spring cleaning mania, is only yielding to the impulse that pervades all nature. She is working in obedience to a great cosmic law. But this is vague comfort to the man who comes home and finds the bureau on the table and the piano upside down.

Traveling men who traverse that territory say that rain is sorely needed between this city and Holdrege, that the farmers are very much discouraged, that small grain has already suffered greatly on account of the dry weather and that unless there is a rain soon the loss of small grain will be final and complete, while other crops will be seriously affected.

The Lincoln Call is in the toils, and its creditors as well as the stockholders of the company want a show down for their money, and with that end in view have asked for a receiver to take charge and wind up the affairs of the company. It is said that the company owes $16,000. The Call has about lived out its mission, if it ever had one, and will simply be another small grave stone in the newspaper cemetery.

The lawyers of the Otoe county bar have about concluded to accept the challenge of the Cass county attorneys to play a game of ball in the near future. It has been decided to elect Hon. John C. Watson as captain and let the matter of arranging for the game, selecting the nine and other things rest with him.

Beginning Wednesday all departments in the B. & M. shops at Havelock will work nine hours per day, an increase of six hours per week over the schedule in force for some time past. Besides this general advance quite a number of the employes are working ten hours. New men are being taken on at the shops and indications are very bright for a return of prosperity.

Disturbances in Cuba.

The Cuban rebellion has been kept alive more by guerrilla warfare than by open fighting. An encounter between rebels and Spanish troops occurred on April 10th at Palma Miro, which resulted in dispersing the rebels, after several of them had been killed. The real trouble remains, however, as it was in the beginning. The leaders of the rebel parties, Maximo, Gomez and Jose Marti, have not succeeded in landing on the island, and consequently the rebel army is unable to make any decided move. Even if the rebel army were prepared to engage in an open rebellion, there would be little chance of its success against the large number of trained Spanish troops, against which they would have to fight.

The fact that Spain considers the Cuban uprising as a serious matter, is shown in the recent appointment of General Martinez de Campos, Spain's most famous soldier diplomat, to succeed General Emilio Calleja, as captain-general of Cuba. General Martinez de Campos has been a prominent figure in Spanish affairs for many years. On 1876 he was sent to Cuba to quell a rebellion, which had been in progress for twelve years. By his wise and decisive acts the tangled thread of Cuban affairs was soon unraveled, and peace was restored. The restoration of the house of Bourbon to the Spanish throne, and the consequent fall of the Carlist party, was due largely to the efforts of the Spanish general. He held the position of Spanish premier for some time, but resigned on account of political changes. General Martinez de Campos has arrived in Cuba and the real cause of the trouble will, it is thought, be found out, and quiet again restored. He has already offered pardon to all rebels, except the leaders, that surrender of their own accord.

A Prominent Wholesale Grocer of Omaha
Neb., Writes:

To the afflicted:
Several years ago I discovered a slight falling and bleeding of the lower bowel which increased and became very distressing. I made inquiry as to the nature of the disease and learned that I had a somewhat aggravated case of Hemorrhoids or Piles. Was told of several remedies and used them as directed, obtaining thereby some temporary relief. Not being satisfied with such slight relief I cast about for a permanent cure; when a friend directed the use of the famous MAGNET PILE KILLER. I used it. Immediate relief from pain followed, and soon a complete cure was effected.

Very respectfully,

The Picture Copyright Law.

A change has recently been effected in the copyright law, which protects the rights of an artist against having his pictures copied by other persons or firms.

Heretofore the picture copyright law imposed a fine of $100 for each impression of a copy of a photograph made in defiance of the copyright law. In consequence of this law any large newspaper firm which, by accident or otherwise, published a copyrighted picture, was obliged to pay a sum so great as to leave the firm bankrupt. In fact the sum required for any infringement of this law was sufficient to induce persons or firms possessing copyrights to use fraudulent means to get other firms to make copies of their pictures. In view of the injustice of this law, a change was brought about during the last congress. The law now provides that the sum of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 shall be paid for any infringement on a copyrighted photograph, and that a sum not below $250 and not exceeding $5,000 shall be required for any infringement on copyrighted prints, etchings, paintings, drawings, engravings, statuary, models or designs of any kind.
