Interesting Bits of Information For "Journal" Readers.

DONT WANT TO BE JUDGE.

E. C. Wiley of Union Objects to Being Dubbed a Possible Candidate—One More Murder for Omaha—Breaks a Record.

Don't Want to be County Judge.

C. E. Wiley of Union, whom THE JOURNAL mentioned last week as a possible candidate for the nomination for county judge on the republican ticket, writes to this paper an emphatic denial of the statement. Mr. Wiley gets quite wrathful at the "audacity to conjure up such a false statement." Continuing, he says: "As to the gentlemen who are aspirants to the position of county judge, I have the kindest feelings, and entertain toward them the warmest friendship in the great fraternity of brotherhood. I have no political strings on me, consequently am bound to no political party, acknowledge no creed but justice. The election this coming fall will not be a campaign of party strife and partisan policy, run in the interests of political hacks and a horde of office seekers, but the men who are likely to roll up a big majority of votes will be men, not of well approved political opinions, but men of well approved integrity, honesty, and whose intent of purpose of mind and heart will be for the welfare of friends, home and country."

Another Murder at Omaha.

Omaha will soon be enlivened with another murder trial. On Tuesday, shortly after noon, Peter Volgreen, a Norwegian, shot and probably fatally wounded Augusta Matland, an employe of the Model steam laundry. Volgreen came all the way from Minneapolis with the intention of killing the woman, and says he is glad he killed her. Recently the woman had been living with another man, and jealousy caused the deed to be committed.

Broke the Record.

From a paper published at Ferris, Cal., it is learned that James Patterson, a former Plattsmouth man, and the eldest son of Hon. J. M. Patterson of this city, recently broke the century bicycle record for southern California. The paper says Jim had been training for about two weeks and was in the pink of condition. The hundred miles was covered in a trifle over six hours. The previous record for that distance was seven hours and fifty minutes, and Mr. Patterson's record will probably stand for some time.

Lovell-Rauth.

Thursday's Daily. Yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, seven miles southwest of this city, Rev. Father Carney united in marriage Mr. Charles Lovell and Miss Minnie Rauth. Mr. Lovell is foreman of the B. & M. boiler shop in this city and is well liked by a large number of friends. After the ceremony a royal wedding feast was spread and everybody thoroughly enjoyed themselves. A large number of people were present, including many from this city. Mr. and Mrs. Lovell will at once commence housekeeping in this city at the former's house on Marble street. THE JOURNAL congratulates the happy couple.

Mr. Doty's Brother-in-Law.

Mr. McKinsey, the man who was killed in the accident at La Platte Wednesday afternoon, mention of which was made in these columns, was a brother-in-law of Mr. Doty, the well known resident of East Plattsmouth. Mr. Doty says he has never seen Mr. McKinsey, although they lived only about ten miles apart. Mr. McKinsey was a prominent farmer of La Platte, owning a valuable farm of about two hundred acres in that vicinity. Mr. O'Leary, the other man who was injured in the accident, is reported to be getting along very nicely.

Evidently Has Been "Seen."

"There is one man in the political arena who is daily growing in favor and strength; and that is the farmer boy, Tom Williams, the popular Eight Mile Grove candidate for sheriff. They say every ward in Plattsmouth furnishes a candidate for this office, and the proper thing to do is to just sidetrack the whole caboodle and nominate Tom Williams."—Elmwood Echo.

Judging from the above, the Echo man must have been "seen" by Mr. Williams. Messrs. Eikenbary, Hyers and Holloway had better be getting into the Echo's "band wagon" or they will be left.

A young farmer named Strohm, living near Randolph, received a sunstroke while returning from the harvest field. He was found three hours afterward and taken home. The doctor fears he will die.

TRANSFORMATION.

(Written for THE JOURNAL.) A silver sea, a silver sky, And silver beads that scattered lie Upon the sand, A silver boat, a silver oar, And silver rocks upon the shore At either hand. The magic of an alchemist Draws back the veil of silver mist With fingers bold, And lo, a transformation grand Converts the water and the land To solid gold.

PERSONAL, POLITICAL AND PERTINENT.

The attention of democrats throughout the county is directed to the call for the county convention. Don't fail to attend the primaries on the 17th inst.

The Burlington shipped twenty-two cars of dressed meat east from Omaha Monday.

John Ramsey of Louisville precinct was in town yesterday. John says he is a candidate for sheriff. If everybody else is going to run he sees no reason why he should not "join the band" and march in the procession.

James A. Benjamin, a well-known farmer residing near Fremont, was struck and instantly killed Sunday morning by a stroke of lightning. His wife, who was standing near him, was prostrated by the shock, but recovered.

A hunting party consisting of H. G. Beardslee, Joseph Mapes, A. B. Dickson, A. U. Mayfield, W. S. Waters and Rev. Frank Campbell expect to start from Elmwood Monday next for a month's stay in the Rocky mountains. They have promised to bring home a certain number of bear scalps.

Now, of all the ills and curses, from the cradles to the hearse, the one we call the gossip is certainly the worst. And in every community, at every opportunity, the vials of the slanders they never hesitate to burst. And their tongues are always clacking, though their stories have no backing, and they lie about their neighbors when their neighbors turn their backs. From the time the day is dawning they are lying, croaking, fawning, and securing the aid of Satan, who will cover up their tracks. Of our mothers, wives and sisters they will talk their tongues to blisters, and to smirch a reputation gives to them a ghoul's glee. If they set a soul to aching or a heart succeed in breaking, they are filled with happy feelings to a very great degree. The will tear the lids from coffin, for their blackened hearts never soften, and they'll follow suffering woman to her last sleep in the grave. If the gossip e'er sees glory, 'twill be like the man in story, who sneaked past the golden portals by a mighty bladed close shave.—Fremont Herald.

Referee Jacobs, in his report of the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Ollie Corbett against her husband, James Corbett, the pugilist, finds Mrs. Corbett entitled to a divorce, and recommends that the agreement entered into by her and her husband at the time of their separation, by which he agreed to pay her $100 a week for life be continued.

Murray has a new blacksmith who is gaining an excellent name for good workmanship. His name is W. E. DeGross, and by all accounts he is making a success of his venture. He makes a specialty of shoeing and guarantees all his work. Farmers thereabouts can well afford to give him a chance.

Notice to Christian Endeavors. The regular convention of the Cass county C. E. union will be held at Murray, Aug. 7 and 8. Please lay aside your work and come if possible. The people of Murray are arranging to entertain 300 delegates. Let us not disappoint them. We want to make this meeting a grand rally for Christian Endeavors of Cass county, and the best convention we have ever held. Will you not help make it such? We hope as many of the pastors as possible will be present.

Come for a deepening of your spiritual life. Come for a better understanding of your christian duty. Come for conference with fellow workers. Come for a clearer view of our field, force and work. Come to gain zeal for Christian work. Come to lend enthusiasm to the convention. Come to make the meeting a success.

LOTTE M. POLLARD, Pres. J. E. TAYLOR, Secretary. Back to the Asylum. Sheriff Eikenbary went up to Lincoln last Friday, having in custody the insane Poland, Mike Dupereilo. It was the sheriff's intention to have taken the man up from Weeping Water last Wednesday and it was so stated in these columns, but had he done so, it would have interfered with the capture of the two chicken-thieves that night.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Dr. Marshall, Graduate DENTIST, Fitzgerald block.

Dr. N. B. Hobbs of Elmwood was in town last Thursday.

Judge Chapman convened district court at Nebraska City yesterday.

Representative A. S. Cooley of Eagle was a Plattsmouth visitor yesterday.

County Treasurer Eickhoff of Louisville was in town on business yesterday.

James Hall of Eight Mile Grove precinct was a court house visitor yesterday.

A. J. Clements, of the Elmwood Leader, came in last Friday on the early M. P. train for a short visit.

Mr. Charles Lovell and bride departed last Saturday for a visit with the former's relatives at Burlington.

Mr. Murphy of the vicinity of Weeping Water is visiting in the city with the family of his son-in-law, John Tighe.

Miss Edna Wiley of York, Neb., in company with her cousin, Miss Wilhamina Drost of Rock Bluff precinct are visiting with Miss Alice Petersen this week.

This office was the recipient of some fine samples of new wheat, oats and apples from the farm and orchard of A. S. Wills on Tuesday, that are worth preserving. Thanks.

David Neal filed a complaint in Justice Archer's court last Friday charging Antone Trility with appropriating a sewing machine belonging to him. Case was continued until next Friday.

Alfred S. Cooley, administrator of the estate of Solomon Ward, deceased, against A. W. Jansen and others, is the title of an appeal case from Cass county filed Monday in the supreme court.

Mr. David Burbee's funeral sermon will be preached at the South Park church, Plattsmouth, by Rev. H. H. Post next Sunday, Aug. 4, at 11 a. m. Mr. Burbee died at his home in this city July 19th.

Judge Ramsey yesterday decided the Denison vs. Denison case in favor of Mrs. Denison, who was given the custody of the children. Mr. Denison will have the privilege of seeing his children at any reasonable time.

John H. Cotner and Jos. Shrader, two residents of Mt. Pleasant precinct, had a little difficulty Tuesday, in which the former received the worst of it. Cotner came to town yesterday and filed a complaint before Justice Archer charging Shrader with assault and battery. Constable Denison went out there yesterday afternoon to serve the paper.

A. E. Hess of Tipton precinct was in town yesterday. He gives a bad report of the condition of corn in his section—says some early fields will not turn out three bushels to the acre, but the later fields were greatly helped by the copious showers of Sunday and Monday. He is propagating a splendid stock of mules in his neighborhood from his celebrated jack of the famous Mammoth breed from Tennessee and Kentucky.

Allison's Team Again Wins.

Thursday's Daily. In the five-mile race yesterday at Shenandoah, Iowa, between Lee Allison's crack running team and a bicyclist named Thornton, the team was an easy winner. Thornton was paced the entire distance by several very speedy riders, but the time was only six seconds better than that made on the track here last week in the five-mile handicap race. Allison's team had a snap yesterday, and came under the wire on a slow trot, about twenty feet ahead of Thornton. The time was 12:51, but the horses could have reduced that time considerably had it been necessary. Those who went over from this city were Messrs. Harvey Holloway and Sam Patterson, on their wheels, and Lee Allison, Will Streight and Will Hyers in a buggy.

An Old Orchard.

It was the pleasure of this reporter to pay a visit to the oldest orchard in Cass county recently and to note the fact that all the living trees or parts of trees were loaded down with fruit. This orchard is located on the east slope of a high bluff or hill facing the Missouri river a mile south of the village of Rock Bluff. It was planted, so we were informed, by Colonel Patterson, father of Fred Patterson, and an uncle of Hon. J. M. Patterson of this city, in the spring of 1857,—the owner bringing the young trees from Pennsylvania, and all the trees were tagged to indicate the kind of fruit they would bear, but these tags were lost before most of them came into bearing, and as there is no similar fruit in this country the name is not known. A number of the trees still look young and vigorous and some of them will bear as high as thirty bushels on them. Among the trees are several of the old-fashioned Damsen plums, loaded down with fruit. The trees show want of care, but the orchard is this year good for several hundred bushels of apples.

Democratic County Convention.

There will be a delegate convention of the democrat party of Cass county, held at Union on Tuesday, August 20, 1895, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of choosing twenty-one delegates to the democratic state convention to be held in Omaha, Nebraska, on August 22, 1895, and to choose delegates to the judicial convention to be called.

The primaries will be held in the different wards and precincts at the usual places, on Saturday, August 17, 1895, at 8 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of choosing delegates to the convention at Union and also to choose delegates to a county nominating convention to be called later. The basis of representation is one delegate for each twenty votes, or major fraction thereof cast for Harvey D. Travis for county attorney in 1894, this basis to govern each convention. It is recommended that the delegates present cast the full vote of the ward or precinct and no proxies be allowed.

The different wards and precincts are entitled to delegates as follows:

Table listing wards and precincts with delegate counts: Plattsmouth City, 1st ward, 5; 2nd ward, 5; 3rd ward, 5; 4th ward, 5; 5th ward, 5; Weeping Water City, 1st ward, 5; 2nd ward, 5; 3rd ward, 5; 4th ward, 5; 5th ward, 5; Tipton, 5; Greenwood, 5; Salt Creek, 5; Stove Creek, 5.

IN AND AROUND OTTERBEIN.

Little Gracie Shrader has gone to Omaha for a week's visit.

Robert Young has been selected to teach the Geo. Young school.

Mr. Reamor of Omaha was in this neighborhood on business this week.

Clarence Murray seems to visit at J. L. Shrader's real often here lately.

Some of the farmers that expected to thrash from the shock have concluded to stack since the rain.

Most of the members of the Y. P. S. C. E. in this neighborhood expect to attend the convention at Murray.

Wm. Tucker will give an ice cream supper at his place Wednesday evening for the benefit of the U. B. church.

Commissioner Young's wife, who has been very ill for some time, is considerably better now, and we have hopes of her recovery.

Ben Shrader thinks he won't let Clarence Murray get ahead of him, so he goes that much oftener to see Clarence's father. I expect Mr. Shrader and Mr. Murray will be trading girls—or boys—some of these times.

Roy Shrader, John Cotner and Geo. Bailey had their best girls out Sunday night. As the juniors were bashful they took the first seats they came to, but Bailey, with his high collar, took his girl and, without one blush, walked straight to the front of the church.

We had a good rain Saturday night, for which we are thankful. It is reported that C. K. White picked up a hail stone while it was raining that measured nine and a half inches, while Z. W. Shrader picked one up that measured nine inches. The hail didn't harm anything except to knock off some apples and break five or six window lights for Charley Troop and two for Geo. Young.

Indian War Exaggerated.

The following telegram, sent Monday to the Indian bureau at Washington by Agent Teter indicates that the stories of Indian massacres in Idaho lack confirmation: "On the 27th inst. I met Sheriff Hawley near Rexburg, returning from Jackson's Hole, whither he had been sent to ascertain if any of the settlers had been killed by Indians. He stated that none of the settlers had been molested by the Indians, who are supposed to be encamped at a point about forty miles from the settlement in a practically impregnable position. Wanted a Divorce. Sadie Crawford* called at Judge Archer's office Monday morning and related a tale of woe. She said her husband, Jack Crawford, had been beating her unmercifully, and she wanted it fixed so that she could get a divorce if he did not behave himself. The judge told her to go home and if Jack abused her any more, the officers would take a hand and make it lively for her husband. The judge doesn't like to encourage divorce cases.

He who believes Olympia to be in some old eastern country far away, by specious argument is led astray, Or ne'er behold the plains of Laramie!

The palace walls still rise in majesty Upon the brow of yonder mountain grey, Where Zeus reigned in undisputed sway, God of the earth, the heavens, the boundless sea.

The broken rainbows, shivered by His hand, Still dot the plain in rich and diverse hues, Some buried half in golden-yellow sand, Some gorgeous still in pristine reds and blues.

The gods ne'er dwell in lands across the sea, But here, on these broad plains of Laramie!
