He Talks of Headaches and Nervousness and Gives a Cure for Both.

From the Evening News, Newark, N. J. The following interesting story as told by Henry Maier, who hands out medicine over the counter of Dr. Andrew F. Burkhardt's drug store at 271 Orange Street, this city, will prove of interest to all sufferers from headache and nervousness. He said: "I was not always strong and robust as I am now. Long hours of work and study had left me in a wretched condition. Frightful, lingering headaches found me a ready victim, and at times I was so nervous that the dropping of a pin would cause me to give a violent start, and then I would be seized with a fit of trembling that was, to put it mildly, exceedingly bothersome. Well. I began to doctor myself. Now I flatter myself that I know something of medicine; but with all my knowledge. I could find nothing that would cure those terrible headaches or put an end to my extreme nervousness. When I picked up a bottle my hand would shake as though I had the chills, and if it was a powder that I was handling I stood a good chance of sprinkling it all over these black trousers. Things went from bad to worse, and I soon realized that a man of my physical condition had better not attempt to mix any medicine. 'Try a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, said Dr. Burkhardt, one day; and es you know the doctor's advice is always worth following I got the Pink Pills and began to take them. Aladdin's lamp never performed the wonders of these pills. Would you believe it? Before I had taken the contents of one box my headache began to give me a day off occasionally, and soon it left says: me entirely. How about my nervousness? Well, the pills put an end to that that in the minds and memories of all with almost startling abruptness. You children who were brought up in the see I know enough about the business to appreciate the importance of following the prescribing physicians' directions, and by paying strict attention to those given by Dr. Williams with each box of his Pink Pills, I was soon another fellow. Look at me now! A picture of health, eh? Well, that is what now grown to be old men and women, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do for a than any memories of the other days. man, or a woman either. The splitting of the forest trees by frost is popularly ascribed to the same cause as the bursting of water pipes, namely, the expansion of the sap in turning into ice. But this is not the case. When the thaw comes the trees expand to their original dimensions.

> Give Us Our Daily Bread. (Give us this day our daily bread .-

Matt. 6:11.) Not bread for to-morrow, or next month, or next year, but bread for today. Our heavenly Father wants us to come to him every day, and get our bread from his hand fresh. He wasts to have us talk to him daily about the things we need, as we like to have our children do with us. It is trying to get our bread too far in advance, without regard to God, that keeps the world full of sin and trouble. The man who robs a bank wouldn't do it, if he looked to God daily for his support. The saloon keeper and the gambler, the forger and the harlot, turn their faces toward the pit because they do not look to God for their daily bread. The man who asks God for his bread, will also ask his blessing upon the means by which he is to obtain it, and an honest prayer in the morning will be sure to end in an honest day's work. If we pray right we shall be sure to do right. Another thing: When we make a true prayer for our own bread, we ask God to feed the world, and that makes it impossible to take a loaf from another that does not belong to us. To pray this prayer with the heart will make us brotherly, diligent, prudent, economical and thoughtful. It will make us active in toward the poor, and willing to make sacrifices for the good of others. No loafer or dishonest man can offer this

If a good reason keeps you at home, try to send a substitute; invite some friend who seldom hears the gospel, to go and occupy your seat; your minister gets a hearer, and the hearer may get what will save his soul. How to Read. Mr. Hamilton W. Mabie in a recent article in The Bookman on "Books and Culture," thinks the majority of people have not learned how to read. They read for information or for refreshment, when they should read for enrichment. He says: "What is essential to culture is a deeper knowledge obtained by appropriating the best thoughts of others so that they become a part of ourselves. This knowledge is not merely something added by the memory; it is something possessed by the soul. A pedant is formed by his memory; a man of culture is formed by the habit of meditation, and by the constant use of the imagination. A man of receptive mind and heart meditating on what he sees, and getting at its meaning by the divining rod of the imagination, discovers the law behind the phenomena, the truth behind the fact, the vital force which flows through all things and gives them their signifitan methods of Sabbath keeping. He cance. The first man gains information; the second gains culture.

"To get at the heart of books, we must live with them and in them; we must make them our constant companions. . . . The reading of a real book ought to enlarge the vision, deepen the base of conviction, and add to the reader whatever knowledge, insight, beauty and power it contains. . . . Some readers see only a flat surface as they read; others find the book a door into a real world, and forget that they are dealing with a book. The real readers get beyond the book into the life which it describes."

Peter 1:4.) But how does the fallen man receive the divine nature? What must he do to be born of God? How can he have such a change effected in his nature that he will keep the law because he loves the Lawmaker? It comes through giving up sin and receiving Jesus Christ. "As many as received him (not an admiration for his life, or character; or somebody else's opinion of him, but him -for all that the soul needs, and all that the Bible says he is-Prophet, Priest lege, right) to become the sons of God, even to them that believe (present tense -not in a past age, but now) on his which any one ever has, or ever will be born again. "For there is none other name under heaven (no other way) given among men whereby we must (can) be saved." "He that believeth not is condemned already (not because he has been committing sin all his life, but) because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Keep this thought always in mind, that the thing which makes people unfit for heaven, is to reject the Spirit of God which was brought into this world by Jesus Christ and this is done every hour that we reject his divine government. God blames no sinner for doing sinful things, but he condemns him for retaining a sinful nature when it is so easy to be delivered from it.
