

PERSONAL, POLITICAL AND PERTINENT.

All the girl students at Mount Union college, Alliance, Ohio, struck the other day against obeying an order which requires them to visit the gymnasium every day.

There are persons, who, if they owned the earth, would never be happy because they did not also hold a mortgage on the heavens.

Among the relics shown at the old settlers picnic at Humboldt on the first of August were two clocks made in Germany, one made of wood in 1770 and the other of steel in 1773.

A prominent railroad official is quoted as saying that the freight car equipment of the western roads will be totally inadequate for moving the immense corn crop this year.

A school teacher says the pupils who have access to newspapers at home, when compared to those who have not, are better readers, better spellers, better in punctuation and better grammarians.

Charley Burbank has a small orchard of about three acres on his Plattford farm. From this he estimates he will have upwards of a thousand bushels of fine winter apples.

Judge Chapman has again tried to black Nebraska City's eye in granting the injunction to compel the city fathers to make a levy this year for the fire hydrant rental.

Japan has joined the armed peace brotherhood, having decided to spend $25,000,000 for new battle-ships to be built at Glasgow.

According to the correspondent of the New York World, the guest of the California Knights Templar at Boston made beastly hogs of themselves.

Ostensibly E. F. Warren is making a strong fight to secure the nomination for district judge, but he stands no show whatever of capturing the coveted plum.

One hundred and one ballot will be taken, and then the contest is over. Warren knows considerable about law but not much about politics.—Febraska City News.

Monday at Minneapolis the Hoo Hoos met in annual "Concatenation" and after an address of welcome from the mayor and suitable responses from the Grand Snark and Scirvenator, went into secret session.

Paris green, while poison to almost everything else, is said to be beneficial to cats.

When young men get on the train to bid their girls good by, they stay on until everyone else has jumped off, in order to have no spectators to their farewells.

The late Jay Gould was blessed in leaving a daughter upon the earth who is doing her best to make the name Gould popular by notably generous deeds and gifts.

Does it pay to attract conventions to a city? Boston answers in the affirmative. The Knights Templar convention cost the hub $75,000, and a moderate estimate places the amount spent by the visiting knights in the city $750,000.

The county commissioners Monday afternoon awarded the contract for printing the delinquent tax list for 1894 to the Evening News. The legal rate is 20 cents for each land and 10 cents for each town lot description.

They have changed his name to "Lord Dunrair" at the clubs of Gotham. Probably the Valkyrie will be Johnny Bull's last venture in the way of building yachts to snatch the cup that America has held so many years.

The Omaha Bee, in speaking of the flower exhibit at the state fair, says: "The general excellence of the exhibit is noteworthy, but it is to be regretted that a number of displays have been crowded out."

The state university opened Monday for the fall term. The abandonment of the preparatory department has given more room to the others, and the registration in the collegiate department already shows signs of increase.

A Kansas City bloomer girl aspires to be a globe-trotter, and modestly advertises for $5,000 with which to wheel around the world in twelve months.

A raw potato will remove mud marks from black clothes. It should be cut in half and rubbed on the marks.

B. & M. will sell tickets to that point at one fare and a third for the round trip, tickets on sale September 5, 10, 12, 17, 19, 24, 26, and Oct. 1, 3, 8, 10, 15, 17, and limit for return to five days from date of sale.

"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious.

IMPERFECTION.

I saw a pit'ous sight; it touched my heart— A human creature 'reft of intellect— Wide wandering and with aimless feet, thro' mart And noisy streets that meet and intersect.

THE BOHEMIAN TURNAMENT.

The first annual tournament meeting of the western division of the National Union of Bohemian Turners was opened Sunday afternoon at Ruser's park in Omaha.

The western division of the national union of Bohemian turners is one of five divisions of the Union, which covers the entire United States. It was formed last year and comprises the states of Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas.

IN JUDGE ARCHER'S COURT.

Judgment was rendered this morning in the case of state vs. Geo. W. Beverage in the sum of $21.27 in favor of plaintiff. This is a suit for taxes.

Farmers' bank vs. Hiram Van Cleave and H. J. Walker, a suit on a note for $101.68, was decided in favor of plaintiff.

P. J. Hansen commenced two suits on account before Justice Archer this morning. One is for $66.75 against A. W. Osborn, and the other is against Nels Thorsen for $26.60.

A complaint was filed this morning against Amos Cline, charging him with brutally assaulting Geo. McConkie, a half-witted man.

A NEW BENCH.

Clerk Campbell of the supreme court threw open the doors of the court room yesterday and with considerable pride exhibited some handsome improvements in the way of new furniture. With funds appropriated for the purpose, Clerk Campbell has had a new bench constructed.

THE BIG SHOWS.

Lemen Bros' Combined Circus, Menagerie, Hippodrome, Oceanic Aquarium and Congress of Living Phenomena, will exhibit at Plattsmouth, Monday, September 23. Reports from all quarters pronounce the above shows the leaders in tented amusements, and cannot fail to interest the masses.

THE CITY BAND PICNIC.

The city band went out to the hospitable country home of Nicholas Holmes six miles west of this city Sunday morning and enjoyed a picnic in the pleasant grove of that gentleman's. Music, dancing, refreshments and athletic exercises, such as racing, jumping etc., constituted the day's entertainment.

New goods are arriving every day at Joe & Frank's, the Peoples' Clothiers.

NEBRASKA HAPPENINGS.

The printers of Fremont have organized a union with twenty-five members.

The Osceola Record has just entered its twenty-third year of continuous publication.

The editor of the Butte Gazette must be hungry; he offers to take wheat on subscription.

Near Labanon wild hay is plentiful and farmers are putting it up while the sun shines.

J. S. Thompson of North Bend has successfully produced sugar from beets raised near that place.

Harlan county failed to prepare any exhibit for the state fair, but Furnas county will advertise that part of the state in royal style.

Dixon county is having something of a real estate boom. Several farms have been purchased by home-seekers within the past few days.

The new opera house at Pierce will be dedicated October 1. It is a handsome modern structure, and the people of Pierce are proud of it.

Valentine people point to the fact that the United States disburse $200,000 annually in the vicinity of that town as one of the real reasons why times are good.

The counties of Chase, Hayes, Hitchcock, Dundy, Red Willow and Furnas have now completed 175 irrigating canals, upon which have been expended $145,324.

The citizens of North Bend have organized a syndicate for the purpose of guaranteeing the cultivation of 3,000 acres of sugar beets for the next five successive years.

It is claimed that a farmer named Ayers, living near Boelus, unearthed and iron kettle which contained $16,000 in gold and a lot of badly decomposed paper money.

The David City Press, published by Casper & McCune, is twenty-two years old, the senior proprietor having been one of its founders when Butler county was an infant.

A sinner, whose thirst could not be quenched by the water of life, broke into a saloon at Wilber and carried off four bottles of gin and five boxes of very rank cigars. The goods were surrendered on the following day "without prejudice" and the offender let off on promise never to do it again.

The ladies who wear bloomers or what-you-call-'em, while riding bicycles, says the Pawnee Republican, are now getting rapped by the pulpit and crotchety editor. It beats all how some men know about what a woman should do. Some much tobacco and spit the juice, all over a township, but have no trouble in discerning that riding a bicycle, dressed in a divided skirt, is improper and indecent.

Samuel Johnson of Boyd county fell in love with Gertrude Bartleson, also of Boyd county, but when her father found it out he warned Johnson to darken his doorway no more forever.

The next thing was an elopement to South Dakota, where the Gordian knot was tied by an expert and the happy pair returned at once to be blessed by her unhappy parents. Mr. Bartleson didn't do a thing but lock up the girl and kick his recreation-sin-law with both feet. After obtaining possession of his wife by habeas corpus proceedings, Johnson effected a reconciliation with the old folks, and all is well.

Leave your orders for job work with THE JOURNAL, an artistic job guar anteed.

A PROMINENT WHOLESALE GROCER OF OMAHA.

Several years ago I discovered a slight falling and bleeding of the lower bowel which increased and became very distressing. I made inquiry as to the nature of the disease and learned that I had a somewhat aggravated case of Hemorrhoids or Piles.

Very respectfully, OSCAR ALLEN. For sale by Gering & Co.

Each on human, mangle on horses, dogs and all stock, cures in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists, Plattsmouth.

AMERICAN PUBLIC HEALTH ASS'N.—DENVER.

The B. & M. will sell round trip tickets to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo at rate of one lowest standard, first-class limited fare. Tickets on sale Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st, limit to return Oct. 25th.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL will be sent to any postoffice in the United States one year for one dollar, in advance.

OMAHA STATE FAIR.

The B. & M. will sell round-trip tickets to Omaha Sept. 13th to 20th, inclusive, return limit Sept. 23d, for one fare, plus 50 cents.

W. L. PICKETT, Agent.

What More Could You Ask? PEARLMAN, The House Furnisher, Offers to buyers the chance to secure the VERY BEST in his line which the market affords, and AT PRICES WHICH ABSOLUTELY DEFY COMPETITION.

THE fact that my stock is the Biggest and Best in all Cass county, deserves the attention of people desiring something in the FURNITURE line. I. PEARLMAN, The House Furnisher, Opposite Court House, Plattsmouth.

Buy Your Groceries, Dry Goods, Notions and General Mdse. OF F. S. WHITE, The Old Reliable Pioneer Merchant. Every purchase made at his store is a guarantee that you obtained the best and most goods for the least money.

P. J. HANSEN, DEALER IN STAPLE and FANCY Groceries, Crockery and Glassware. FLOUR AND FEED A Specialty.

ED. FITZGERALD, THE OLD RELIABLE Liveryman HAS PURCHASED THE Sixth Street Checkered Barn, AND WILL RUN IT IN FIRST-CLASS STYLE.

FAT PEOPLE! PARK REMEDY PILLS will reduce your weight PERMANENTLY from 12 to 15 pounds a month. F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. FIT FOR A KING. Over One Million People wear the W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes. All our shoes are equally satisfactory.

First National Bank Capital, paid up, $50,000. The Plattsmouth Mills, C. HEISEL, Prop. "Plansifter" Flour. H. D. TRAVIS, Attorney and Counselor at Law. Dr. Agnes V. Swetland, HOMEOPATHIST. Dr. Alfred Shipman, Office in Riley Hotel. Fred Krug OMAHA Brewing Co., NEB. Fred Egenberger, Agt. Arnold's Bromo-Celery.