

PERSONAL, POLITICAL AND PERTINENT.

Here is the way Walt Mason puts it: "This," said the Able Citizen, as he looked over the columns of his home paper...

At the races at Lincoln Park, Lincoln, Thursday W. W. P. the pacer lowered the world's record for two miles by about nine seconds.

A remarkable cure is reported in the case of Ben Gallagher, of the firm of Paxton & Gallagher, of Omaha, who went to Denver to consult Schlatter, the wonderful healer.

The earthquake Thursday morning was felt as far south as Mississippi, as far north as Niles, Mich., and as far east as eastern Indiana.

Complaint is made of the entirely too practical methods of the Lincoln high school, says the Call—more particularly of the inhuman treatment accorded domestic animals in the school laboratories by the scientific teachers...

The Bee says of one of the Omaha discharged policemen: "He is accused of having helped himself to everything in sight on his beat except soap."

Five young men, scions of aristocratic families in England, arrived in Wichita, Kansas, recently, with thirty trunks and took quarters at the best hotel in town.

It is said that John D. Rockefeller will soon begin the erection of a chateau which will rival that of Geo. Vanderbilt in North Carolina.

According to the Nebraska City News, Paul Morton, who was appointed consul for the Argentine Republic at Chicago, as was announced with so much of a flourish of trumpets, has most emphatically declined the position.

It is said that Secretary Morton is giving the subject of forest fires needed attention in their relation to the cutting off of important water supplies of the country as well as to the more direct reducing of lumber supplies.

tary says that unless the destruction of the Adirondack forests is stopped and that speedily, great cities like New York, drawing their water supplies from the great natural reservoir, will be without water for domestic purposes—Nebraska City Press.

A train robber in California claims to have buried $51,000 in the earth, but forgets the exact location. How Captain Kidd, of ancient memory, would like to meet this innocent and absent-minded train robber.

Durrant, the San Francisco murderer, was last Friday found guilty of murder in the first degree, and will be sentenced Thursday of next week.

Jack Dempsey, the prize fighter, better known as the "Nonpareil," died at his home in Portland, Oregon, Friday, of consumption.

Ex-Congressman Bryan addressed an audience of 20,000 people on the silver question at Austin, Texas, Friday last. This does not indicate that he is no longer a drawing card, as the News wants to make people believe.

Herman W. Mudgett, alias H. H. Holmes, the notorious murderer and insurance swindler, was found guilty of the murder of B. F. Pitzel by a jury in the courts of Philadelphia Saturday night, after being out about three hours.

Another horrible murder occurred in Omaha last Sunday, the victim this time being a little eleven-year-old girl named Ida Gaskin.

The swiftest bird known to the naturalist is either the vulture, which is said to make 150 miles an hour, or the English kestrel, which can probably equal, if not exceed, this speed.

Bedroom slippers are often made of felt so they will not be heard.

The first perfect robber-proof and wreck-proof armor-coated mail train, warranted to withstand almost any kind of a collision, with no platform for outlaws to stand on and no doors of glass to shoot through, was put in service by the postoffice department last month.

The Nebraska university eleven did up the Missouri university club last Saturday at Omaha to the tune of twelve to ten, and great is the rejoicing among foot ball enthusiasts in this state.

The hottest place on the face of the earth is said to be the desert near Mas-sowah, 133 degrees in the shade; the coldest is in the northwest territory of Canada, 76 degrees below zero.

At St. Thomas church in New York City, at noon yesterday, Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt purchased a "real duke" for a husband, and becomes the Duchess of Marlborough.

The New York board of health is reported as announcing that the use of anti-toxin has cut down the death rate from diphtheria and croup in that city forty-three per cent.

S. G. Hutchinson, who has been acting as the editor of the squash column in the Press, is thinking of retiring from the literary field now that the campaign is over.—Nebraska City News.

It cost Nuckolls county $200 for the destruction of Russian thistles in one township and the non-resident tax payers are suspicious that enough were left standing to furnish seed for next year's employment.

The Lincoln Journal has the following to say regarding a former Cass county attorney: "S. E. Rockwell of Havelock will be brought before the commissioners of insanity Wednesday. He is a man about fifty years old and was formerly an attorney. He was in the asylum, but was discharged as cured on September 2. Lately he has begun to show symptoms of his mental malady again."

Eugene Field, the celebrated poet, journalist and story writer, died at his home in Chicago last Monday, of heart failure. He was born in St. Louis forty-four years ago, of old colonial stock, grew up in New York and the west, and thus came to possess, as a man, many of the characteristics of the dwellers in both these sections.

Baby McKee has scarlet fever, Grand-pa Ben Harrison has been nursing the little fellow, and is under quarantine with the rest of the family at Saratoga. Ben wants to go away, but the Saratoga authorities won't let him unless he submits to disinfection and fumigation.

A Wonderful Invention. A dispatch in last Sunday's World-Herald from Saratoga, Wyoming, says: "A large crowd of people assembled here today to see Fred Kindt give an exhibition of the workings his life-saving apparatus. The invention consists of the inflating of powerful rubber bags by the igniting with electricity of material contained in an iron pipe which forms gas. The bags used were seven by five feet, weighing 300 pounds. One of these bags was attached to an immense rock weighing 6,000 pounds and sunk in twenty feet of water in the North Platte river at this place. A charge of electricity sent through the wires made no report, but in two minutes two-thirds of the bag was above water and the immense rock was floating. The experiment was an entire success."

"Mr. Kindt, the inventor, is a plain-looking ranchman. He says his invention is the result of the sinking of the Elbe with its large number of lives, which disaster weighed on his mind. The rubber bags, each capable of lifting from fifteen to twenty tons, can be rolled up and fastened to the outside of a vessel and inflated by the captain of a ship from the bridge by softly touching a button. Others of convenient size can be placed in like positions all over the interior of the ship, which insures entire safety of the vessel and passengers in case of accident to the vessel."

The Farmer and the Fakir. When a man loses $5 from his belief that the little ball is under one thimble when it proves to have been under another, he was intending to scoop the operator out of $5 without returning any equivalent, and if he gets left he has only himself to blame. The thimble rigger comes out ahead, and the other has no cause to complain. So when one buys goods at less than he knows they can be sold for he gets little sympathy when the goods are found to be not as represented. Fakirs flock about the confiding farmer like flies about a molasses jug, and the farmer's dollars go as if they burned holes in his pockets.—Minneapolis Journal.

Joe & Frank handle the best clothing of the best make at prices that much inferior goods are sold for.

Miss Fern West, who recently returned from Denver, has quite an interesting story to tell of the Denver Messiah, Francis Schlatter. "Dr" Schlatter appears on the streets at 9 o'clock in the morning and stays there until 4 o'clock. There is always a large crowd waiting for him and some people have been known to stand out all night, so as to have first place in line.

Many excursions have been run from neighboring towns and a great many folks are going from other parts of the United States. A colony of sick persons went from Grand Island and another from Plattsmouth.—Fremont Herald.

Mrs. R. B. Windham went over to Glenwood last Saturday, called thither by the death of the three-year-old child of B. K. Windham, of that place.

Attention is called to the Poland-China hog sale advertised to come off on Saturday of next week—Nov. 9—at the home of Geo. L. Mulertz, 4 miles west of South Bend. Mr. Mulertz has a most excellent strain of these best-of-all hogs, and deserves to have his sale well patronized.

The conviction of Vic McCarty will prove a blessing to the people of Sarpy county, who have feared him and his associates for the past fifteen years and have been helpless in their desire to rid the county of him.—Bee.

TWO EVILS.

[Written for THE DAILY JOURNAL.] All day and every day, for years and years, A shipwrecked mariner, all wan and white, Sits on a rock and looks with misty sight Far out to sea. The only sound he hears Is the beat, beat, that echoes in his ears, The throbs of earth's great heart. All day the bright Sun falls upon his bosom; then, the night, And yet no sail, no welcome sail, appears. He had his dreams, but he was not content, And then, at last, a vessel touched the shore, And back across the crested waves he went To find his loved ones dwell on earth no more. Which fate is worse—to dream of home and friends, Or land a stranger when the journey ends? —ISABEL RICHY.

Library Association Excursion. The National Library Association of which Miss Olive Jones of this city is a member, is considering the advisability of a trip to Europe next year, instead of in 1900, as originally arranged at the last annual session of the association, the reason being that on account of the world's exposition at Paris in 1900, there will not be sufficient accommodation for so large a crowd. A circular letter has been sent to each member of the association asking them if they will go next year, and if so, what month they would prefer.

The tonnage system is gradually approaching perfection under continued trials by the Burlington. New switch lists, way bills and in fact all stationery which will have to be changed to accommodate the new system are being prepared. It will probably be several weeks before tonnage is figured on all Burlington trains.

A Prominent Wholesale Grocer of Omaha Neb., Writes:

To the afflicted: Several years ago I discovered a slight falling and bleeding of the lower bowel which increased and became very distressing. I made inquiry as to the nature of the disease and learned that I had a somewhat aggravated case of Hemorrhoids or Piles. Was told of several remedies and used them as directed, obtaining thereby some temporary relief. Not being satisfied with such slight relief I cast about for a permanent cure; when a friend directed the use of the famous MAGNET PILE KILLER. I used it. Immediate relief from pain followed, and soon a complete cure was effected.

Very respectfully, OSCAR ALLEN.
