A Negro Roasted Alive.

TYLER, Texas, Oct. 31.-Mrs. Leonard Bell, the 19-year-old wife of a farmer living four miles from here, was assaulted and murdered Monday night by Henry Hilliard, a negro.

Mrs. Bell had been visiting her mother and about dusk started to walk home, a distance of half a mile. Shortly afterward her mutilated body was found a quarter of a mile from her home, at the side of the public road. There were evidences of a terrible struggle, as the body was al most nude. The fiend, after assaulting her, cut her throat from ear to ear and completely disemboweled her.

A posse was quickly organized, led by Deputy Smith of Tyler, who with lanterns in hand and aided by a hound. tracked the negro to within four miles of the spot, where, at 4 a. m., they found him fast asleep in a cotton pen. Soon after the officers had him handcuffed a mob of some 200 men, heavily armed, arrived on the scene and demanded the immediate surrender of the prisoner, which was reluctantly given. The mob started for the scene of the murder, where they arrived yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The crowd continued to gather at the scene of the horrible crime until nearly 2,000 citizens of Tyler and vicinity were there.

A few moments before the fiend was brought to the place. a meeting was held and a committee was appointed to investigate his identity. Witnesses were summoned and closely questioned. The result was a thorough identification. In a few minutes an officer approached from over the hill, followed by 300 determined and well armed men. When near the scene the officers were overpowered and disarmed, and the negro, Henry Hilliard, the warfare waged for some time past He made a full confession, and wrote was brought before the committee. a note to his wife as follows:

"I am arrested by 'Wig' Smith. You know what they will do with me. If I don't see you any more, good by.

After his confession and thorough identification a vote was taken as to the mode of punishment It was unanimously agreed to burn him alive, and that he should suffer the penalty on the public square. The line of march was taken up toward Tyler and at 4 o'clock the head line entered the main street, where no less than 7,000 people were assembled. Large crowds of women and children were congregated on the awnings surrounding the public plaza. Wagous, carriages, trees and buildings were converted into grand stands and were thronged at

A scaffold was erected in the center of the square. Wagons laden with kindling wood, coal oil and straw were driven to the scene and placed in position. The negro was then given an opportunity to speak, but his words were inaudible. When he offered up his last prayer, however, he could be heard for several blocks. He was then lashed to the iron rail that extended through the platform.

Mr. Bell, the husband of the murdered lady, applied the match and the flames shot upward, enveloping the brute in a sheet of fire. He begged for mercy and it was meted out to him in the measure he gave his victim. It was determined to burn him at once, but the fire was quenched after the last piece of wood was burned. In a few minutes the fire was started again. From the time the match was applied until his death was SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 31 .- Chief Depnty United States Marshal Vinson returned here yesterday from the Okanagon reservation, bringing news of a most horrible crime, perpetrated by two Indians named Chukwaskie and Peickelpetsy. They stole a little 12year-old girl, Mary, daughter of James Poll, and, taking her out in the mountains, repeatedly assaulted her; then they tied her, Mazeppa-like, upon a cayuse, and turned her advift on the wild country to the North. For nearly two days the cayuse wandered aimlessly about the wilderness, with the senseless victim firmly strapped upon its back. Thus she was found by a party of searchers out looking for her. The child was restored to constore for them.

LOCHREN ON PENSIONS.

Caustic Observations by the Commissioner in His Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. - Commissioner William L. Lochren, of the pension office, in his annual report makes several pointed suggestions. Under the head of "Patriotism and Pensions," he says:

"Those who enlisted early and fought the battles of the war were not moved by mercenary considerations, and unless actually disabled did not show the haste in applying for pen-sions manifested by those who enlisted nearer the close of the war for large bounties and did little actual service, and who are now the noisiest in clamoring for more pensions. As compared with this latter class the real soldiers of the war have been modest in preferring claims for pensions."

The death of many witnesses and the age of claimants has made it quite difficult in many cases lately to obtain proof sufficient for the granting of pensions. The report shows that the number of pensioners June 30, 1894, was 969,544, new pensioners added during the year, 39,185; dropped pensioners restored, 4,206; deaths during the year, 29,816; dropped for cause, 14,175, making a net increase of pensioners during the year of 860. Pensions claims allowed during the year, 39,185; denied, 103,555; cases pending, 552,210. The appropriation for the year was $160,000,000, and there was paid during the year $138,807,337. The estimate for pensions for 1897 is $140,000,000 for pension payments, $800,000 for surgeons' fees and $450,000 for clerk hire at pension agencies, and about $200,000 for other expenses. The commissioner commends the vigor of the department of justice and of pension examiners in prosecuting dishonest attorneys and others who were engaged in pension frauds. Two hundred an ! ninety-four persons were convicted during the year for frauds.

Indians Want More Rights. PERRY, Ok., Oct. 31.-The Pottawatomie Indians, in council, passed resolutions declaring: "We believe the stringent rules of the interior department regarding leases are not conducive to our interests. It would be better for the Indian, better for the white man and better for the community that the Indian should have greater control over his land in the way of leasing at least for limited periods of say five years. Give us more autonomy and less red tapeism. The excessive potentialism of the government tends to dwarf the development which is necesary to make us self-supporting and which can be attained only by imposing upon the Indian greater personal responsibility."
