PERSONAL, POLITICAL AND PERTINENT.

The Nebraska City News remarks that "with gold mines in Seward county, coal in Cass county, and the proposed building of a union depot at Omaha, Nebraska is booming."

The Nebraska University foot ball club of Lincoln beat the Iowa University eleven at Omaha yesterday in a very clever game. The score was 6 to 0. A number of foot ball admirers went up from this city to witness the game.

Last Monday night the ice gorged in the river at Plattsmouth, an unusual occurrence so early in the season, and very strange, too, considering the temperature about the News and Tribune offices, which are not a great distance from the river.—Union Ledger.

A mother's love is the most far-reaching thing in the world. It has followed many a wayward son to the verge of hell—and brought him back.

They have sent a man to jail in Kansas for contempt of court. His crime consisted in refusing to drink beer on the witness stand, when told to do so by the judge, who wanted to know if it was beer. He boldly declined to be experimented on.

The editors of the Elmwood Echo and Leader have a habit of organizing a hunting party, and engaging in a hunting contest the first snow of each year. Monday these gamey editors, each at the head of his respective division went out into the snow and wind to hunt jack rabbits, and other game. The members of each party got the captains to stand guard while they made a grand drive through an almost impenetrable thicket. The editors returned to town about midnight and each captain has ordered a court martial of his respective command. Of course an editor always gets mad unless he can hold the sack and let the rabbits jump in.—Nebraska City Press.

Any reader of a home newspaper can save many times the price of the subscription during the year by watching the advertisements. There is very frequently a difference of from ten to twenty cents per yard on goods, and other things in proportion. Often when a person makes purchases and is not posted, he pays dearly for it.

The enterprising robber nowadays hesitates between risking his life and liberty in holding up an express car and taking things easy as an embezzler of public funds. On the whole the scales seem to incline toward defalcation in public office.

The newspaper war in St. Louis, if it is continued, will bankrupt all engaged in it. The price of the Republic and Globe-Democrat has been reduced to one cent per copy, and the publishers furnish dealers with papers at one-half cent each, and papers are given with each cigar purchased, or a shave, or most anything else. With those papers it is the larger the circulation the larger the loss.

An exchange that knows what it is talking about, wisely says: "Young man, when you are courting your best girl, don't get soft. Don't say 'these little hands will not do a stroke of work when you are mine, and you shall have nothing to do in our house but to sit all day and chirp to the canaries,' as if any sensible woman could be happy fooling away her time in that sort of style. A girl generally has a fine, retentive memory of the soft things and silly promises of courtship, and occasionally, in after years, when she is bending over the washtub, or patching the west end of your trousers, she will remind you of them in cold, sarcastic tones of voice."

Hans Albert, America's greatest violinist, formerly concert master with the Thomas Orchestra, and Don Long, the celebrated pianist and composer, will give a concert in Plattsmouth, at the Presbyterian church, on Monday evening, Dec. 2, 1895. State Teachers' Association.

The Staccato Etude by Rubenstein is a composition of exquisite beauty and one that every person who hears it enjoys. Rubenstein's music is always appreciated by everyone. Mr. Long's expression is wonderful. Be sure and hear him Monday Dec. 2d at the Presbyterian church. Admission fifty cents.

Six O'clock Supper.
In connection with the Doll carnival to be given by the King's Daughters at Waterman hall, Thursday evening, December 12, the ladies of the church will serve supper and an excellent menu is being prepared, which is characteristic of the Presbyterian ladies, as all who attended their suppers in the early spring will remember.

Dr. Marshall, Graduate DENTIST, Fitzgerald block.

A thirsty farmer tied his team in front of Brigg's barber shop on Saturday and went in search of something to assuage his thirst. After the team got tired of standing, one of them laid down on the tongue, the result being that the thirsty farmer will put a new tongue in his buggy before he goes home.
