Wm. Smoots Awarded Damages in th Sum of $175-A Cruel Woman Who Abused Her Hubby, Who Now Seeks a Divorce.

The concert given by Hans Albert and Don Long at the Presbyterian church Monday night was the best musical program that has been heard in Plattsmouth for many days.

The church was comfortably filled by an audience constituting the best element of people in the city, and all appeared to thoroghly appreciate the rare musical treat afforded them.

Prof. Albert has been heard here be fore and each time has made many friends.

The concerto in G. minor, Max Bruch, was played as it is seldom played, while the Shubert serenade completely won the hearts of the audience.

In all of his numbers Mr. Albert exhibits a wonderful technique, trilling in double notes with perfect ease and striking harmonies with an accuracy that is astonishing.

Mr. Long has a very fine touch, and Dowell Etude were very finely interpreted, and each won from the audience an encore, to the former of which he responded with Mandolinata, a composition of his own.

Mr. Long undoubtedly has a great future.

Miss Sullivan's singing was very much appreciated by all present. She exhibited some nervousness at first, from which she very soon recovered. The young lady possesses a good soprano voice, and her renditions last evening was a pleasant surprise to her Plattsmouth friends. Considering this was Miss Sullivan's first appearance in public, she did remarkably well.

Mr. Chas. Keefer, to whose efforts the people of Plattsmouth owe this excellent entertainment, is to be congratulated for his enterprise.
