Perry Lathrop now has control of the Omaha Bee in this city.—Nebraska City Progress.
Until January 1st, Joe & Frank will sell overcoats for one fourth less than former prices.

What is a nicer gift for X-mas than a pair of oldspectacles. Purchase them of Gering & Co's.
WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. Julius Pepperberg at residence.

Stop and think a moment! Twenty-five per cent discount on every overcoat, at Joe & Frank's.
Mrs. Chas. Cook, residing out near the fair grounds, is reported to be quite low with consumption.

The best and cheapest overcoat ever shown in Plattsouth at $4.50, former price $6.00, at Joe & Frank's.
W. E. Pailing, the Greenwood postmaster and merchant, was in town yesterday, attending district court.

Geo. J. Spohn, of Superior, an old friend of Judge Ramsey, is visiting the latter gentleman in town today.
Remember a little present for X-mas makes the receiver and giver happy, and Gering & Co's. is the place to buy.

County Treasurer Eickhoff of Louisville precinct was in town today and took occasion to visit the court house.
Have you heard of the wonderful reduction Joe & Frank are offering on overcoats and all other winter clothing?

Just what you want for that cough and cold is Gering's "Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry Compound." Only 25 cents a bottle.
For a nice Christmas present go to Joe & Frank and look at their magnificent line of neckwear, mufflers, handkerchiefs and umbrellas.

For chapped hands and face use Gering's "Mel Rose Cream."
