THURSDAY, FEB. 6, 1896.

It is now an assured fact that Henry Gering will be the next city treasurer of Plattsmouth.

THE national banking system is a cancer upon the body politic, and nothing but the heroic method of cutting it out will cure the patient.

THE best argument in favor of Eugene Moore's candidacy for governor is the fact that he is opposed by that oily rascal, Frank Hilton.—Papillion Times.

THE republicans in the Kentucky legislature are about to inaugurate Czar Reed tactics, and by unseating democratic members on trumped-up charges, elect a senator over Joe Blackburn. Give them rope and they will be sure to hang themselves.

If Frank Morgan can be persuaded to make the race for mayor, he will have no trouble in being elected. The people are anxious for a change in the administration of city affairs and Mr. Morgan is just the man wanted at the head of the city government.

ALL honor to Senator Thurston for his magnificent argument in support of the Monroe doctrine. As a democrat the Times wants to be first to pay tribute to a republican senator when he does his duty by talking true patriotism within the legislative halls. God grant that some day this same Thurston, who now fawns like a puppy at the feet of his railroad masters, may throw off the shackles which bind him, and that then he may employ his great powers in behalf of the common people.—Papillion Times.

THE advocates of the single gold standard, with an egotism that belies its purpose, delight to call themselves "sound money" men. That term, as applied to them, is a falsehood and a fraud. The single gold standard is even now tottering to its fall, and is the most unsound system the adoption of which was ever contemplated. It means the impoverishment of the masses by the enrichment of the classes—in fact, the overthrow of a republican government in this country.

SECRETARY CARLINSE has set the mints at work coining standard silver dollars. Just why he wants to coin more of what he and other goldbugs call 50 cent dollars is more than we can understand; as it is well known that Grover and all the rest have kept up a continual harping about there being more silver than they knew what to do with. Even our own secretary of agriculture wanted it sold for old junk. Now the mints are to coin more of it. Such consistency.—Crete Democrat.

NEBRASKA is for McKinley, for Thurston himself has said it. For four years Nebraska republicans have been insisting that the next republican candidate for president must be a western man, an advocate of western interests, but when the Union Pacific senator bids the rabble he still it straightway hushes its huzzas for a western man and joins its voice with Monopoly John in advocacy of a candidate who will be acceptable to the east. It is only natural that Thurston should favor an eastern man. Indeed nearly all owners of Union Pacific stock reside in the east.—Papillion Times.

SENATOR TILLMAN gave the dry bones of goldbugism a severe shaking up in the senate last Tuesday, and not only was Cleveland and his judas-like cabinet given a sound roasting, but the hypocrisy of republican pretense was exposed to the light of day. It was by odds the ablest speech of the session, and placed its author well to the front, not only as a leader of thought and a powerful orator, but as the man since Ingalls' time possessing the greatest power of invective in the senate. He talked plainly and called things by their right names, and in words of burning eloquence painted the brand of Cain upon the brows of the president and his cabinet members who had betrayed the people to the money-kings of New York. It was a most notable speech which ought to be read by everybody.

THE CITY'S FUTURE.

The recent meeting of the Board of Trade was the starting point for the inauguration of business revival in this city. At that meeting a full and fair expression of sentiment in favor of united action looking toward the location of new industries in our city was had and an earnest effort will be made in that direction. It was a waste of time and space to enter into, anew, the advantages of Plattsmouth for these are all well known. The movement in favor of a beet sugar factory is a wise one, as the country around the city is well adapted to sugar beet culture, and the superior distributing advantages would make this factory a success. Let the business men make this factory a success. The proposal to establish a college is one well worthy of consideration. A college means a considerable addition to the population of the city during the school year, and serves to increase the amount of money in circulation. In this manner it is a benefit to a community in addition to its elevating influence in an educational line. The prospects for a government building while not the brightest, are still within the range of possibilities, and no effort should be spared to obtain this building if possible. The move for a new opera house is another that deserves encouragement. Plattsmouth needs an opera house, probably worse than any city in the state. Such a building would be a success if properly managed as this city is one of the best show towns in the state, and the people will patronize a good play house. Another matter that the Board of Trade had under advisement was the location of a branch factory of an Indiana firm. This firm manufactured sheet metal tanks and was desirous of locating here. It would employ about forty men and would be a solid institution. It ought to be secured. From all this array of enterprises it would seem that a little energy is all that is needed to make a step forward during the coming year. This is not the time to waste energy in theorizing but it is the hour for action. The great trouble in this city has always been the useless and extravagant amount of talk and inaction and if this city is to progress it must drop this method and go to work. Prosperity comes only to those who help themselves, and it is a foolish policy that causes people to sit and cry over the mistakes of the past. All that has happened is done, and we must gather together what we have left and make an united effort to remedy the errors. Let all our people pull together with the one central idea of the common good and the success of the city's future is assured.

THE CITY CAMPAIGN.

The near approach of the spring election has caused the appearance of many booms for city positions. In a great measure this is due to the fact that this year seems to be propitious to the democracy. The trend of public sentiment seems favorable to the democratic party, especially in this city, upon local issues. For two years Plattsmouth has struggled along under the adverse influences of a narrow and partisan administration. To all fair, thinking people it appears that the time for a broader and more liberal policy has arrived, and upon this theory will the next democratic city ticket be named.

For the mayoralty, Frank J. Morgan, John A. Gutsche and Henry R. Gering are being pushed by their friends. The nomination of any of these gentlemen means victory. They are all free-hearted and liberal in their views and would give the city a clean and creditable administration.

For city clerk, Thom: Walling, Frank Green and D. C. McEntee are mentioned, and better men could not be named. Either of these gentlemen would add strength to the ticket.

For city treasurer, Chas. D. Cummins, Henry R. Gering, Fred Ebinger and D. C. McEntee are being considered and the nomination of either of these gentlemen will meet popular approval.

Judge Archer appears to have no opposition for the nomination for police judge and his re-election is a foregone conclusion.

On the republican side, the present city administration appears to be sure of re-nomination and either T. Frank Wiles or A. J. Graves will, probably, struggle to capture the judgeship.

The populists will probably run a full ticket and may poll fifty votes in the city.

Taken, as a whole, there is a splendid prospect for democratic success this spring.

MEN who would deliberately bring ruin upon millions of their fellow-men, as the gold conspirators have done, by bringing on the panic of '93 and its succeeding horrors, talk very glibly about upholding the credit of the country. The villains; they are the ones who have done it all the injury possible. Like the Pharisees of old, whom Christ denounced as hypocrites, they make broad their phylacteries and boast that they are better than other men by declaring themselves for "sound" money, when they know it is all a hypocritical pretense and a lie; that their scheme is inaugurated to make slaves of the masses while the few can revel in the luxury of unbounded wealth. But the people may awake in time to prevent their scheme from succeeding.

THE republicans are proceeding to go through the usual formula of arrangements for the coming presidential election, and while there is apparently some rivalry between favorite candidates this is about all the evidence of interest or anything approaching enthusiasm that can be noticed. The fact is the hope that a high tariff—which is about all there is of republican spirit left—would bring again prosperity, has almost died in the republican heart, and were it not for the hope of office very little interest could be worked up among the republicans of Nebraska.

THE national banks have been sending to the treasury offers to buy bonds under the proposed new loan in wonderful amounts, indicating that they have been storing gold for some purpose not required in their business. These banks have little or no money to loan to help ordinary business, but when a chance is given to secure a 30 year bond, with the hope of making them the basis of circulation for a greater issue of their own notes, the gold comes out of its hiding place. The national banks are the meanest combinations of political power in all this country.

NEBRASKA NEWS.

District court at Tecumseh has been adjourned until February 19. Action on the Bonacum-Murphy case was postponed until then.

A newspaper, bank and a creamery were among the industries captured by Springview last week. Details for their location will be arranged shortly.

Two thousand dollars worth of notes, stolen recently from a York firm, were found in a freight car 100 yards from the scene of the robbery.

Thirty thousand in annuities was paid the Winnebagoes and Omahas Monday, and the towns in that locality have been doing a rousing business since. Each Indian received $10.50.

Ashland farmers are shipping cars of poultry to the New York city market. J. F. Green of that town made twenty-seven trips to the eastern markets with poultry shipments last year. As much as $700 profit per car has been made by Ashland shippers.

Milton Campbell and two females from Norfolk attempted to take charge of a saloon at Hadar in the accepted frontier style. All the windows were shot out before the sheriff's authority was recognized. The girls escaped while Campbell was being jailed.

The B. & M. at Loup City started separate actions in the district court this week against the payment of the levy for interest on the bonds voted by Logan and Loup City townships to aid in the construction of the canal built by the Sherman County Irrigation, Waterpower and Improvement company and secured temporary restraining orders from Judge Green against collection of the tax.

County Judge Spurlock was hearing claims Saturday against the estate of the late H. J. Hennings.

Brought Back the Prisoner.

Sheriff Huberle came in from Lincoln last night having in charge George Harris, arrested at Lincoln on an alleged charge of stealing a load of hogs belonging to Joseph Sprickles, who resides in the northwest corner of this county, and hauling them to market. The evidence against Harris is reported to be purely circumstantial and there is no assurance that he is the right man. He will have his hearing about Saturday.—Nebraska City Press.
