KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

DONALD KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, MASS., Has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston. Send postal card for book.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the right quantity is taken. When the lungs are affected it causes shooting pains, like needles passing through them; the same with the Liver or Bowels. This is caused by the ducts being stopped, and always disappears in a week after taking it. Read the label. If the stomach is foul or bilious it will cause squeamish feelings at first. No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it Dose, one tablespoonful in water at bedtime. Sold by all Druggists.

LESSON XII, MARCH 22-FAITH-FUL SERVANTS-LUKE 12:37-48.

Golden Text: "Be Not Drunk with Wine, Wherein Is Excess: but Be Filled with the Spirit"-Ephriam 5:18-Scriptural

INCE we have this subject here only in this course, although in the other gospels it comes some months later, it will be well for the teacher to bring together what Jesus says upon it in various places. The occasion for this warning, in the circumstances of the disciples, their peculiar temptations, and dangers, and opportunities, should be first made clear. The application to our own times can then come with greater force. For every reason why the disciples should watch is intensified in our own times. The application to temperance is very clear. and the emphasis can be laid upon this application according to the needs of each class. The Section includes verses 36-48, together with the similar teachings about watchfulness on the Tuesday before the crucifixion, four months later. See Light from Other Scriptures.

The full lesson for to-day is as follows: 37. Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve

38. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. 39. And this know, that if the "goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. 40. Be ye therefore ready also; for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41. Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all? 42. And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due 43. Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. 44. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. 45. But, and if that servant say in his shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken: 46. The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him. and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and him his portion with the unbelievers. 47. And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the

Some explanations to to-day's lesson are as follows:

Vs. 37-39. 37. "Shall find watching." The word "watching" expresses not a mere act, but a state of wakefulness and watching. "What the Savior enjoins is not curiosity straining to be the first to see the returning master, but the wakefulness and diligence that overlooks no duty, indulges no indolence. The last thing that would please a master would be the idle curiosity which would make the servants neglect their work to stand outside the door gazing to catch a glimpse of his return. What the master desires is wakeful work."-R. Glover, We watch by serving the Lord as faithfully as if he were ever looking upon us. We watch by being on our guard against every temptation and danger. Watchfulness is the opposite of careless security;

it is a state of readiness. Against What to Watch. We are to watch against temptations from within and without; against pervading iniquities which fill the air with moral malaria, or chill the plety of even the church; against failure in duty; against the loss of the warmth of first love; against the day of death and of judgment, so as to be prepared for them when they come. 38. "Second or third watch." Always watching, whether it be early or late. "The watch was a military division of the night, covering the hours occupied by each of the four relays of guards stationed from 6 p. m. to 6 a. m."-American

A Reason for Watching. 39. "If the goodman," the master or head, "of the house, had known what hour." A robber always tries to come unexpectedly. When a house has not been robbed for a long time men are apt to relax their

40. "The son of man cometh in an hour when ye think not." Not only his final coming, but all his comings are sudden, at unexpected times, and in unexpected ways. There is only one way to be safe against temptation, only one way to be ready to enter open doors of usefulness, or new work, to be prepared for death and the judgment, and that is to be always on guard, always watching, always ready. If we are unprepared the opportunities pass us forver.

Vs. 41-44. 41. "Peter said." Peter recognized that the apostles were referred to. and would of course reap the great reward promised, but how about other people? Was there room for them?

42. "The Lord said." He now implies by a parable what he at another time directly said (Mark 13:37), "What I say unto you I say unto all, Watch." "Who then is that faithful and wise steward."

43. "Blessed." He possesses all the beatitudes. "Shall find so doing." We see by this illustration of Christ what he means by watching; not gazing up into the heaven for signs, but faithful performance of duty, as if God himself were ever present, with hope and joy in the thought of his coming. In many cases watching is joined with prayer, because he that means to watch will seek all the helps possible, especially the guardianship of God.

44. "Will make him ruler (or set him) over all that he hath," over all his property of every kind, and not simply over his body of domestics. (Compare 25: 21; Luke

What It Wanted. Every boy and girl has doubtless heard of the great composer Handel. Here is a little story told of him and of Dr. Maurice Green, a musician whose compositions were never remarkably fine. It seems he had sent a solo anthem to Handel for his opinion, and Handel invited him to take breakfast, tations. and he would say what he thought of it. After coffee Green's patience became exhausted, and he said: "Well, sir, what do you think of it?" dat it wanted air."

"Air!" cried Green "Yes, sir; and so I did hang it out of de vindow," replied Handel. - Harper's Besure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mns. Round Table.

The first prize will be given to the person who constructs the longest sentence is good English containing no letter of the alphabet more than three times. It is not necessary to use every letter of the alphabet. The other prizes will go in regular order to those competitors whose sentences are next in length.

Every competitor whose sentence reaches twenty-two letters will receive a paper covered volume containing twelve of Wilkie Collins' novels whether he wins a prize or not. This contest closes April 15, 1896. The prize winners will be announced one week later and the winning sentences published. In case two or more prize-winning sentences are of the same length preference will be given to the best one. Each competitor must construct his own sentence, and no person will be allowed to enter this contest more than once. Sentences cannot be corrected or substituted after they are received. Residents of Omaha are not permitted to compete, directly or indirectly.

RULES FOR THE SENTENCE-(No Others Furnished.) The length of a sentence is to be measured by the number of letters it contains, but no letter can be used or counted more than three times. No word except "a" or "I" can be used more than once. The sentence must consist of complete words. Signs, figures, abbreviations or contractions, etc., must not be used. The pronoun "I" and the article "a" will be accepted as complete words. Proper nouns cannot be used. Each contestant must indicate by figures at the end of his sentence how many letters it contains.
