

THE DAY'S DOINGS

What the People In and Around Plattsmouth Are Doing.

DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. Washington Smith's Fiftieth Birthday Anniversary Remembered By a Number of Lady Friends—Other Happenings.

Remembered Her Birthday.

Mrs. Washington Smith was fifty years old Monday, and she was the victim of a most pleasant surprise that evening, which was planned and successfully carried out by a number of her lady friends.

Those present were Mesdames S. P. Holloway, C. W. Green, Henry Martens, H. J. Helpe, F. D. Lehnhoff, F. H. Steinkler, C. S. Johnson, G. F. S. Burton, O. H. Snyder, Geo. Hay, D. B. Smith, A. Drew, W. H. Newell, A. N. Sullivan, Wm. Ballance, Chas. Rutherford, J. M. Robertson, J. T. Baird, Swift, Isham and Wendell.

Did Considerable Damage.

This vicinity was visited by a small sized cyclone Friday and as a result various out-buildings, fences, chimneys and roofs were scattered promiscuously around by the fierce gale.

The storm appears to have been confined to this section of the state, as the morning papers did not chronicle any serious results elsewhere.

Most Peculiar Accident.

A report was received at Burlington headquarters yesterday of a peculiar accident that occurred the other day about five miles west of Otis.

Holdrege Starts For the East.

The sudden departure of General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington for the east has, in railroad circles, given greater force to the rumor that the Burlington would soon take control of the Omaha & St. Louis railroad.

Tom Edison Promises at an Early Date to Publicly Exhibit his Apparatus for Making the Human Body Transparent.

Tom Edison promises at an early date to publicly exhibit his apparatus for making the human body transparent, so that a doctor or any other man may look into and through you, and see just how your arteries and veins and lungs and liver are working and pumping.

Most people believe that this has been an exceedingly warm winter and that March has been warmer than usual.

From Friday's Daily. J. M. Beardsley and T. M. Howard came in from Weeping Water this morning.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Elva Kilborn was granted a divorce from Joseph Kilborn by Judge Ramsey in district court this morning.

Little Maud Dearing was at Elmwood Wednesday, where she sang for the entertainment of the Modern Woodmen social, receiving a hearty encore.

Miss Myrtle and Master Charley Hulfish of Wabash are visiting in town, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dearing.

About twenty lady friends of Mrs. George Luschnsky tendered her a farewell surprise yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Gableman, on west Gold street.

Mrs. C. S. Sherman of Crete visited in this city over Sunday.

Rev. Bomgartner of South Bend was a county-seat visitor today.

The Cass County Teacher's institute closed a very interesting and profitable session at Weeping Water Saturday.

John Robbins has been appointed traveling representative for South-eastern Nebraska for the "Pacemaker" a journal devoted cyclists interests, published at Lincoln.

Sheriff Holloway was notified today that a man named Fred Trunkenbolz out at Eagle, had suddenly become insane, and he will probably go out after the man this evening.

The republican county convention at Weeping Water Saturday unanimously endorsed H. N. Dovey of this city as a delegate to the national convention from the First district, and A. C. Wright as state delegate.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Judge B. S. Ramse and his brother, John, departed this afternoon for Rushville, Neb., called thither by the serious illness of Dr. Waterman, a brother-in-law of theirs.

The court house presents a deserted appearance today. Judge Ramsey has gone out to Rushville, County Attorney Polk is in Omaha, Sheriff Holloway is out in the county, and District Clerk Houseworth has gone fishing.

Rev. J. M. Woods, the first pastor of the Baptist church in this city, preached a very eloquent sermon at that church Sunday morning, his subject being "Love." Rev. Woods is enroute to Oregon, where he hopes to benefit his failing health.

Gertrude M. Wiley vs. C. E. Wiley, et al, is the title of a case tried to a jury in county court yesterday. The defendants sought a change of venue, but the motion was overruled.

Twenty-seven new members were initiated at the special meeting of the Modern Woodman of America last evening, and about one hundred Woodmen were present, including several from various parts of the county.

Farm For Sale.

The undersigned has for sale, either in whole or in part, the property described as the north east quarter and the east half of the north west quarter and north east quarter of the south west quarter and north half of the south east quarter of section 2, and the north west quarter of the north west quarter of section 1, all in township 13, range 9, Saunders county, Nebraska, comprising 400 acres.

John Phelps, a farmer living on the north side of the river, killed a large goose Wednesday. He was surprised when he picked it up to find a neatly fitted leather harness on Mr. Goose.

During Lent there will be services Wednesday and Friday evenings of each week at the Episcopal church. The service on Wednesday evenings will be in the shape of a short lecture by the pastor, Rev. H. B. Burgess.

From Monday's Daily. Mrs. C. S. Sherman of Crete visited in this city over Sunday.

Workmen are busy on a new Baptist church at Alliance.

AT ST. PETER'S GATE.

Two strangers came unto the gate, Where good St. Peter nodding sat, The one was sleek and round and fat, And wore the latest style of hat.
