THE TIME TO ACT

THE loss of the strike of the stereotyper's union in Chicago is a most serious blow to organized labor and one which will be far-reaching in its effect. This was one of the strongest unions in the country, and if it could not win out under the present conditions, there seems to be little chance for any labor union to gain its point. In fact it now looks as though the only combination capable of getting that which it goes after is capital. It asked for interest-bearing bonds and despite the producers of the country it got them. It asked for Hawaii, and notwithstanding the fact that the vast majority of the people opposed the idea, the islands were taken in. It has combined to crush organized labor, as witness the combined action of the Chicago publishers, and the courts have closed their eyes, or have looked on approvingly; but when the toilers and producers have combined in order to right their grievances, they have been arrested and thrown into prison on a charge of conspiracy.

It certainly looks as though the fate of organized labor was sealed, and when it falls Plutocracy has taken one of the strongest outposts that guard the fortress of Civil Liberty.

Now is the time for the wealth-makers of the country to arise to the gravity of the situation that confronts them. A very brief period must decide wether this is to be a republic or a plutocracy—whether it is to be a government exercising just powers by the consent of the governed, or an aristocracy whose law is lucre and whose toilers are serfs.

This decision must be registered at the polls and it would seem that the voters of Nebraska should have little difficulty in making up their minds on the subject. Even a casual glance at the history of the state is enough to convince a man of ordinary intelligence where his interests lie. The record of the republican party in Nebraska is a story of robbery, jobbery, thievery and corruption. The men whom it has elected to office have notoriously been the pliant and subservient tools of the corporations that have ever since the organization of the state been plundering and pillaging its people. The court of last resort has descended to a tribunal where the railroads and other corporations and people of wealth are certain of judgments in their favor, whenever a lower court might by chance decide against them.

These conditions became so notorious that the people were aroused to a realization of them two years ago, and the rotten ring was swept from power. The result has surprised even the most ardent reformer. The cost of running the state government has largely decreased and the receipts have enormously increased, while state warrants have gone from a discount of 5 per cent to a premium. The splendid record made by the present administration speaks for itself and needs no commendation. But the greatest and most important work of reform will not have been accomplished until the supreme court is redeemed from the hands of the corporation party. The wisdom of the election of Judge Sullivan has been amply demonstrated, but he can do but little with the other five members of the court against him.

Let the work so well begun be carried to completion in due time.

The courts are, or ought to be, the bulwarks of our liberties instead of vehicles of oppression, and we should see that none but incorruptible men and true friends of the people are hereafter placed upon the supreme bench.

The republican party has nothing upon which to base a claim to preferment in this state, but money can accomplish much, and it behooves every patriot to be upon his guard.

And in looking out for the state, let us not forget the nation. We have six congressmen and a senator to elect this fall and winter. It is needless to say that the splendid record made by Senator Allen has endeared him to the people of Nebraska, the vast majority of whom desire his reelection, but in order to insure it, there must be no mistake in the selection of candidates for the legislature. Good, clean, able and conscientious men must be selected, and they must be men of well-defined opinions, whose principles are known, and who have the courage to express themselves.

The congressional career of the present member from this district has probably been disappointing and disgusting enough to insure the election of some anti-republican, without any other argument being advanced. When he has done anything at all, it has invariably been what his constituents did not want done. In fact, to be charitable, he comes as near filling the Pinafore couplet as could be:

"He always voted at his party's call,
And he never thought of thinking for himself at all,"

Which is equivalent to saying that he has by his every vote favored the money power at the expense of the people.

Let Cass county do her part toward making the congressional delegation from Nebraska solidly anti-republican thus doing her duty not only to herself, but to the producing classes all over the country.

THE officers of the so-called Agricultural society need expect nothing from the people of this county in the future if they go ahead with their scheme to rob them of 700 odd dollars by getting up a mock fair this fall.

EVERY congressman from the First district, since its reorganization, has been from Lancaster county, yet there is no one who will contend that that county possesses a monopoly of statesmanship. This is the year to make a change.

LET every taxpayer make a personal appeal to the conscience of some officer of the Cass County Agricultural society to have the contemplated raid upon the treasury desisted from. Those men will surely not have the nerve to go ahead with such a palpable steal when they know that the entire population of the county understands and opposes it.

From Brigadier General Colby.

Hon S. M. Chapman yesterday received the following letter from Brigadier General L. W. Colby of Beatrice:

CHICAMAUGA PARK, Tenn., July 10, 1898 —HON. SAMUEL M. CHAPMAN, Plattsmouth, Neb —My Dear Judge:—Your esteemed letter has reached me after following me to Washington and has found me on the old battlefield of Chickamauga, with some 60,000 U. S. volonteers. I have been placed in command of the Eighth New York, First Vermont and Third Tennessee infantry regiments, which constitute the Third brigade of the First division of the Third army corps. The corps commander is General Wade, a son of old Ben Wade of Ohio; the division commander is General Frank, formerly an artillery colonel of the regular army. Until two days ago, General Grant commanded the division, but he has been relieved and given a brigade.

I am in daily expectation of orders to march and expect to be a part of the next expedition to invade Cuba and invest Havana. My brigade is a good one and they are getting in good shape. I am hard at work, in good health and expecting trouble.

Believe me, with kind regards,
Sincerely yours,
L. W. COLBY.
