HAS SURRENDERED

A BIG SLICE OF CUPA FALLS TO AMERICAN SOLDIERS.

TERMS OF CAPITULATION

SPANISH EVACUATE SANTIAGO AND LEAVE ARMS.

General Shafter Wins Laurels as a Fighter, and a Diplomat—25,000 Spaniards Forced to Lay Down Their Arms.

Siboney Special: Via Playa del Este, July 19.—The agreement to surrender Santiago and all of the islands to the United States was signed at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. It was approved by General Shafter and the aid and staff of the United States Army, and awaits approval of Washington and Madrid.

The surrender was received with jubilation by the troops. The first news came an hour after the receipt of the terms. Captain Mendoza, interpreter for General Shafter, met Toral. An orderly who was with them waved his hat in the direction of the city. This was the signal agreed upon.

The Ninth was holding a religious service at the time. They stopped in the streets and broke into wild cheers. The Spanish soldiers were ordered to lay down their arms and to be taken to the city. The Spanish soldiers were ordered to lay down their arms and to be taken to the city.

TO BLOCKADE PORTO RICO.

Getting Our Floating Fighting Machines in Line.

Washington, D. C., July 18.—Paving the way for the army of invasion, the navy department is making arrangements for blockading all of the ports of Porto Rico.

In accordance with instructions sent by Secretary Long three monitors have left Key West for Porto Rican waters, where they will take station and be ready for the attack. The monitors, I understand, are the Puritan, Amphitrite and Montauk. The monitors, I understand, are the Puritan, Amphitrite and Montauk.

The arrival of these three vessels will increase the blockading force in front of San Juan to six vessels. It is not intended to keep all of these ships at that point, however, but on the arrival of the monitors the other ships will go to other Porto Rican ports. There are only seven ports which it will be necessary to blockade.

IS GOOD CHANGE

SCHOOLS ARE SUPPLIED WITH JUICY FUNDS.

HOW UNCLE JAKE DOES IT

A CONTRAST FROM REPUBLICAN METHODS.

Lincoln, Neb., July 19.—Land Commissioner Wolf has made a big change in the management of his office. It used to be the custom to lease a piece of land and get behind four to six years on the rental. The new plan does away with this little family scheme. When land is surrendered now it is advertised for sale by the expiration of thirty days bids are received. The highest bidder gets the land and the man who relinquished it is barred from bidding and is also liable to an action for recovery of the amount which he owes the state. Surplus proceeds are paid to the bidder at the rate of about forty per cent, as it was an easy way of paying old scores and starting over again.

When surrender of delinquent contracts is accepted the county treasurer is notified of the date of such acceptance and will hold such land one month from that date. For instance, if the date of acceptance is May 5, land will be held until June 5; where surrender is accepted February 3, land will be held until March 13. While this does not always work out as thirty days, even yet it accomplishes the object intended, and fixes a uniform condition for the land owner long enough, after surrender, for persons who might desire to lease the land and start over again.

On the day succeeding the expiration of the term such land will be sold to the highest bidder. The proceeds of the sale will be paid to the county treasurer. The proceeds of the sale will be paid to the county treasurer.

CAMP LIFE AT FORT OMAHA.

Life at Fort Omaha during the muster in of the Third regiment under Colonel William J. Bryan has not been a bed of roses for many of the boys, whose patriotism led them to giving up good positions and comfortable homes for a life of hardship and battle for their country's sake.

Owing to orders received from the government to muster in and equip the regiment, the eastern recruits and the soldiers have been deprived of many conveniences which they otherwise would have had.

Notwithstanding these inconveniences the boys have been happy and contented. They were and are experiencing "roughing it," such as their fathers had experienced in earlier days, and were content to undergo such trials as those of which their fathers had made light.

Colonel Bryan has been no exception to the rule. He has endured the same inconveniences in uncomfortable quarters as have his men, but he has endeavored to make the best of it. He has called out many favorable comments on his worth as an officer.

His headquarters while imposing in exterior, presented a very different aspect interiorly. Large, open, empty rooms greeted the visitor. A mess hall, which was a simple affair, was set up in a room. The mess hall, which was a simple affair, was set up in a room.
