Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1898.

NOT SO SMART AS SUPPOSED.

Judge Hayward doesn't seem to be as smart as the Post gave him credit for. Last Friday that paper said: "Mr. Hayward is known to be just a little too smart to accept a nomination for governor in the face of 15,000 majority given to Holcomb two years ago, that would have to be overcome." But, sad to relate, the local sheet appears to have had far too high an opinion of the Otoe county politician's smartness, for on the very day that the above paragraph appeared, Hayward gave out an interview to a Nebraska City paper, in which he gave notice that he desired the gubernatorial nomination. The Post will now use its utmost endeavors to have him head the state ticket, and immediately after his nomination, it will probably predict his election by a large majority. But that won't elect him, nor, in fact, will anything else.

There will not be a republican elected to a state office in Nebraska this year.

The Cass county "fair" this year promises to be a howling success. That is, it will succeed in siphoning over $700 from the tax payers of the county and that's all the officers set out to do.

If Judge Hayward should be nominated for governor on the republican ticket you may look for the railroads to take even as active a part in the campaign as they did when Tom Ma-jobs was a candidate. In fact it has been said that Hayward's principal reason for going after that nomination was the assurance of the corporations that they would back his campaign with big bundles of boodle. But all the wealth of the railroads of Nebraska cannot corrupt or bribe a large enough number of the voters of the state to cause a repetition of the Moore-Bartley-Mosher regime. Republic boodle rule in this commonwealth is a thing of the past.

Those people who fondly imagined that the republican party would compel corporations to pay their proportion of the war tax, have been fooled just as is any one else who depends on that party doing right. It was given out while the bill was pending that the express, telegraph and telephone companies were to be taxed on their business, the telegraph companies to be compelled to affix a stamp to each message sent. But now, when the law has gone into effect, the corporation claims that its patron must pay for the stamp, and the republican commissioner of internal revenue decides that that is the proper construction to be placed on the law. This will of course cause little surprise, for if ever a republican legislative body has by mistake passed a law that was distasteful to a corporation, there has always been a republican court or administrative officer to nullify it. Instead of paying their money into the common treasury for the support of the government, these corporations place a portion of it in the republican campaign fund for the corruption of voters. And every one knows that republicans are advocates of reciprocity.

The packing house employees of South Omaha were on a strike last week, their demand for living wages having been refused by the firms employing them. During the time that they were out, their conduct was above criticism. No violence of any kind was attempted, the men went about their business in a quiet and unobtrusive manner and calmly awaited a settlement of the difficulty, which was affected in a manner satisfactory to all concerned. Yet in spite of all these facts the Lincoln Journal, that most debased of all corruption ponderers and lickspittles, must perform set up the characteristic cry for "soldiers to subdue the strikers." It seems almost strange that whenever a wage-earner has a disagreement with a corporation the first thing that the republican organs think of is soldiers. No matter how well-behaved the breadwinner may be, the republican idea seems to be that men with bayonets should be brought upon the scene to cow him into submission, and should Corporationist Hayward be placed at the head of the state government, the workmen may be sure that whenever there are soldiers in the state, it will be unnecessary for the corporation managers to call for them more than once.

Democratic State Convention.

The democratic state central committee hereby calls a delegate convention of the democrats of the state of Nebraska to meet at Lincoln, Neb., at the Funk opera house, on Tuesday, August 2, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following state offices to be filled at the ensuing election: Governor, lieutenant governor, treasurer, secretary of state, attorney general, auditor of public accounts, commissioner of public lands and buildings, and superintendent of public instruction; and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. All citizens who believe in the principles of the democratic party as declared in the Chicago platform, and who intend to affiliate with the democratic party are invited to participate in the selection of delegates to this convention.

Each county is requested to send one delegate for each 100 votes or major fraction thereof cast for Hon. Wm. J. Bryan for United States senator at the general election of 1894. Counties casting less than 100 votes for such candidate will send one delegate.

The headquarters of the democratic state committee will be at the Lindell hotel, where delegate tickets may be had.

Under the above apportionment Cass county will be entitled to twenty-one (21) delegates in the convention, the entire number entitled to seats being 813.

Call For State Convention.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 1st, 1898.—The People's Independent Party electors of the state of Nebraska, are hereby requested to send delegates from their respective counties to meet in convention in the city of Lincoln on Tuesday, August 2nd, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the Oliver Theater, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following state offices:

1. Governor
2. Lieutenant Governor
3. Secretary of State
4. Auditor of Public Accounts
5. Treasurer
6. Superintendent of Public Instruction
7. Attorney General

Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. The representation is based upon one delegate at large for each county, and one delegate for each one hundred votes or major fraction thereof, cast for Judge John J. Sullivan for supreme judge at the election of 1897.

Under this apportionment, Cass county is entitled to twenty-four (24) delegates, the total number entitled to seats in the convention being 1116.

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed, and that the delegates present cast the full vote of their respective delegations.

And it is further recommended that all persons who believe in the principles as advocated by the Peoples Independent party, who have not connected themselves heretofore with said party, are hereby invited to participate in the deliberations of the same.

The headquarters of the committee will be at the Lincoln Hotel Cor. 9th and P St., where delegate tickets may be had.

J. H. EDMISTEN, Chairman.
 M. HOWE, Secretary.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION, issued by George F. Houseworth, clerk of the district court within and for Cass county, Nebraska, and to me directed, I will on the 20th day of August A. D., 1898, at two o'clock p. m. of said day, at the south door of the court house, in the city of Plattsmouth, in said county, Nebraska, to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit:

Lot sixteen, (16) seventeen, (17) and nineteen, (19) in section seven, (7) township twelve, (12) range fourteen (14) in Cass county, Nebraska, together with the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, the same being levied upon and taken as the property of Catherine Heiland, defendant, to satisfy a judgment of said court recovered by J. A. Rieder and assigned to John Black, plaintiff, against said defendant.

W. D. WICKERS, Sheriff, Cass county, Neb.
 A. N. SULLIVAN, Attorney for Plaintiff.

THE HIGH CHARACTER

G. O. Taylor Whiskies

Has Been Maintained for Nearly a Quarter of a Century.

In future there will be no departure from a plan to supply the public through licensed dealers everywhere whiskies in sealed bottles, under the brand (G. O. Taylor) that will pass the inspection of the chemist and meet the requirements of the physician or of the invalid. Refuse substitutes for "G. O. T." If your druggist or grocer cannot supply, or wants to substitute something else, refuse to buy, write the proprietors of G. O. Taylor Whiskies, Chester H. Graves & Sons, Boston, and they will see that you are supplied.

Legal Notice.

In the matter of the Estate of William Osenkop, deceased.

This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Margaret Osenkop, administratrix of the estate of William Osenkop, deceased, praying for license to sell the east half of the northwest quarter of section twenty three, township twelve, range eleven, east 6th p. m., Cass county, Nebraska, or a sufficient amount of the same to bring the sum of $1,000 for the payment of the debts allowed against the said estate and the costs of administration, there not being sufficient personal property to pay said debts and expenses.

It is, therefore, ordered that all persons interested in the said estate appear before me at the court house in the City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 23rd day of July, 1898, at 1 o'clock p. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administratrix to sell so much of the above described real estate of said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

Dated this 19th day of June, A. D. 1898.
 B. H. RAMEY, Judge of the District Court.
