

A WOMAN'S LIFE WORK.

DEVOTED TO THE CAUSE OF SUFFERING HUMANITY!

Utterly Miserable for Thirteen Years Because of a Helpless Infirmitiy—Now Able to Help Others.

(From the St. Lawrence Plaindealer, Canton, N. Y.)

To suffer for years with a prevailing painful ailment, and have had skillful medical treatment, yet which was restored by a simple household remedy is the lot which befell Mrs. Geo. L. Rogers of West Main Street, Camden, N. Y.

"I am very glad," said Mrs. Rogers to a reporter, "I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism and a complication of diseases.

"I cannot begin to describe my suffering during that time.

"You can judge somewhat of what I suffered when you consider my hands. They were distorted, twisted and swollen. My foot, too, is so much out of shape that the big toe lays across the others, the end touching the little toe.

"Notwithstanding I am sixty-five years old, have a pleasant home and other comforts, life to me was far from enjoyable, for all other things pale into insignificance when you are without good health.

"I tried different doctors and many proprietary remedies, but no permanent benefit was obtained.

"Last March I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and before I had tried the first one I began to feel that they were doing me good. I continued using them and steadily grew better."

"I have used thirteen boxes of the pills and today feel better than for the past three years.

"My appetite is good, I feel bright, cheerful and have a desire to live and enjoy society.

"I have been a member of the Methodist church for many years, but for a time I was unable to attend. I am able now to attend the church services regularly and certainly appreciate that privilege.

"I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People a wonderful medicine and consider the other medicine could have effected the wonderful cure they have in my case.

"I am glad to state this, hoping that some suffered may profit by it and obtain relief. It was nature's own remedy that accomplished this cure caused by impure blood, for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are composed of vegetable remedies that exert a powerful influence in purifying and enriching the blood. Many diseased persons who have succumbed to the potent influence of these pills. This universal remedy is sold by all druggists.

BOILED DOWN.

The fight between Jack McClelland and Yock Henniger, which was pulled off at Carnegie, ended in the sixth round with Henniger virtually knocked out.

As a result of a conference it is announced that the long pending deal will be closed at Cincinnati by which the English syndicate secures thirteen Cincinnati breweries and two in Covington and Newport, Ky.; also two large malt houses in Cincinnati.

The Seventh regiment, Colonel Marcus Kavanaugh commanding, was mustered out of the volunteer service of the United States yesterday.

The city council of Pana, Ill., by a vote of 7 to 2, reinstated the old police force whom Mayor Warren Fenwell, son of Operator George N. Fenwell, removed October 1 on account of their sympathy with union miners.

The committee on procedure of the industrial commission at Washington, D. C., adjourned until November 11, when they will complete their report on the question regarding the scope and plan of the work to be carried on by the commission.

ANIARDS IGNORE ORDER

BLANCO SNUBS OUR AMERICAN COMMISSION.

Commissioners Declare They Are as Powerless as Three Little School Boys and Want Uncle Sam to Do Something.

Havana, Cuba.—(Special)—(Via Key West.)—Through no weakness or mistake of its own, the American commission occupies a position humiliating to the extreme. It has made several demands upon the Spanish authorities only to have them ignored.

As cabled some time ago, General Blanco advertised an auction sale of brass and bronze cannon. This was due to the attention of the American commission, who sent a peremptory note forbidding the sale.

General Butler instructed his aide Captain Frocke, to investigate. The latter reported that many of the canons offered for sale were 200 years old and because of their peculiar pattern and the intricate etching upon them, of considerable value.

Though of obsolete type, these guns were in position, being mounted in the different fortifications about the city. There could be no question about the right of the United States to demand possession by right of conquest, but the sale was held as advertised and the guns brought a trifling less than $100,000.

The Americans asked for a description of the property to be sold, and were told it was nothing but old junk. Captain Brooks succeeded in obtaining a copy of the list and found some of the canons were of twelve-inch caliber, while more than a score were of eight-inch caliber.

Captain Brooks attended the sale by order of General Butler and took copious notes of the proceedings, which will be embodied in a report to Washington. It is still hoped the sale may be set aside.

Captain Brooks also learned that the military machine shop was being partially dismantled. The costliest shafting and the latest pattern of lathes were being packed for shipment to Spain.

Another matter that has been annoying to the commission is the calm manner in which the protest against the remounting of guns from the Alfonso XII was ignored. General Wade announced to General Blanco that those guns originally belonged to the cruiser Alfonso XII, having once been used in the defense of Havana, they became part of these defenses and must accordingly be turned over to the United States.

The Spanish commission communicated with Madrid and received a reply that this was a matter for discussion by the Paris commission, and that it in no manner concerned the commission appointed to arrange for the evacuation of Cuba. Since then the work of replacing the cannon of the Alfonso XII has proceeded without interruption, though frequent protests have been made by General Wade, Admiral Sampson and General Butler.

One of the commissioners said:

"Unless we have authority and power to back up our demands we are of no more use in Havana than three school boys would be. We tell the Spaniards what should be done and they proceed as they please.

"If I had my way I would bring down parades and take possession of the custom house and other branches of the government.

"The sooner the Spanish soldiers leave the sooner Cuba will be rid of the yellow fever epidemic. In the wooden barracks in Regia over 400 soldiers died last week. There exists there all sorts of fever."

CLAIMS A BROKEN AGREEMENT

Agoncillo Makes Statement Which General Merritt Denies.

London.—(Special)—The Globe publishes an interview which a correspondent had with Agoncillo, the representative of Aguinaldo, before the former left Hong Kong for San Francisco on his way to Washington and Paris to present the insurgent leader's views, if possible, before the United States peace commission at the French capital.

Agoncillo, in this interview, is quoted as declaring that the insurgents had a formal agreement with Rear Admiral Dewey, whereby absolute freedom was promised them in return for their assistance. When Agoncillo was asked if the agreement was in writing, he said: "No, we do not regard the United States as a grasping power and felt that a verbal agreement was quite sufficient."

Major General Wesley Merritt disclaims the statement attributed to Agoncillo by the Globe's correspondent at Hong Kong. General Merritt said that from conversations he had with Admiral Dewey he was satisfied that no agreement had been entered into with the Philippine leaders. The general added:

"If the Filipinos were allowed independence now it would result in fighting between the leaders, which would be more disastrous than any revolution which has hitherto broken out. Aguinaldo's following is sim, and if there were an election today I do not believe we would be chosen as president."

Fair Tenant—How is it there is no hot water in my room?

Janitor—I can't let it run up to the fourth floor.

Fair Tenant—Why not?

Janitor—It might get overheated.

A man was sitting in a restaurant eating oysters. In came an Irishman and said: "I'll bet a dime that O'Connor eat oysters faster than yes can open them."

"Done!" said the shell cracker.

At the end of an hour the man had opened seventy-five oysters, but the Irishman had only been able to eat sixty-five.

Getting up with difficulty, the Irishman said: "Yes win," laid down a dime and walked out.
