SATURDAY, NOV. 5, 1898.

The voters of the Third district will make no mistake in electing George Towle to the commission. Mr. Towle is a man eminently qualified by both experience and ability to fill the office, and is spoken of most highly by republicans as well as democrats and populists. He has made a thorough canvass of the district, and the reception he has met with at the hands of the electors gives him every reason to believe that his majority will be a handsome one.

It is a dattering tribute to the intelligence and integrity of Fred Gorder that, though he is a democrat, he has on different occasions been elected mayor of Weeping Water, which is an overwhelmingly republican town. That where he is best known he is most highly esteemed, and that nearly every one of his acquaintances is his friend. He will receive a large republican vote in the west end, and if the democrats and populists in the east end stand by him, as they certainly should, his majority will be a record breaker.

The News accuses THE JOURNAL of making a "bitter, malignant and untruthful campaign" against Mr. Newell. The accusation is false. When a man comes before the people asking for political preferment, he must stand upon his record. His future course can only be judged by the past. The voters have a right to know what that past record is and THE JOURNAL has merely done its duty toward the electors of the county in laying Newell's record before them. There has not been one untruthful charge made against him. All have been amply proven.

THE POST takes THE JOURNAL to task for stating that Pollard and Young voted against the stock yards bill. This is just what THE JOURNAL has been waiting for, as it furnishes an opportunity for showing these gentlemen and their attitude toward that bill up in their true light. It is true that they did not actually vote against the bill when it came up for final passage, they were too smooth for that, but they antagonized it all the way through until the final vote came, voting and working against it from the time of its introduction until it became plainly apparent that it could not be killed, when they fell into line and gave it votes which, if they could have been of any benefit to the other side, would undoubtedly have been cast that way. Do the people of Cass county want such double-dealers to represent them in the legislature again?

THE POST seems to have funny ideas as to the manner in which United States senators are elected. In Thursday evening's issue the above mentioned paper mentions the good qualities of Mr. Burkett, republican candidate for congress, and says: "Knowing this, his ability and fitness for the office of congressman, and the opportunity he will have for helping in the election of a United States senator, all republicans should give him loyal support." Just how a congressman is supposed to assist in the election of a United States senator, THE JOURNAL is at a loss to understand, and has in vain sought information on the subject from people who were supposed to be well informed. Some hesitancy was felt about calling THE POST down on the matter, but this is about the third time it has been sprung, and THE JOURNAL could resist the temptation no longer.

CHARGES ALL PROVEN.
The campaign is now practically at a close, and THE JOURNAL desires to call the attention of the voters of the county to the manner in which it has proven the absolute unfitness of Wm. H. Newell to represent them in any public office.

In the first place, it charged that Newell and his partner, through connivance with the notoriously corrupt Bill Dorgan, robbed the people of Nebraska of thousands and thousands of dollars on that famous cell house deal. This Newell denied, and THE JOURNAL proved that it was true.

It charged that Newell was the ring leader in the conspiracy to plunder the taxpayers of the county of $750 through the fake county fair and that he is one of the directors of the society. This Newell denied and THE JOURNAL proved that it was true.

It charged that Newell, while mayor of Plattsmouth, knew that a genuine finish prize fight was to take place here and that he gave a gentleman a ticket of admission to the same. His chief of police was there, and though the fight was so fierce that one of the contestants was killed it was allowed to go on, and the county was compelled to expend $1,500 in the trial of two murder cases. Newell denied that he knew that it was to be a prize fight or that he had a ticket and THE JOURNAL proved his denial to be false.

THE JOURNAL charged that the workmen at Newell's Cedar Creek quarries were compelled to go out on a strike last June in order to get the same wages for their labor that was being paid in adjoining quarries. This was also denied by Newell and proven to be true by THE JOURNAL. In short every charge made against the plugged size candidate has at first been denied by him and afterwards proven by THE JOURNAL to be absolutely true.

This being the case, it is impossible to believe that the voters of Cass county, the vast majority of whom are honest men, will cast their ballots for Mr. Newell. He has been shown beyond the possibility of a doubt, to be a man in every manner unworthy of a public trust—one who will prostitute the public interest to his own private lust for gain—one who, while chief executive of a municipality and the moral courage to insist upon the enforcement of the criminal law, and one whose disregard for the working classes is so great as to involve him in wage controversies with his employees, who must perforce strike in order to obtain fair pay for their work.

This is William H. Newell, republican candidate for state senator. Do you want such a man to make laws for you?

CHICKENS COME HOME TO ROOST.
The poor, puny pusillanimous little pirate who daily and semi-weekly insults the intelligence of the people of Cass county by inflicting upon them a bulldozing personal organ which he is pleased to misname The News, jumps onto the Nebraska City News because the latter paper is opposed to the annexation of the Philippines. This blushing buccaneer, who is so hidebound that he cannot raise his chin from his breast bone, and who is so narrow that he can gaze with both optics at once through the eye of a cambric needle, virtually accuses all who oppose the president's plan of expansion, of treason, and then says "we are thankful that they all belong to the democratic party, which has never made a very enviable record for patriotism since it fired on Ft. Sumpter."

Let us see if they all belong to the democratic party. The Omaha Bee, the leading republican paper of the state, has been a consistent opponent of expansion. Andrew Carnegie, who has written columns of republican gospel and who has contributed hundreds of thousands of dollars to republican campaign funds, is warning the people against the dire results which will follow territorial extension. The republican state convention of Massachusetts has declared against the policy which is being pursued by the administration, and there are many more, among them being THE PLATTSMOUTH NEWS, for in its issue of May 10, 1898, is to be found the following editorial:

What about the Philippine Islands? Well, THE NEWS says, drop them as soon as the bloody war is over. The inhabitants are not fit for self government. We have no moral right to hold them, that money may be squeezed from the unfortunates claiming those islands as a home. It will be a sorry day when this nation, forgetting the fundamental principles underlying its existence and urged on by the lust of conquest, shall turn this war from one in the interests of humanity into one of conquest. The voice of America will be all powerful in the future, but tenfold must it be when the lessons of this war will teach the world that the United States mean what they say when the voice of the nation finds expression in the solemn declaration of its congress and president.

If the above was true in May why is it not equally true now? Can the people want any better proof than the above that the thinking for the republican newspapers is done at republican headquarters?

NO DEMOCRAT in the county should fail to cast his vote for James P. Rouse for representative. It is a duty he owes to himself and his party. Mr. Rouse is the only populist on the county ticket, and he is certainly worthy of the support of all conscientious electors. He is intelligent, honest and energetic and would make an ideal representative and one who could be relied upon to stand up for the interests of the people at all times and under all circumstances. The populists are giving their united support to the democratic nominees—let the democrats do the same by Mr. Rouse.

THE TAXPAYERS are interested in having in the office of county attorney a lawyer of recognized ability and one who will look after their interests in a conscientious and faithful manner. Such a man is D. O. Dwyer, the fusion nominee. His ability and integrity have never been questioned, and there is no reason why he should not receive the vote of every man who desires that the legal affairs of the county should be in competent hands.
