

REORGANIZING THE GUARD

ADJUTANT GENERAL BARRY STARTS THE MOVE.

Companies of the New Regiments Will Be at the Same Points as the Old.

Lincoln, Neb.—(Special)—There has been considerable interest throughout the state over the reorganization of the Nebraska national guard, which broken up, so far as the two infantries were concerned, by the call for United States service troops.

The First and Second regiments of the Nebraska national guard, which were broken up, so far as the two infantries were concerned, by the call for United States service troops.

Adjutant General Barry, who is in charge of the reorganization, has been busy for some time past in making arrangements for the new regiments.

It is understood that the new regiments will be organized on the same basis as the old ones, and that the companies will be at the same points as before.

SATURDAY, NOV. 26, 1898.

DURING his one term in the senate William V. Allen established himself as the most influential member of that body. This is a fact that cannot be gainsaid. Watch his successor, be it Thompson, Hayward, Rosewater or Webster, and note the contrast.

DON'T forget that over $700 is paid out in this county yearly to aid a coterie of leeches who pretend to hold a county fair, and that in addition to this a big bag of boodle is pulled out of the state treasury by that big fake, the state fair managers. This money comes out of your pockets and you receive nothing in return. Urge upon your representatives in the legislature the necessity of an immediate repeal of the fair subsidy law.

WHAT good on earth is this peace commission, anyway? All it seems to be doing is telling the Spaniards that we're going to take all the islands they have and that if they don't submit peacefully they'll have their little old peninsula blown into the Mediterranean sea. Why couldn't all of this have been put into the protocol? But then this would have obviated the spending of a few hundred thousands of public money and if this money isn't used up there might be no chance to issue that other $200,000,000 of government bonds.

NEVER was more sublime nerve exhibited at any place by any body than "that show" by the mouthy young egotist of Nebraska who aspires to the speakership of the house of representatives. With nothing to recommend him except his adamant cheek and a flux of words, he would place himself ahead of men of experience and ability who have fought the battles of their party for years and who are in every way better fitted for speaker than he. His friends should see that at his cranium is encircled with a strong iron band, before it swells to bursting.

The appointment by Attorney General Smyth of W. D. Oldham of Kearney to be assistant attorney general, vice E. P. Smith, resigned, is an action that will meet with the general approval of the people of the state, regardless of party. Mr. Oldham, while an old line democrat, and a veteran in the battle for honest government, is by reason of his general manner and fairness to all, a general favorite with all who know him. He is a lawyer of unquestioned ability and an orator with few superiors in Nebraska. Smyth and Oldham will make a team that will be hard to beat.

J. STERLING MORTON is going to Philadelphia next 4th of July, and in Independence Hall he will organize himself into a new party, says The Central City Democrat. He will call his new political baby the Conservative party. If his Conservative party doesn't make any more noise in the world than his "Conservative" newspaper, it had better die a-borning. The new party will have a platform of principles which will be dug up from the moldering dust of the imperial business interest which will appear on the political igniter the picture of a parrot, that he keys. O, give for the defeat any more party, but also for stay dead?

But Briggs is no lordinger camp. Benedict Arnew politician had he had bet'no longer and My Low has at h' want the republicans. Mr. Morton, why ed?

regiment will be ordered back to the states, and that he, as well as the other Plattsmouth boys, will be with us "when the roses bloom again."
