Manley

MISS LILLIAN TIGHE, EDITOR.

Mrs. Clint Andrews left Tuesday for two weeks' visit in South Dakota. She was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Charles Andrews, as far as Sioux City.

Mrs. Theodore Harms went to Lorton Wednesday evening, where she will pass a few days visiting a sister.

Mr. Bonemeier, west of Manley, has his fine new barn nearly completed. It is built with a roomy basement for stock, and ample capacity for hay and grain above.

A carload of lumber arrived in Manley recently for the erection of a Woodman hall, which is to be built soon.

Mrs. Will Bouton went to Lincoln last week, to take treatment at the hospital there. She has been ill several months with a serious lung trouble, and it is hoped that she will return restored to health.

Corn still continues to pour into this market. John Tighe took in ninety-nine loads of corn Monday and thirty-two loads Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stander and Mrs. George Kelly spent Decoration day in Plattsmouth.

Rev. Fr. Feeney of Auburn spent Sunday at College Hill, the guest of Rev. Fr. Hennessey.

Half the farmers in this vicinity are resisting corn—as a result of unfavorable weather.

John Murphy and William Stohlmann were Plattsmouth visitors last week.

Ice cream and cake are served every Saturday evening in Manley for the benefit of the church fund. A neat sum was netted last Saturday evening.

Dr. P. D. Fahrney of Frederick, Md., with his wife and child, and G. W. Keedy and wife of Hutchinson, Kans., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Keedy.

Mr. Tabor, who recently underwent an operation for cancer, is regaining health and strength.

Last week Fred Fleishman, Manley's enterprising young barber, cleaned and fitted out the old storeroom, near the depot, for a barber shop. Saturday morning he opened up and all day did a thriving business, gathering in dimes and quarters. But the venture proved a failure, and Monday morning bright and early he removed his shop fixtures in a wheelbarrow, closed the shop and went to Louisville to ply his trade. We have it from reliable authority that he will be absent from Manley at least three days.

An interesting program is in course of preparation for Children's Day—next Sunday—to be rendered at the church in Manley.

Web Keedy, the Plattsmouth photographer, made a brief visit with his parents last week.

A number of the Manley Knights of Pythias went to Louisville Monday to attend a lodge meeting there.

As the days go by and not a rain-cloud appears in the heavens, farmers are beginning to look anxious. The situation is certainly verging on the serious, and the tender corn plants, just above the ground, are commencing to show the need of moisture.

James Murphy came near losing his fine large barn one day this week. He was shelling out a crib of corn, when sparks from the engine set fire to a pile of corn husks close by the barn. Prompt action kept the flames from spreading, but several of the men had their hands burned while putting out the fire.

Fred Ronne was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.

P. Hays spent a few days last week with his daughter, Mrs. John Murphy.

Murdock

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Matt Spader has just finished his assessment of the property of Elmwood precinct, his lists showing a total valuation of $225,601 for this precinct—a showing of wealth which we have reason to believe cannot be equalled by any other precinct in the county.

Within a couple of weeks Mr. Spader will start for his old home in Treves, Germany, there to visit his old mother, whom he left twenty years ago and has not since seen. He expects to remain two months—possibly longer.

Nick Halmes of Plattsmouth precinct is a native of the same place in the old country, and Mr. Spader has been attempting to prevail upon him to accompany him on the trip, that they may visit old familiar scenes together. Spader's mother is nearly 80 years old, yet she never misses a month in writing to her dear boy in the great far-away America. He has not yet apprised her of his intended visit, but will write her by the next steamer, for fear his unannounced appearance might prove too much of a shock to her.

Mynard

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

C. C. Spangler went to Plattsmouth Tuesday on business.

The farmers' ereabouts have about completed the delivery of their corn to market.

Rain and warmer weather would improve crop conditions.

Maple Grove.

Special Correspondence.

Messrs. Lindsey & Son of Murray began laying the stone foundation for a new and extensive barn for Wm. Puls last Friday.

Quite a number of people from this vicinity went to Plattsmouth last Saturday.

Henry Wenke shipped a car load of fat cattle to South Omaha Monday.

Benj. Dill jr. and Wenke Bros. have gone into partnership and are shelling corn in this neighborhood.

A number of farmers began plowing corn Monday.

Reports are that Maple Grove is going to have a base ball nine again this summer.

Religious services at the Otterbein church were largely attended Sunday evening.

Fred Crosser, the Murray postmaster, put up a platform at W. Philpot's last Saturday for a dance.

Murray

(From our Special Correspondent.)

L. C. Todd is having two new wells bored.

Johnny Jenkins was thrown from his horse Tuesday, resulting in a serious fracture of the arm.

W. C. Nye has completed the assessing of Rock Bluffs precinct, both districts.

Jack Shaw is building a new barn for Jim Terryberry.

Dr. Gilmore's spirited team took the bits in their teeth Monday and ran, getting beyond his control and breaking his buggy badly.

Frank Kendall made Murray a visit Wednesday.

Harvey Manners has about completed the furnishing of the bath rooms in his barber shop.

Mr. Bowers, the Plattsmouth insurance agent was here Wednesday doing business in his line.

Fred Crosser and his father went to Omaha Tuesday, stopping at Plattsmouth enroute.

Since the creamery has changed hands it is operated daily instead of every other day.

The Endeavorers will give a social at the Presbyterian church tonight.

Col. Seybolt is a believer in expansion of the right sort, having built an addition to his house, which will be an added comfort to the inmates.

N. G. Thomas and family, from near Eight Mile Grove, have started for Oklahoma overland in covered wagons.

Ran Minford, Charles and William Philpot and Theo Bush shipped stock to the South Omaha market from here Tuesday.

Corn shelling and grain hauling is about over.

The Murray baseball nine crossed bats last Saturday with the Red Legs of Union. After a hot contest the game resulted in a tie—the score being 10 to 10.

George Wiles spent Tuesday at the county seat.

Rain is much needed throughout the county. The showers which have been generous along the river haven't extended far out.

Our good friend John Hostetter took time by the forelock Friday and drove over to the county-seat. There he met Fred Ronne from out near Manley, and the two put in an enjoyable hour talking over old times.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Emma, the fifteen-year-old daughter of H. G. Van Horn, living near Culom, died Monday night of inflammation of the brain resulting from an abscess of the ear, of some eight years standing.

All that medical skill and science could do had been tried in vain by the fond parents.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, and the remains buried in the Oak Hill cemetery, Plattsmouth.

At the time of the young girl's demise there were present at her bedside the parents, two doctors, Mrs. Leonard Borne, who has helped nurse her constantly during her last illness, Mrs. Sam Thomas, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Goodwin, the Starkjohans and a number of other friends.

To all of the kind hearted and helpful friends Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn say they can never sufficiently express their appreciation and thanks for their ready assistance at a time when it was most needed.

Nehawka

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Ed Chappell, George Conrad, and J. W. Magney were all Plattsmouth visitors Tuesday.

Conrad and Chaffee each took up a load of wheat to exchange for the bolted and finished product.

William Case of Mt. Pleasant was a Plattsmouth visitor this week.

Lee Kirkpatrick ran down to Nebraska City last Friday.

J. E. Banning has been kept busy up at Weeping Water during the past week.

Chas Hall of Boone County has been visiting with friends here recently.

George Reynolds and W. E. Cudy were recently elected noble grand and vice grand respectively of the Odd Fellows.

H. F. Kropp, our assessor having completed his work filed his lists with the county clerk at Plattsmouth Friday. He was accompanied to the county seat by Lee Pollard, who went up on personal business.

Union

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Miss Emma Edwards closed her school here last Friday. Much to the regret of all, Miss Edwards will not return next year, she having accepted a position as teacher in the Plattsmouth high schools—Miss Edwards although here but nine months, has made herself a general favorite both among the young and old.

Messrs. Becker and Thacker each shipped a carload of fat cattle here Tuesday.

The Red Legs—the local ball team—has not won many games thus far this season, but they are practising and will be heard from later.

Avoca

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Henry Behrens has finished his round of assessing and Wednesday with his books and lists and wife, set out early in the morning and drove to Plattsmouth to make his accounting with the county clerk—Mr. Behrens says that he noticed all along the road in his drive to the county seat the crying need for rain and a little warmer weather for the fields of corn.

An elaborate program has been prepared for the graduation exercises to be held at the Heepner school-house, Friday night of this week.

Memorial Services.

It was a fitting tribute that was paid to their soldier dead last Sunday by the members of the local post of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. at the Presbyterian church.

Revs. Baird, Sleeth, Nichols and Ploetz joined in conducting the impressive memorial services. The chorus under the direction of Miss Clara Street, and the Wescott quartet furnished the musical numbers of the program.

Odd Fellows Consolidate.

Tuesday was a great night among the Odd Fellows of Plattsmouth, for it witnessed the consolidation of the two local lodges, Platte No. 7, organized away back in the '50s, and Cass No. 146, organized early in 1880. The consolidation gives Platte lodge about double its former membership.

The election of officers resulted in the choosing of A. W. Hagar for Noble Grand, Frank Buttery for Vice Grand, P. C. Hansen Secretary, H. J. Streight Treasurer, J. Nejedly Warden, Fred Scherner O. G., G. B. Craig I. G., and Messrs. Hunger, Anderson, Steimker, Fetzer, Corey, Dodge and Larsen, Trustees.

Grand Master P. C. Johnson of Beatrice was present and installed the newly-elected officers, but before this ceremony took place the ladies of the Rebekah lodge served a dainty luncheon which was the more appreciated on account of the appetites sharpened by the lateness of the hour.

Printers Celebrate.

Thursday being a generally observed holiday, and the printer man believing that he as much as any one was entitled to a share, to some measure, at least, of the enjoyment of the day, accounts for the appearance of the Journal one day later than usual this week.

District Court News.

James Patterson jr. vs. A. J. Johnson. Cause dismissed at cost of defendant.

C. E. Mockenaupt vs. R. T. Rochford et al. Ordered that notice be served on all parties by publication, to show cause within ten days why the receiver should not be discharged and his accounts balanced.

County of Cass vs. Mary Fitzgerald et al. Motion for new trial overruled.

The trial of the tax foreclosure case of Emma F. Walker vs. Mary Fitzgerald et al. was completed Tuesday and submitted to court.

Court adjourned for the term Wednesday.

LOCAL NEWS.

Louie Olsen has taken the bowling fever and put an alley in his billiard hall.

Julius Pepperberg made a shipment of 13,000 of his famous Buds cigars to a single house at Nebraska City, last Saturday.

The principal trouble the sprinkler man seems to have to keep his watering tank full is that the darned thing leaks too much.

D. C. West, the cashier of the Nehawka bank and Lester Stone, the Nehawka druggist, were in the city on business Monday.

Jim Sage, the liveryman last Friday added to his stock a fine black high-bred roaster, which he purchased near Malvern, Iowa. It is a perfect beauty.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock the box office of the Parme theatre will open for the sale of tickets to the Commencement exercises of the high school graduating class. The prices are: gallery 15, balcony 20, lower floor 25 cents.

The June rise is on the river, and for a month there will be a good boating stage of water. A 20-foot rise in the South Platte was reported a week ago at Denver, but thus far the Platte at its mouth has shown no unusual height of water.

Invitations are out for a reception in honor of the city teachers at "Sunside," the home of the Wescotts, to be given by the members of the Winslow Memorial Women's Christian Temperance Union, Tuesday evening, June 4, from 7 until 10 o'clock.

Reverend Doctor Baird will deliver the baccalaureate address to the high school graduates in a union service to be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. The public in general is cordially invited to attend. An excellent musical program has been prepared for the occasion.

Last Saturday night at Sokol hall the Cigarmaker's Union gave its annual grand ball, a most enjoyable affair, which was largely attended and which, in a financial way, netted the smoke-makers quite a neat sum for the defraying of the current expenses of their organization.

The high school graduating class of thirty-six members is far the largest that has ever been turned out of the Plattsmouth high school. The number speaks well not only for the school but for the people, the parents who make a practice of sending their children to school instead of putting them to hard work at a tender age, and the boys and girls who prefer study and diligent application to playing "hooky."

Memorial day was generally observed in Plattsmouth, although by various persons in widely varying ways. The shops gave the men a rest, the stores closed at noon, and everyone was free to celebrate the day as he pleased. The customary memorial services were held in White's hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Rev. Sleeth, Rev. John Foster of Springfield, Sary county, and the Wescott quartet were among those who contributed to the general excellence of the program.

OSCAR THOMAS KILLED.

Plattsmouth Painter's Fatal Fall At Omaha Depot.

J. O. Thomas, of Plattsmouth, a painter in the employ of the Burlington, fell from a ladder at the Omaha depot of the company Thursday afternoon and was instantly killed. The unfortunate man had been engaged in painting the lamp posts which stand along the border of the drive way south of the depot and at the time of his death was painting the one nearest the station, from which point to the stone pavement of the depot drive way the distance is about 35 feet.

The ladder slipped in some unexplained manner, and Thomas was thrown to the pavement. He struck the ground upon his face, with his right arm under his body. The skull and many of the bones of the body were fractured the ribs broken and the skull and features of the victim mangled beyond recognition. The body was taken to the morgue and sent here the following day for burial.

Thomas had lived here for a number of years. He leaves a wife and four children. He was a member of the A.O.U.W., and for some time had belonged to the Woodmen but of late he had allowed his membership in this organization to lapse.

The Gut Heil cigars are the best smokers on the market—Wurl manufactures them.

Biliousness is a condition characterized by a disturbance of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a loathing of food, pains in the bowels, dizziness, coated tongue and vomiting, first of the undigested or partly digested food and then of bile. Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets allay the disturbances of the stomach and create a healthy appetite. They also tone up the liver to a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be much pleased with the result. For sale by all druggists.
