MISS LILLIAN TIGHE, EDITOR.

Shortly before noon, last Saturday, fire broke out in the dwelling house of of Manley. The fire started from a defective flue, and before it was discovered the whole upper part of the ing had a very enjoyable time of it. house was in flames. Mr. Koehler, at work in a field some distance away, day. saw the flames bursting out through the roof, and hurried home, reaching there in time to help his wife in getting out a little of the furniture. Neighbors arrived quickly, but the fire had gained such headway that they were unable to render any assistance. Besides the house the cob and smoke houses, nearly new, were destroyed; also a new wagon, which happened to be standing between the buildings. Attempts were made to save the vehicle, but the brake was set and it had to Plattsmouth. As far as we know to move it, or to pull the wagon away hooked by any bulls or things. Mr. ings were totally lost. The property known representative citizens in this belonged to Fritz Wagner, and was part of the country. He came here in uninsured. The Koehler family lost 1856, and settled soon after upon the ing the progress of the work on the all their household goods, clothing, etc. Seventy-five or a hundred young chickens, which were cooped up near the house-were also included in the loss.
