GOV. STONE'S VIEWS.

The Present Political Situation Disastrous for Democrats.

SEDALIA, Mo., Nov. 25.—In a long letter to a leading Democrat of this city, Governor Stone says: "Just three years ago the Presidential election was won. The prospects of the Democratic party, as they then appeared, had not been so bright for over thirty years. We had won the Presidency, both houses of Congress and the governments of two-thirds of the States.
 We were victorious, hopeful and confident. Within six months the party went into warring factions from one ocean to the other. At the next election held in 1894, we were overthrown in three-fourths of the states, losing several considered reliably Democratic, and having our supremacy threatened in others heretofore esteemed impregnable. The disasters of last year were repeated in the elections of the present month. Two and a half years ago we were a compact, disciplined, victorious party; to-day we are little better than a disorganized, discomfited, disorderly mob."

As for the cause for what he terms "this amazing metamorphosis," the governor says: "You know the cause and I know it. There can be but one explanation. The undemocratic financial policies of the administration are almost wholly responsible for our misfortunes. When Mr. Cleveland deliberately put the tariff issue, upon which he had been elected, behind him, and, within three or four months after his installation, assembled congress in special session for the single purpose of repealing the only law on the statute books authorizing the coinage of silver, his party halted at once, and looked on in amazement.
 And then, when he went still further, and sought to coerce the party into abandoning the policies it had long advocated, thereby stultifying itself and adopting in their stead, and as its own, policies it had stubbornly opposed, thereby exalting what it had condemned, surprise gave way to revolt and resistance; resistance provoked conflict, and out of that came confusion, disorganization and defeat."

To avert defeat in 1896, the governor insists that the Democratic party must repudiate Clevelandism and come out squarely for free coinage.

On the subject of harmony the governor says: "I am for harmony, too.
 I am as sincerely anxious for harmony and success as any Democrat in the state, and am more than willing to make sacrifices to secure them. But if harmony means that I am to doff my democracy and put on the livery of the plutocrat, I object. If the alternative offered be the abandonment of party principle or the affliction of party defeat; if I must surrender in the open field or be shot from ambush, why, then I prefer to stand by the old flag. If defeat should come, we would at least preserve not only our party organization but our party faith and honor. Rid of those who would betray if they cannot debate, the old party would rise from the ashes of defeat nobler, braver and stronger than before still the unrepentant and uncorrupted champion of good government, of popular rights. But if we are brave and steadfast there will be no defeat, either in convention or at the polls."

CAMPOS TO AMERICA.

The Cuban Captain General Shows Why Rebels Should Not Be Recognized.

New York, Nov. 26.—The World publishes a special cable from Santa Clara, Cuba, signed by Martinez de Campos, governor general of Cuba. He says among other things: "I think the Cuban belligerents' position at present gives them no claim on the United States for recognition. There is an active rebellion in Cuba, but the insurgents hold no seaport, no interior town. There are numerous villages named on the map which consist of five or ten huts. Sometimes the insurgents remain for a period of time in one of the hamlets. When I send a column of troops to it they disappear. In the wild, pathless country that exists in the only district in which they operate, the great North American soldier, General Grant, slyly covered the subject of the recognition of the belligerency of the rebels in the former revolution. He stated in a public document, with which I am familiar, that there were no grounds for him to recognize Cuban belligerency when the people who sought recognition held no port or town. President Grant created a precedent, and I hear now from Madrid that the government does not anticipate any over acts of unfriendliness on the part of the United States."

DESPERADOES THWARTED.

Two Plans of Robbers to Break From Platte City's Jail Failed.

PLATTE CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—Some days ago Charles Keuss, Charles Riney and Lewis Wright, confined in jail here for robbing Burlington freight cars at Beverly, were caught pouring coals on the floor of the cell to heat the rock, proposing then to break it with cold water. The sheriff was notified by the prisoners and frustrated the scheme.

Last night the three men suspected one of the prisoners of reporting on them and made him go into an upper cell. Then they began to make a noise to attract the attention of the sheriff. One of them stood at the door with a fire shovel ready to strike Sheriff Berry as he entered, but one of the prisoners called out to him not to come in alone, as the desperades were waiting for him. The sheriff then called in Deputy Dillingham and they entered and put the three men in their cells.

Hannibal Depot at St. Joe Burned.
 St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 26.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the old Hannibal and St. Joseph freight depot at Seventh and Olive streets. The structure, which was 600 feet long, was soon consumed, along with eleven cars of the Missouri Pacific road and seven cars of the Burlington road. A large quantity of goods in the cars and in the structure was destroyed. The Missouri Pacific had the depot rented. The loss to the Missouri Pacific will be about $15,000 and to the Burlington about $20,000, partially covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

EDUCATORS OF NEBRASKA.

Prospectus of the State Teachers' Association Meeting.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26.—The annual meeting of the Nebraska State Teachers' association will take place in Lincoln, beginning December 31, and continuing three days. Arrangements have been completed for the entertainment of delegates and members at the hotels at reduced rates, and one and one-third rates have been granted by the railroads. Aside from these inducements, a most attractive program has been completed, embracing a wide range of topics of prime interest to educators. Special lectures will be delivered by Dr. Nicholas Murray, president of the National Educational association; Colonel Francis W. Parker, a prominent educator; William Haw-sey Smith, teacher, lecturer and humorist, and a special paper on "The Relation of the Public Library to the Public School," by Miss Margaret G.
 O'Brien of the Omaha public library.
 In connection with the general convention there will be a meeting of the Nebraska Library association, organized last spring, and of the State Board of Examiners, which will conduct an examination for professional state certificates. The educational council meets in University hall on the evening preceding the convention, at which reports will be received from committees on country schools, school legislation and high schools.

A RECOUNT IN FURNAS.

Not a Cheering Outlook for Judge Welty's Majority of Two.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26.—Judges of the supreme court met yesterday and disposed of the election contest of Judge Alfred Bartow of Chadron, who demanded a writ of mandamus requiring a canvass of votes in Chadron precinct. The writ was denied after evidence was submitted by C. A. Rabbins of this city. This action gives W.
 H. Westover a clear title to the office of judge of the Fifteenth judicial district. He was elected by a majority of eleven and Judge Bartow claimed that a recount would show that he was really elected.

Argument was heard by the court in the Welty-Norris case of Furnas county. The referee's report showed that the poll book which was opened had been changed from 40 to 46. There was evidence showing that the tally list had been increased by one mark, making 41 tallies. Charges of fraud were withdrawn by Welty's attorneys and counsel for Norris consented to the issuance of a writ of mandamus. The court issued an order for a canvass of the entire county.

A NEW CAVE MYSTERY.

Two Hunters Near Chadron Unearth a Human Skeleton.

CHADRON, Neb., Nov. 26.—Another cave mystery is agitating the residents of this city, some days ago, while out on a hunting expedition, Vincent Killen and George Woods, two railroad men started a jack rabbit and chased him into a hole. In trying to get him out the two men unearthed what appeared to be a skeleton. Closer investigation demonstrated beyond a doubt that it was the skeleton of a human being. As the hour was late and the discoverers were somewhat frightened by their gruesome discovery, they did not investigate further. Both men were out of the city the next day, but upon his return, Killen went to the place to look for the skeleton and found that it had been removed, no one knows by whom. The matter will be more thoroughly investigated at once, and many think that it will furnish a clue to some of the peculiar things that have happened in this vicinity in the past.

DELEGATES ARRIVING.

Many Members of the Trans-Mississippi Congress Not Assembled.

OMAHA, Nov. 26.—The Trans-Mississippi congress convened yesterday morning at Creighton hall. I. W. Carpenter welcomed the delegates in behalf of the business men of Omaha.
 Mayor Beemis offered them the freedom of the city; and Governor Holcomb in behalf of the state. Ex-Governor Prince of New Mexico responded to the welcome addresses. Preliminaries occupied most of the morning and afternoon. The election of officers will be the first order of business this morning. In view of the fact that but few of the delegates are on the ground it is not likely that the convention will adjourn before Saturday.

He Is Discharged.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 26.—Isaac Eaton, a young man who lives twelve miles north of Beatrice, was on trial yesterday in Judge Entow's court on a charge of rape made by Geo. Callett, whose thirteen year old daughter was the alleged victim. The girl was put on the witness stand, but gave little evidence of a satisfactory nature. The hearing was quite extensive, the court appealing to three physicians, who examined the girl. Their testimony was that she had been mistreated, but that it may have been the result of other acts than rape. The young man was discharged by the court.

Opening of State Library.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26.—The Chancellor and regents and faculty of the university of Nebraska invite all the citizens of the state to be present at the opening of the new library building on Tuesday evening, December 10.
 The building will be illuminated, and attendants will be present to make the inspection of interest to every person.
 It is believed that there is no state building equal to it in economy and thoroughness of construction.
