ORIGIN OF THE HOT TOMALE Micky Explains to Snag Finnerty the Genesis of the Name.

Snag Finnerty was a lad with a philo sophical mind and a broken tooth, says New York World. It was this "busted toot," as he called it, that gave him this pretty little pet name of "Snag." They were standing on a corner one day houses and residences being elaboratewhen a hot tomale man passed. "; wonder," said Snag, "whatever made every description. There were over em call dem tings tomales?" "Don'l 10,000 people on the grounds, four you know?" asked Micky. "Naw! Not bands to furnish music, and a splendid you don't needer." "Yes, I does, and I'll tell yer if yer wants to know. D'yt know Cully Flynn?" "Yep!" "Well met and shook hands and reviewed the know Cully Flynn?" "Yep!" #### BICYCLE ETIQUTTE.

An authority on bicycle etiquette lays down the following rules: "In mounting, the gentleman who is accompanyng a lady holds her wheel; she stands on the left side of the machine and puts her right foot across the frame on the right pedal, which at the time must be up; pushing the right pedal causes the machine to start and then, with the left Twenty-Fifth Anniversary ot the Takfoot in place, the rider starts aheadslowly at first, in order to give her cavalier time to mount his wheel, which he will do in the briefest time possible. When the end of the ride is reached the man quickly dismounts and is at his companion's side to assist her, she, in the meantime, assisting herself as much as possible. This is done -that is, dismounting-in the most approved style by riding slowly and when the left pedal is on the rise the weight of the body is thrown on it, the right foot is crossed over the frame of the machine and with an assisting hand the rider can easily step to the ground.

Anniversary of the Battle Commemorated

by Both Sides.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Sept. 23 .- Despite the dust and the heat, the thirtyfourth anniversary of the battle of Lexington passed off brilliantly. The town wore a gala dress, business ly decorated, as well as vehicles of thirty-four years which have passed since that memorable day when they sought to kill each other for a princisands of Chinese Students.

LONDON, Sept. 2 .- A paper here prints a dispatch from Hong Kong which says that at the annual examinations in Canton thousands of students were given copies of an imperial decree in which the doctrines of Christianity were fiercely condemned. The decree uses the following language: "A stupid, black-haired race is establishing sundry sects and they regard not their own lives, but pretend to rise again as immortal men and women. They congregate and, aban-doning chastity, behave like obscene birds and beasts. Faithful Confucians must shoot and stone and behead them without mercy. I, the emperor, com-mand the authorities to eradicate these weeds and vermin. Kill the ser-pents Throw them to the wolves and tigers, because there is no salvation for them, either against heaven-sent calamities or misfortunes caused by human agencies."

IN HONOR OF GARIBALDI.

ing of Rome Commemorated.

ROME, Sept. 25. - The fetes celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the entry of the Italian army into Rome, which began on the 14th inst., cul-minated yesterday in the ceremony of the unveiling of the monument of General Garibaldi on the Janiculum hill in the presence of the king, the royal family, the ministers, the deputations of veterans who served under Garibaldi.

The 50,000 people present displayed the utmost enthusiasm. The decorations of public and private buildings were of the most imposing and liberal the rider can easily step to the ground. In meeting a party of cyclists who are known to each other and desire to stop for a parley, it is considered the proper thing for the men of the party to disficial, who says that through the good ther. offices of the bond syndicate, promises have been secured from bankers in the principal cities of the country that in case of necessity they can be called upon to place up to $30,000,000 of gold in the treasury in exchange for legal tender. This important matter has been quietly negotiated by Messrs. Belmont and Morgan during the last fifteen days.

The reasons which have led to the action are varied, but all tend to the same end. On the part of the admin-istration it is recognized as good poli-tics to avoid another bond issue and throw the responsibility and necessity for remedial financial legislation upon the incoming congress. It was deter-mined by the president several months ago that there would be no bond issue until after the elections, as an issue previous thereto would have the effect of strengthening the hands of the free silver men and the Populists.

On the other side the syndicate wishes to avoid any action which would have the effect of checking the steadily increasing busines prosperity. The parties to the present voluntary combination for the protection of the treasury gold reserve are almost en-tirely within the list of banks that were allowed to participate in the handling of the last bond issue.

LAND FRAUDS CHARGED.

A Wyoming State Senator Warns Secre tary Smith to Investigate.

THE PRINCE OF WALES. Colonel Ross' Explanation of Where $75,000 of Indian Funds Went. WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 .- Colonel D. M. Ross, of Guthrie, Ok., spent five HE COMES TO THE FRONT IN A hours on the witness stand trying to tell what he did with the $75,000 he received from the secretary of the treasury on the well known $3,000,000 payment to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians for their shadow claim to the Cheyenne and Arapahoe lands in Oklahoma. Colonel Ross stated that he had paid $10,000 to one Colonel Parsons of Maryland, who has been a member of the state legislature and voted for Gorman, and who is generally believed to be the fine financial manipulator of Senator Gorman in certain western legislative mattera. This $10,000 he paid Parsons was for Parsons himself, as Colonol Ross stated. Then Colonel Ross says he set apart $10,000 for himself, and then he gave Sam Donaldson of Kentucky, who was supposed to have a financial lobby pull in the treasury, $5,000, and the remaining $50,000 he paid to Colonel Parsons in cash, and it is his understanding that Parsons paid it out

Will Bring Claims Against Hawall.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23 .- A number of men who were imprisoned by the Dole government during the rebellion in Hawali have organized for the purpose of gaining the assistance of their respective governments in an effort to obtain damages from the Hawaiian government. George Lycergius, who was imprisoned several months on a charge of treason and afterward set at liberty without a trial, passed through this city on the way to Washington, where he will lay the matter before the state department. From Washing-ton he will go to London, then to Paris and thence to Athens. At these points he will act as agent of members of members of each nationality now residing in Hawaii who have claims against the Hawaiian government.

Death of Mrs. Lizzle Ficklin.

CHABLESTON, Ill., Sept. 23.- Mrs. Lizzie Ficklin died at her home in this city last night, aged 66 years. She was a daughter of Senator W. T. Colquitt, and several years ago was a contributor to Harper's and Frank Leslie's weeklies. Her husband was Hon. Orlando B. Ficklin of Illinois, and she was a sister of ex-Governor and Senator Alfred Colquitt, who died at Washington last winter. During President Cleveland's first term Mrs. Ficklin was postmaster in this city.

RACE HORSE SCANDAL.

proaching a turf scandal has arisen on account of the extraordinary lightness of the handicap placed upon Florizel, owned by the prince of Wales. Immediately after the acceptance for the czarewitch stakes were published, 6 to 1 was freely taken on Florizel. One writer says that the only possible solution was a desire on the part of the handicapper to treat the prince of Wales leniently and that the horse would not have been thus favored if it belonged to any one else. King Leopold of Belgium has sold to Colonel North, the English "nitrate king," a mile of the sea front of Ostend for $1,500,000. It is said that Colonel North intends to found there an international sporting club, which will be the center for horse racing, glove fighting and athletics generally, with a theater, gambling rooms and public gardens.

It is said that Max Lebaudick, who inherited a fortune of $15,000,000 from his father, a sugar refiner, which he has been industriously trying to dissi-pate for some time, has fallen into the hands of the same English gang who preyed upon the late Squire Abington, the famous English sportsman. With the publication of the full correspondence between the Earl of Dunraven and the America's cup committee of the New York Yachting club and Mr. Iselin, a decided change of sentiment has come over the English yachtsmen. While it is impossible to alter the opinion which prevails among Englishmen in general that Valkyrie was beaten out of the America's cup by unfair means, there is reason to believe that authorities on yachting are not all disposed to indorse the course that has been pursued by Lord Dunraven. The most significant indication of this is Admiral Fitzgerald's letter to the Times condemning Lord Dunraven and praising Mr. Iselin for his offer to resail the races.

It now seems likely that the plan of giving to Lord Dunraven a public re-ception at Cardiff upon his return from New York, as well as the arrangements for an elaborate welcome of Valkyrie's owner, will be abandoned.

America Still Ahead. A couple of Englishmen en route for

Rome were joined by an American, whose blatant patriotism amused, then bored them. No matter what was admirable, rich or rare, there was always something in America to eclipse it, according to our countryman. The Britishers determined to teach the Yankee a lesson, and taking advantage of the chronic thirst of their companion they plied him with all the liquor that he could be induced to absorb, and then proposed a visit to the catacombs. Before they reached their destination they were obliged to guide his errant steps place. between them, and at length, overcome by drowsiness, the American begged to be left alone to lie down at his ease. When sounds as of discharge of musketry issued at regular intervals from the nose of the prostrate patriot, his companions concluded that he was dreaming of the Fourth of July, and would therefore be oblivious of anything nearer at hand. Producing a sheet, purloined from their hotel, and until now carefully concealed, they wrapped the sleeper like a mummy in its folds, and then left him to "do" the catacombs on their own account. Returning an hour later they found him still sleeping. One of them then drew from under his coat a tin fish horn and blew from it a blast that only elicited a grunt and produced a fluttering of the eyelids of the sleeper. A second blast, however, longer and louder, brought him to a sitting posture, with eyes wide open and senses alert. A moment of fall plowing is well under way.
