

DEATH OF BARON HIRSCH.

HEBREW PHILANTHROPIST SUCCESSORS TO HEART DISEASE.

HE GAVE AWAY MILLIONS.

Died the Possessor of a Colossal Fortune After Having Given Away $50,000,000 for Charities for His Race and for Christians - Established Colonies for the Oppressed.

VIENNA, April 22.—Baron Hirsch died of heart disease at his estate near Komorn this morning.

Baron Maurice Hirsch von Gerenths was born in 1840 in Bavaria, where his father, a rich merchant, who had rendered pecuniary assistance to the state, had been ennobled by the predecessor of the mad King Otho.

Meanwhile, Hirsch had improved his condition by marrying his rich partner's daughter and was able to embark on those philanthropic ventures by which he is best known to this country.

He is said to have given away more than 50 million dollars and then to have died the possessor of a colossal fortune. In 1889 he gave away 40 million dollars in a lump and said of the gift: "With the fortune which I have amassed I hope to raise from the slough of ignorance and despondency the most helpless, the most miserable race in Europe, the Jews of Russia, of Austria, and of Southeastern Europe."

I have consumed my share of the work, and 300,000,000 francs have been turned over to the central committee charged with the carrying out of my plans. I wish to have all the Jews baptized. I am the most unorthodox of Hebrews. Were my co-religionists to be baptized there would be an end to Semitism and anti-Semitism. I hate to speak of my deeds, but for fear you should think that I only give to my race I will mention that during the past two years I have given $10,000,000 to Christian schools and hospitals in Europe and England.

Baron Hirsch offered once to give $10,000,000 to endow schools in Russia, provided they should be open to all, irrespective of race or religion, but the czar rejected the proposition out of a desire to exclude Jews from the schools.

The late baron founded schools in Egypt, European and Asiatic Turkey and throughout the East. He gave $10,000,000 for instruction in Galicia, and in spite of the rejection of his Russian school proposition, spent $10,000,000 more in relieving the condition of the Russian Jews.

Twelve and a half million dollars was devoted to the assistance of the poor immigrants from Russia and Roumania upon their arrival in the United States. Hirsch's charities to American Hebrews amounted to $500,000. Miscellaneous charities footed up many millions more, but made little impression on a fortune that ran into the hundred millions.

Seven colonies for Jews and the oppressed of other races were established by Baron Hirsch in Buenos Ayres, Entre Rios, Santa Fe and Cordova in the Argentine Republic. In 1894 the colonists numbered 3,000 and had 18,000 acres under cultivation. The prediction that Jews would never go back to agriculture was falsified; they made good farmers.

Baron Hirsch was one of the most intimate friends of the Prince of Wales. It was supposed that the tie was of a mercenary character, at least so far as it affected the prince's attitude, but this has been denied. Wales' influence gained Hirsch a measure of social recognition, but the anti-Semitic prejudice is not extinct in England, and the baron was snubbed more than once. He was elected to membership in a number of select clubs, but in others he was black-balled.

The baron was a devoted lover of horses and in 1891, 1892 and 1893 won $210,000 on the turf. In those three years he devoted double the sum mentioned to charity.

The baron was a good shot and an all around sportsman. He visited the remote corners of the world in quest of big and rare game and many stories are told of his hunting exploits.

MILITIA AFTER A CIRCUS.

Kansas Troops Ordered Out Because of an Ugly Riot.

St. JOHN, Kan., April 22.—Bond Bros' circus, which had wintered at Wichita, came here yesterday with a large band of roughs and confidence men and the like. Several citizens were swindled, and an attempt was made to arrest one of the circus men, who resisted. A general fight ensued, the old circus war cry of "Hey, Rube!" summoning about 200 circus men, armed with canes, clubs and tent stakes. The handful of citizens were routed with broken heads and bleeding faces.

One of the citizens, Charles Glasscock, was struck over the head with a heavy tent stake, and little hope of his recovery is entertained, for he has not yet regained consciousness. Several other citizens were more or less wounded, but no others seriously. One of the circus gang was shot in the thigh and the thigh bone broken.

After the fight County Attorney Jennings telegraphed to Governor Morrill for militia and to the superintendent of the Santa Fe railroad for orders to hold the circus train at this place. He received a return message from the governor about midnight stating that the troops would be ordered out immediately. The superintendent would not give orders to hold the train, and consequently they got away to their next stand, which is Dodge City.

Adjutant General Fox telegraphed to Governor Morrill from St. John this afternoon that he would take the troops no further. He said that there was no probability that he could find the guilty person even if he should go to Dodge City and that, as the sheriff and county attorney of Stafford county declined to take any responsibility, he had decided to return with the troops to Newton.

HOUSE TO INVESTIGATE.

Leavenworth Soldiers' Home Charges to Be Looked Into.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—All the charges brought by the Kansas and Missouri Congressmen against Governor Andrew J. Smith of the Soldiers' home at Leavenworth, Kan., are to be fully investigated, the House committee on military affairs decided today to report the Blue resolution calling for the investigation.

By order of the committee the investigation is to be confined to the home at Leavenworth. The Senate is not asked to assist, and it is to be made a House affair.

The Kansas and Missouri members who demanded the investigation on behalf of the old soldiers of the states are satisfied that the investigation will be thorough, but this afternoon Colonel Blue said he would attempt to defeat the amendment confining the investigation to the Soldiers' Home at Leavenworth. He wants it to include the seven homes, so that the investigation committee may have a chance to get at General Franklin as well as Governor Smith.

Colony Promoter Wright Gone.

ATCHISON, Kan., April 22.—Nothing has for some time been heard of J. C. Wright, who recently came here to commence the work of organizing a colony of 500 to go to the Argentine Republic. He is considered reliable by Atchison friends who knew him when he was in the cattle business in Kansas, and his failure to return after going to Tecumseh, Neb., is considered strange.

TAYLOR'S APPEAL DENIED

LAST HOPE NOW IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

REHEARING IS REFUSED.

The Murderer Expected the Refusal and Is Not Cast Down—He and His Counsel Rely on an Alleged Error in a Ruling in the Second Trial—Will Now Try the Federal Courts.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 22.—The Supreme court this morning overruled the motion for a rehearing of the appeal of the Taylor brothers from the judgment of the Carroll county Circuit court. This finally disposes of the case, so far as the Missouri Supreme court is concerned. Bill Taylor must look in some other direction if he expects to be saved from hanging Thursday, April 30.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—Taylor was not surprised when told of the action of the supreme court. He and his lawyers expected the Supreme court of Missouri to overrule the motion for a rehearing. They based their hopes for a stay of the execution on an appeal to the United States Supreme court. The papers for this appeal have been prepared. One of his lawyers will leave at once to lay the matter before the United States Supreme court.

The point in the case on which Bill and his lawyer say may be appealed to the Supreme court of the United States is that when he was indicted the law gave a defendant in a criminal case in court forty-eight hours in which to make his challenges of jurors. This law was in force at the first trial of Bill and George Taylor. Before their second trial, in July, a change in the law went into effect, reducing the time to twenty-four hours in which to challenge jurors. At the second trial Taylor's lawyers insisted that they had the right to take advantage of the forty-eight hour law because it was in effect when their client was indicted. The court ruled that the new law should be followed, and it was.

Taylor's lawyers claim that the ruling of the court was a violation of the federal constitution, which says that no State shall pass an ex post facto law impairing the obligations of a contract or the vested rights of any citizen.

SILVER CLAIMS.

Populist Chairman Taubeneck Believes Sound Money Democrats Will Control.

St. LOUIS, April 22.—Chairman Taubeneck of the Populist national committee, who has returned from Denver, asked: "What will the Populists do in case the Chicago convention declares for silver?" replied: "In the first place it is absurd to suppose the 16 to 1 men will have a majority. I know the silver men are making extravagant claims about the strength they will develop, but you may as well make up your mind to it right now that their figures are absurd. The administration and the gold men will be in control at Chicago and the other fellows will have to swallow their medicine or come to St. Louis. The truth is that four of the delegates from Washington—and there are only eight—are gold men. Alabama and Louisiana, that are being claimed by the silver Democrats, are divided about half and half."

ELOPEMENT'S TRAGIC END

L. C. Jackson of Friend Commits Suicide at Salt Lake City.

FRIEND, Neb., April 22.—The third chapter of the Jackson-Davis elopement, which occurred here a few days ago, was enacted at Salt Lake City yesterday morning. Davis went west last Thursday in search of the truant ones and for the purpose of getting possession of his little girl, tracing them to Salt Lake City. He started east last night with his wife and child. Jackson committed suicide. The body will be brought to Friend for burial.

This is the tragic climax of a sensation which has agitated the people of Friend for over two weeks. Early this month, it will be remembered, L. C. Jackson, a well-to-do and prosperous business man, mysteriously disappeared taking with him considerable money but leaving his family provided for. There was no immediate explanation of his disappearance. His business was good and his family relations supposedly pleasant.

A day or two following his departure the disappearance of Mrs. Davis, wife of E. W. Davis of this place, was noted. Mrs. Davis, about this time had, with her husband, been visiting friends in Iowa. En route home Mrs. Davis stopped off in Omaha, under a pretext of seeing a lady friend, and Mr. Davis returned to this city. It is now supposed that she took the flyer that night and met Jackson at some point west. Mrs. Davis took her little daughter with her. Rumor connected an elopement with the simultaneous disappearance of the pair, and acting on this theory, Mr. Davis, who was determined to secure possession of his child, began a search with the result stated.

REYNOLDS SENT TO JAIL

Admits He Helped Kingen and Winnegar to Escape.

YORK, Neb., April 21.—Jonas Reynolds, who was arrested for helping Kingen and Winnegar to break jail and make their escape, was tried before Judge Wildman, who took the case under advisement, and later ordered Reynolds to be held to the district-court under a $200 bond, in default of which he was put in jail. Reynolds admits having helped Kingen and Winnegar, but denied having rendered any other assistance. Sheriff Price found some stone mason's tools hid in the Reynolds house and a case knife made into a saw. The latter Reynolds says Kingen gave him as a present when they parted on the morning of the escape. There is a strong suspicion that these tools were used by the prisoners to effect their escape. As yet there has been no word or clew as to the whereabouts of the escaped prisoners.

DECLARE FOR RUSSELL.

MASSACHUSETTS AND RHODE ISLAND DEMOCRATS OF A MIND.

BOOMED FOR PRESIDENT.

Cheers Greet the Mention of the Young Ex-Governor's Name - President Cleveland Indorsed—The Gold Standard Called For—The A. P. A. Denounced Amid Cheers.

BOSTON, April 22.—With enthusiasm, almost surpassing that noted at the recent State convention of the Republicans of Massachusetts, when Thomas B. Reed was indorsed as a presidential candidate, the Democrats of this State today set their approval upon Grover Cleveland as President and named ex-Governor W. A. Russell as their choice for the nomination for President Cleveland's successor.

In his address Chairman Thayer claimed that the Democrats had carried out their pledges in the past three years, and said of the silver question: "The true interest of all our people who cannot constantly and closely observe the money market, is to have every dollar issued or authorized by the government at all times, under all circumstances and in all its uses, the exact, unchanging equivalent, not only in debt paying, but in its purchasing power of any dollar." This, he held, could only be secured by the maintenance of the monetary standard universally adopted by the civilized world. "Of what avail," he added, "is it to pass resolutions for the single gold standard if, as now appears quite probable, Mr. McKinley is to receive the nomination for president? The people will know that McKinley is upon record as a white metal advocate; that he has a long, consistent and uninterrupted record while in Congress favorable to silver."

During the delivery of Mr. Thayer's address the applause was loud and enthusiastic, especially upon the severe criticism of the American protective association and the mention of President Cleveland's name.

In opening, the platform declares that "never in any epoch in our country's history has the Executive chair been filled by a broader-minded statesman than the President chosen by our party, Grover Cleveland," and he is congratulated upon the firmness, ability and wisdom with which he has conducted the office.

"Believing that the true interests of the people require that the earnings of trade and the wages of labor be paid in money that is intrinsically worth, in all markets of the world, what it purports to be worth, we demand the maintenance of the existing gold standard of value, and that the government shall keep all its obligations at all times redeemable and payable in gold, and we oppose the free coinage of silver and any further purchases of silver bullion or the coinage thereof on government account."

The Republican party is accused of "coquetting with a secret political organization, and by innuendos and platitudes in its platforms endeavoring to conciliate men whose avowed object is to prevent a large number of the citizens of this republic from exercising their constitutional rights." On the other hand it is declared to be a principle of the Democratic party "that no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law, and it is the absolute right of every citizen to worship God as his conscience dictates."

The platform concludes as follows: "Following long established Democratic custom, the Democrats of Massachusetts, in convention assembled, will not in any way instruct or pledge their delegates, but they do declare that it is the wish of the Democratic party of the State to present, and they earnestly recommend to the consideration of the national convention, to be held in Chicago, as their candidate for the office of President of the United States the name of their victorious, courageous, high principled ex-governor, William Eustis Russell."

RHODE ISLAND

Indorses Ex-Governor Russell For Presidential Candidate.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 22.—The Democratic convention to choose eight delegates to the national convention reassembled in Music Hall today.

Mayor George W. Greene of Woonsocket, chairman of the committee on resolutions, presented the following platform, which was adopted:

"It is vital to the interests of our people that there should be no departure from the gold standard, to which all money, whether gold, silver or paper should conform, and we are opposed to the free coinage of silver until at least four of the great powers of the Eastern world shall come to an international agreement establishing the ratio at which gold and silver shall be admitted to mintage.

"As nobly representing these principles we commend to the delegates and the Chicago convention one who will make an ideal president, William E. Russell of Massachusetts."
