

DEATH FOR HIGH TREASON

FIVE OF THE LEADERS IN TRANSVAAL RAID CONDEMNED.

NO MERCY IS SHOWN THEM

Hammond, the American Engineer, One of the Doomed Men—The British Government at Once Pleads for Leniency—Matter Brought Up in Congress—California Senators Active.

PRETORIA, April 29.—The trial was resumed yesterday of the members of the national reform committee of Johannesburg. John Hays Hammond, the American mining engineer, pleaded guilty of high treason, following the example of the other leaders of the reform committee.

The lawyers for the defense then read a statement signed by John Hays Hammond, Lionel Phillips, George Farrar, Charles Leonard and Colonel Francis Rhodes, leaders of the reform committee. This reviews the recent history of the futile agitation for redress of alleged Uitlander grievances in the Transvaal; admitted that, in the face of the rumors current that the Boers were going to attack Johannesburg, the signers had asked Dr. Jameson to come, but that they deplored the mistake he had made in coming, when there was no urgent need for his presence; maintained that the action had not been hostile to the republic, its officials having been protected and life and property having been generally preserved.

Then the counsel made a speech of two hours duration in behalf of the defense, concluding as follows: If the edge of the sword is to be used, it will cause eternal misery in the republic; but should the fiat side be employed, it will usher in peace and good will.

England Calls for Leniency.

LONDON, April 29.—The Secretary of State for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, announced in the House of Commons to-day that the five leaders of the reform committee of Johannesburg (J. H. Hammond, Francis Rhodes, George Farrar, Lionel Phillips and Charles Leonard) had been condemned to death. He added that upon hearing the news he cabled to the governor of Cape Colony, Sir Hercules Robinson, to communicate the following to President Kruger: "The government has just learned that the sentence of death has been passed upon the five leaders of the reform committee. They can feel, no doubt, Your Honor will commute the sentence and have assured Parliament of their conviction that this is Your Honor's intention."

W. J. Galloway, Conservative, asked whether the law under which the leaders of the Johannesburg reform committee were tried did not provide for the confiscation of their property, in the event of conviction, and not for the imposing of the death penalty. Mr. Chamberlain said that he was unable to answer the question.

Intervention for Hammond.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Mr. Mahony of New York in the House to-day asked for the immediate consideration of a resolution calling on the Secretary of State, in view of the report that John Hays Hammond, the American engineer, had been sentenced to death for treason in the Transvaal, South Africa, to safeguard his interests as an American citizen and interfere in his behalf, if such action should be deemed advisable. After some discussion Mr. McCreary of Kentucky objected and the matter went over.

The California Senators will probably ask through the State department that clemency be shown to Hammond, although Senator White says that in the face of a plea of guilty of high treason he is not sure that this government could make a very strong representation.

Ministers Boycott Ingersoll.

CARTHAGE, Mo., April 29.—Ten days ago the Light Guard band announced that it had engaged Robert G. Ingersoll to lecture here Thursday evening, but not on a religious subject. The ministers began to protest, and a church concert was gotten up for the same date, but yesterday the concert was postponed, the reason assigned being the illness of the principal performer. The sale of seats for Ingersoll has been so heavy that a full house is already assured. In a morning paper the Ministerial Alliance publishes a card urging Christian people to stay away from the lecture.

No Beer for Illinois Delegates.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 29.—There will be no beer sold at the State convention tomorrow. The state board of agriculture to-day cancelled the concession granted to a saloon-keeper.

GRANT'S BIRTHDAY.

Celebrations in Honor of the Memory of the Great Commander.

BOSTON, April 29.—The Grant dinner of the Middlesex club at the Brunswick last night, in honor of the birthday of the great general, was a fitting closing of the banquet season. The distinguished guests of the evening were: General James Longstreet, of the Confederate army; Senator-elect Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio; James B. Hoyt, of Ohio; Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, and Lieutenant Governor Wolcott.

General Longstreet, when introduced, was very warmly greeted. He said in part: "Grant returned to service in the United States army in the hour of sanguinary war, at the head of a regiment of volunteers. His work soon drew the attention of his superiors, and he began to rise. Modest as a maiden, the heavy blows of the strong arm of an Ajax was all there was to tell the story of work that pushed him up, until at the end of two years he found himself above all officers that held superior rank, commanding armies of a million soldiers, spread out over lines of thousands of miles, yet humbly submissive to the government he so ably defended. If another record marks such an epoch, I fail to recall it."

"Of all the Union commanders, Grant was the great leader who accurately surveyed the great field of war. When it was all ended, incapable of malice, his generous heart offered all that his enemy could ask as terms of surrender, with abundance of provisions for the hungry soldiers and transportation to their distant homes."

Mr. Foraker and Senator Thurston also made addresses.

The day was fittingly observed in at least forty of the principal American cities.

Her Lover Was Fickle.

WELLINGTON, Kan., April 29.—Yesterday morning Miss Lizzie Oldenberg, aged 21 years, of South Haven township, in this county, on learning that a young man residing in Oklahoma to whom she was engaged had proved recreant and was to marry another woman that day, took a dose of strychnine for the purpose of ending her life. The deed was soon discovered by the family and antidotes administered, but it is doubtful whether she can recover.

Another Pearl Bryan Case.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 29.—Buffalo has now a Pearl Bryan case. The head of a woman was found on the farm of John Hoag, near Orchard park, late Saturday afternoon. Hoag had been drawing manure from the city, and while spreading it out discovered the head. It was wrapped in a Buffalo newspaper and had a bullet-hole in the occipital region. It seems impossible to trace the head definitely, as Hoag had been drawing manure from several stables in this city.

Punishon Nearing His Doom.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 29.—Only nine days are to elapse until the time set for the execution of Wife Murderer Thomas Punishon. If no word is received from the governor the scaffold will be erected next week. It is not believed, however, that Punishon will be hanged. It is known that a number of influential friends saw Governor Stone last week and talked to him about the case.

Damage Claim Compromised.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 29.—Two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. John McRoberts were killed and shockingly mutilated by a Rock Island train at one of the road crossings in this city, while a little daughter, who was in the wagon with them, lost one of her limbs. Yesterday the Rock Island settled with the heirs of the McRoberts by the payment of $3,500.

HOT FIGHT IN ILLINOIS.

WATSON CULLOM MANAGING THE ANTI-MCKINLEY FORCES.

IT IS WAR TO THE KNIFE.

The Opposition Determined to Prevent Instructions for the Ohio Man—McKinleyites Threaten to Defeat Tanager for Governor if They are Not Fairly Dealt With.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 29.—The McKinley leaders gathered here for the State convention to-morrow declare that the opposition has agreed that as soon as the candidate for governor shall have been nominated the delegates-at-large to the national convention shall be selected, and that then the question of the adoption of a resolution instructing those delegates shall be brought up. Senator Cullom and his followers deny this, as also do the Cook county (Chicago) leaders.

Some of the radical McKinley followers declare that the majority of delegates to the convention are instructed for McKinley for President, and that unless John R. Tanner brings his men into line for the early adoption of instructions to the delegates-at-large an attempt will be made to sidetrack him in favor of some other gubernatorial candidate.

The arrival of Senator Cullom encouraged the anti-McKinley faction. He has a large following and a great many of the delegates who have been instructed for McKinley say that, while they will not violate their instructions, they will support Cullom in his desire to have a state ticket nominated before taking up the matter of delegates-at-large and resolutions instructing them. Cullom said this morning that he had agreed to no compromise, and that he would agree to none.

Nearly all of the delegates are here now, and if a compromise between the McKinley and anti-McKinley men can be effected it will probably be done. Nearly all of the candidates for places on the state ticket are opposed to electing delegates-at-large to the National convention until all of the other nominations shall have been attended to. The McKinley men say they will not agree to this, as it is only a scheme of the machine to turn their favorite down.

There are now more people in town than have been at any Illinois convention ever held and with every train the crowd is increased. Not even cot room can be had at the hotels.

Dr. E. N. Jamieson, chairman of the Republican State Central committee and leader of the Cook county men, who will call the convention to order, said that there had been no compromise between the McKinley men and those opposed to him. "The convention will be called to order in the customary manner," he said. "The organization will be completed, and then if a majority of the delegates favor selecting national delegates at large before taking up the nominations for the regular State ticket it will be done. It will rest entirely with the delegates. Neither nor any other individual can decide such a question. There is nothing to compromise so far as I am concerned. If the convention votes to take up the presidential question when the organization is completed, it will be done; otherwise the regular order will be carried out."

DYNAMITE IN HAVANA.

Hold Attempt Made to Blow Up the Palace of the Captain General.

HAVANA, April 29.—An explosion, believed to be due to dynamite or some other high explosive, occurred in the palace of the governor general at 11:30 o'clock this morning.

The detonation was sharp and the building was partly filled with dust, while the noise of breaking glass and falling plaster could be heard on all sides.

The explosion occurred in a closet in a low story or basement under the city hall, which part of the building was converted into a heap of rubbish. The walls were torn, great stones fell and a printer belonging to the captain general's office was wounded.

It was at first believed that the steam boiler had exploded, but when it was found to be intact it was suspected that the destruction was caused by dynamite. The real cause, however, is not known.

The greatest excitement prevails as a result of this explosion, which naturally is attributed to the insurgents or their friends.

No Public Buildings This Session.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—"Nobody will get any public buildings at a session of Congress," said Congressman Miller of Kansas City, Kan., to-day. "I will get as many public buildings as anyone and I won't get one. Neither will anyone else. Kansas City, Kan., will have to wait."

Mrs. Seabrooke Sues.

LONDON, April 29.—The Mashonaland (South Africa) agency here has received the following dispatch from Bulawayo, dated April 27: "Big engagement this morning. Three impis surrounded us. Defeated and routed them with great loss."

CAPTOWN, April 28.—According to the latest advices from Bulawayo, the Matabeles and their mound fortifications have again drawn closer to Bulawayo and have been further reinforced, while another large body of men was leaving for Matope hills, expecting to effect a junction with the other bodies of hostile natives and completely surround the place. In addition, another strong force of hostiles has gone in the direction of the route being followed by the relief corps of about 600 men and nine machine guns advancing from Mafeking, the advance guard of which, it was hoped, would reach Mangwe about May 7.

SOUND MONEY MEN ASTIR.

Silver Democrats Will Not Be Allowed Free Swing.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The sound money Democratic leaders are now arranging for a more determined effort than ever to combat the free silver faction both in State conventions and the National gathering and express confidence in the outcome.

MORRILL TO FIGHT.

The Governor Calls J. M. Simpson Into Conference.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 29.—Governor Morrill returned from Hiawatha fully determined to remain in the race for governor, no matter what may be the result. He said this forenoon: "The worst they can do is to beat me. I could stand that, but I could not afford to quit simply because I have met opposition from an unexpected source."

The governor has not yet formed his plans, but it is an open secret that he will depend upon Railroad Commissioner J. M. Simpson to manage his canvass for a renomination. He called Simpson into his private office this afternoon and they were together an hour or more.

PENSION BILL PASSED.

Mr. Pickler's Measure Revising the Law Put Through Without Change.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The Pickler pension bill revising the pension laws was passed by the House without a change by a vote of 187 to 34.

The Republicans and Populists voted solidly for the measure and the Democrats, with six exceptions, voted against it. The six were Fitzgerald of Massachusetts, Sorg of Ohio, Cummings of New York, Walsh of New York, Downing of Illinois and Layton of Ohio.

Mr. Henderson from the committee on rules brought in a special order for the consideration of the bankruptcy bill, general debate to begin to-day and continue to-morrow and Thursday, debate under the five minute rule Friday and Saturday until 4 o'clock, when the final vote is to be taken.

OUT OF THE TOPEKA JAIL.

Bill West Escapes Through a Hole Made for a Postoffice Robber.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 29.—Bill West, the outlaw who murdered Deputy United States Marshal Kenney in Oklahoma about a year ago, escaped from the county jail here between midnight and 4 o'clock this morning and is still at large. All the circumstances indicate that he escaped by aid of help from the outside, and that to furnish that aid the confederate actually broke into the jail and opened the cage within which are the cells. It also is believed that, although he was the only prisoner who escaped, it was not his liberty, but that of the convicted postoffice robber at Gaylord Woodworth, that the outside confederate sought.

TAYLOR IN CARROLLTON.

THE MURDERER TAKEN TO HIS HANGING PLACE.

WAS READY FOR SUICIDE.

Strychnine Found on the Prisoner When Searched at the Carrollton Jail—Also Had a Saw—Prepared to Try Escape Again and, if He Failed, Cheat the Gallows by Killing Himself.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 29.—Bill Taylor, who is under sentence to be hanged Thursday for murder of the Meeks family, was taken to Carrollton this forenoon on a special car attached to the Santa Fe train which left the Belt Line depot at 7:40 o'clock. When the murderer was searched on his arrival at the Carrollton jail the officers found a small steel saw and a small quantity of strychnine. The murderer had planned to cheat the gallows by suicide in the event that the effort to get a respite failed.

The plan to remove Taylor from the jail at Kansas City to the jail at Carrollton had been kept from the public because it was rumored that Bill's friends would attempt to rescue him on the train. The officials believed these rumors, and the only persons notified of them of the proposed removal of the noted murderer were the newspaper reporters.

Taylor went to bed at 10 o'clock last night and slept as sweetly as a child. The scene in the jail was like a camp. Marshal Keshlar and Deputy Marshal Whig Keshlar slept on cots in the office with many revolvers beside them and double-barreled shotguns within reach. Deputy Marshal Brown guarded the door and Deputies Wilson and Ross patrolled the inside corridors. In the anterooms Deputies Estes, Jarboe, Casey and Stewart, with trusty weapons girded about them, were on the alert for any midnight alarm.

Although the removal had been kept dark, quite a little crowd gathered at the jail to see the start. The emaciated murderer was manacled and surrounded in the special car by fifteen officers of the law.

In the hurry and excitement Bill missed his breakfast. After the train was boarded, Marshal Keshlar remembered it and Bill was taken into the dining car of the train, which pulled out from the depot as he sat down to the table. He ate a hearty breakfast.

The people were taken by surprise at Carrollton when Taylor arrived at 10 o'clock. They swarmed over the jail fence and all over the jail, so that the prisoner was pushed through a mob to get him inside. Taylor did not move a muscle, and the mob of people were grimly silent. Taylor is now guarded by the forces of the two sheriffs and Sheriff Stanley will not affirm or deny the rumor that the Carrollton militia will also be employed.

He was searched by Deputy Marshal Ross and Sheriff Allen in the little bed room of the Carroll county sheriff's wife—they live at the jail.

A SAW AND STRYCHNINE FOUND.

"What's that?" exclaimed Ross, for he saw the murderer put something in his mouth.

Taylor tried to spit the thing into his hand and throw it out of the window. Allen wrenched his hand open and a small saw was found therein.

"Oh," said Taylor, with his sneer, "I used that to clean my finger nails."

This saw was a bit of fine tool no bigger than a thumb. Next, when his little pocket case containing his children's hair and some pins and needles was taken he begged for its return.

"It's precious to me," he pleaded. The very good reason for this preciousness was that in the lining reposed a bit of white paper containing a bit of powder. The powder was taken to Dr. Moore, who said it was strychnine; "just enough to kill a man."

After his saw was taken and his provision for the last resort of suicide was taken, Taylor relapsed into silence. He was locked up within fifty feet of the new gallows of sweetly smelling timber, upon which he is to be hanged by the neck next Thursday morning until dead.

When interviewed this afternoon in reference to the saw and the poison, Taylor replied: "I have nothing to say; it is no use; the people will not believe me."

Father Kennedy sent an offer of spiritual attendance, which was firmly declined.

McKinley Bolt in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 29.—In the Sixth district the Republican convention bolted McKinley yesterday and elected Allison and Reed delegates. The result of this fight is important, as the Sixth district has been claimed for McKinley, and because it foreshadows a break in the other district conventions to be held in May. It is doubtful if McKinley will secure more than five votes in North Carolina.

Fourteen Excursionists Injured.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, April 29.—An incoming Illinois Central train with visitors to the State G. A. R. encampment was derailed to-day by a washout just east of Raymond. Several cars were telescoped and fourteen people were injured, but none seriously.

MCKINLEY'S MONEY VIEWS

John Sherman Declares He is a Sound Currency Advocate.

NEW YORK, April 29.—At a meeting of the Young Republican Club, Brooklyn, last night, a letter addressed to the secretary of the club from Senator John Sherman was read. In the letter Mr. Sherman says: "There can be no doubt as to the opinion of Major McKinley on the money question. He is committed in every form, every speech and otherwise, to the Republican policy of maintaining the present gold coin of the United States as the standard of value. He, in common with myself and others believes that silver should be employed as money always, however, to be maintained at par with gold. The convenience of silver coins for the minor transactions of life is so manifest that no sound money man would desire its discontinuance, but upon the primary condition that its coinage should be limited and its purchasing power maintained by the fiat of the government at par with gold. He believes, as I do, that a tariff should be adopted that will impartially protect all American industries from undue competition with foreign production that can be and ought to be produced in the United States."

PACIFIC RAILROAD BILL

Condemned By Minority Report Submitted to the House.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The minority report on the Pacific railroad bill was submitted to the House yesterday by Representative Hubbard of Missouri. It deals exhaustively with the financial conditions of the companies concerned in the proposed funding plan. It argues that the majority bill should not be adopted for three reasons.

First—The committee have not learned enough of the affairs of the debtor companies to be able to tell the House what it is best to do.

Second—The companies made offers before the committee and are undoubtedly ready to concede terms very much better for the government than those embodied in the bill.

Third—The propositions in the bill are neither good nor safe for the government.

Murder and Suicide of a Youth.
