TILLMAN A CANDIDATE

Compare This Letter with that of Senator Allen.
 The following letter was received by Dr. Bell of Denver, from Senator Tillman and published in the Denver Daily News. WASHINGTON, D. C. April 29, 1896.
 Dr. A. C. Bell 400-413 California Building Denver, Colo.
 My Dear Sir:—Your valuable favor of April 21 received. You did not sign it, so I address this to the name on the envelope.

I acknowledge the truth of much that you say, and it is, perhaps, wrong in me not to openly announce my candidacy, but let me remind you of one thing: This is a very large country, and I am a comparatively new man in national politics. If there is not sufficient impulse already given or to be given between now and the national conventions to put me forth as the logical candidate of the reform forces, they the announcement of my candidacy at this time would do more harm than good. If the masses of people want me, the politicians will find it out, and then will follow with a keen nose the way the people are going, and until the people move in the matter the politicians who manipulate conventions will hold back. The agitation of my candidacy by any admirers or friends of mine through the press or otherwise will do no harm, if it does no good. I am in this fight for all I am worth, not with any selfish or ambitious motives.

Being a Southerner, the initiative indicative of lack of sectional feeling should come from the north. I am ready to lead the fight if the people say so. It would be presumptuous to ask them for your me command. Thanking you for your kindly interest, I am, very sincerely,
 B. R. TILLMAN.

Victory in November.
 Despite the strength of the silver democrats in the democratic states, there seems to be little question that the gold wing of the democratic party mustering its votes from the republican states, will dominate the Chicago convention. The silver democrats will have no alternative but to bolt the convention, and uniting with the silver republicans and populists on the same candidate go before the people as opposed to gold monometalism and foreign dictation. Let independent republicans, and democrats, and populists unite on a common candidate, let them unite on the great principle of bimetallism, and victory in November will perch upon their banner.—The American (Phila.)

Who Did It.
 Farm values in the state of New York have declined 50 per cent. in the last twenty years, or a total of $200,000,000. The present senate of that state contains twenty-four lawyers out of a total of fifty, and there is not one farmer on the whole list. The Assembly has 115 members, only fifteen of whom are Rank Frauds.

 The leaders of the republican party in Nebraska are a set of rank misrepresentors and frauds. While they were crying "Stand up for Nebraska," they were secretly working in the interest of money syndicates, trusts and corporations.—Allen News.

Uncalled for Kicking.
 All this hullabaloo of the Arkansas Kicker is impolitic, uncalled for and unjustifiable. It has come to the pass that Mr. Taubeneck can't leave his St. Louis office without fetching forth a snarl from our envious Arkansas brother. As national chairman Mr. Taubeneck's field is the whole union. His business is to look after the parties interest in every part of the country as his wisdom may dictate. He has a right in Nebraska, in Kansas, in Alabama or elsewhere. Had the populist party desired a superintendent of our national committee it would have doubtless given Brother Morgan a job.—Paducah Herald, (Ky.)

A Silver Convention.
 A convention to select sixty delegates to the national silver convention at St. Louis has been called to meet at Topeka, Kansas, July 16. The Iowa silver convention will be held July 14. Iowa will be entitled to thirty-five delegates.

Governor Waite on the Platform.
 In a speech at Denver this week ex-Gov. Waite congratulated Senator Teller on his recently announced position. While personally he did not object to a single plank in the platform of the people party he thought it probable that the platform will be amended at St. Louis and a compromise will be reached with silver forces for a national fight on the financial question. The abolishment of the national banking system he considered as one of the points to be fought out.

The Latch String Hangs out.
 General Weaver says: "In Oregon the populists have opened the door to all who agree with them on the financial question; not the silver question merely; that is only one prong. It is free silver, the abolition of national banks, the making of all money legal tender, and last, no more bonds without end. They vote in Oregon June 1. Listen the next morning for news from there."

For the N. E. A. Meeting at Buffalo, N. Y. July 7th to 11th, it will be of interest to teachers and their friends to know that arrangements have been successfully accomplished by the Nickel Plate Road providing for the sale of excursion tickets at $12.00 for the round trip with $2.00 added for membership fee. Tickets will be on sale July 5th and 6th and liberal return limits will be granted. For further information as to stop overs, routes, time of trains, etc., address J. Y. Calahan, Gen'l Agent 111 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

A Fair Count or Fight.
 The New Orleans Daily Item declares the election of the populist state ticket in Louisiana and openly asserts that blood will be spilled in that state if the democrats attempt to usurp the power of government without showing a clear majority on a fair count.

Very Consoling.
 George M. Pullman's daughter, Miss Florence, draws a regular salary of $10,000 a year from the Pullman Palace Car Company for naming the cars turned out by the works. This will be consoling news to poor slaves of Pullman, whose woes caused the great strike of 1894.—Silver Knight.

How to Make a Goldbug.
 To make a goldbug, take ten parts of turpitude, ten parts of greed, ten parts of heartlessness, ten parts ostentation, twenty parts of misrepresentation, and fifty parts deliberate falsehood; mix them up and you have a goldbug.—Silver Knight.

THE WYUKA CEMETERY.

The Gentleman who Wrote the First Article Makes Some Corrections.

The INDEPENDENT of April 2nd contained a statement giving the receipts of the Wyuka Cemetery Association from April 13, 1894 to January 1, 1896. This statement was taken from the books at the cemetery office. The same statement also gave an estimate of the expenditures for the same time. The reason an estimate was given instead of a statement from the books, was because the books were said to be lost. We called Mr. Oakley, who has charge of the books and the office by telephone, Monday, March 23, and asked him to make some kind of a report, as the matter was being talked about on the streets in a very ugly way. Mr. Oakley said he would not make a report until April 15, and urged us to come up and see the books. During the afternoon of March 23, we went to the office of the cemetery. Mr. Oakley showed us a new set of books that he had opened January 1, 1896. He told us that the book containing the expenditures for the last two years was lost. We understood from what he said, that it had been lost for some time. This, remember was ten days before we printed the statement. During the ten days we went to the office nearly every day to see if the book could not be found. Mr. A. M. Davis went to the office to look up the book but could not find it. There was a book showing the receipts during the time that our estimate covered to be $12,262.40 and that Mr. Davis had turned over $7,533.71 making $19,796.11 as total receipts. The amount of cash on hand January 1, 1896, was $289.93 deducting this from the amount received would leave $19,506.18 as the amount expended during the nineteen months that this statement covers, or more than $1,000 per month. We could not see where so much money could be paid out as there had been no expensive improvements put on the cemetery grounds. We concluded to make an estimate of the amount paid out, notwithstanding the book was lost. Mr. Oakley stated that the current expenses were as follows: Rent of office $14.00 per month, care of office and books $25.00 per month, sexton $50.00 per month, care of green house $40.00 per month, extra help digging graves $10.00 per month, fuel $10.00 per month, making $149 per month, or for the time this statement covers $2,916. After making diligent inquiries we added $1,260.00 for other help and small expenses. This would make what might be called current expenses for the nineteen months $4,176. The next thing to be looked up was the permanent improvements. Mr. Oakley again told me there was no book there showing the cost of any of the improvements. We went to the cemetery and estimated the improvements as best we could. We found that the following improvements had been made during the nineteen months:
 First, a water tank and tower, which we estimated to cost $1,000.00. We first made inquiries of the Nebraska Planning mill before we made this estimate.
 Second, the hot house, estimated to cost $800.00.
 Third, We estimated that there had been 75,000 brick bought to extend gutters, at $8 per thousand, making $600.
 Fourth, The cost of water pipe was placed at $400.
 Fifth, The cost of cinders $200.
 The above items amount to $3,000. Those improvements were all that we could find that had been made.
 The current expenses and permanent improvements would amount to $7,176. Mr. Oakley told us that there were only two loans, one for $3,000 and one for $1,000. The current expenses, permanent improvements and money loaned would amount to $11,176, deducting this from net amount received which was $19,506.18 we found that there was about $8,000.00 that we could find no book to explain where this money had gone.
 After the election was over the book containing the account of the expenditures was found and a report was made. We decided to make an examination of the books. While examining the receipts of the office we found that there was one entry of $2,000.00 that was in twice. Mr. Fawell said that the protested against the second entry. There was an entry in the book of $10,653.68 as collections from April 13, 1894, to September 8, 1895. Mr. Oakley informed us that he had checked over the items and that the above amount was correct. We found that the $2,000.00 was entered the second time among the items that made up the $10,653.68. Deducting this, $2,000 from the $8,000 that we did not find in our first statement would leave $6,000 to be explained. We made a careful examination of the expenditures we were told by Mr. Oakley while making our first estimate that only two loans were made, one for $3,000 and one for $1,000. The books show that there were five other small loans made amounting to $1,206.57. Instead of $4,000 being paid out on loans there was $5,206.57 paid out. Deducting this $1,206 from the $6,000 we have $4,794.00 left to account for. Mr. Oakley gave us when our first statement was made as the expense of keeping the books and care of the office $25.00 per month and the books show that for several months that has been the expense. This would make an expense for the nineteen months of $475. There was paid out for the nineteen months about $2,075 as follows: L. J. Byer about $75; John Fawell about $605; W. O. Fletcher about 262, A. G. Hastings about $150 R. H. Oakley about $90; Thos. Fawell clerk hire about $93. This enormous extra cost taking care of the office over the amount named to us when we made the first statement is about $1,600, taking this from the $4,794 leaves $3,194 left to be accounted for and it is very easy to account for this under the head of general extravagance and waste of public money. We found some interesting items of expenditures, one dated November 1894, read as follows: "L. J. Byer oyster and lunch $5.25." One would suppose that as Mr. Byer had drawn nearly $50 per month during nineteen months for less service than each member of the school board gives for nothing, that he would not had the gall to take from the public funds set apart for the care of the dead $5.25 to pay for an oyster supper.
 Another item of expense read as follows: "Expense to Omaha $30." We found no explanation of this item and do not know whether it was for a big foot or a little foot. During the nineteen months Mr. Byer collected about $2,000 more than Mr. Davis did for the nineteen months ending April 13, 1894, he not only spent all he collected but spent $2,943.78 of the $7,533.71 that Mr. Davis paid over to him April 13, 1894. There was not much more, if any more, improvements put on the grounds during the nineteen months that Byer was in control than in the last nineteen months that Mr. Davis had charge but Mr. Byer spent about $4,940 more than Mr. Davis did for the same time. Our examination of the books has shown that our estimate of the permanent improvements was more than they should have cost. "We estimated 75,000 brick and the books show less than 55,000," we estimated $400 for water pipe, the books show less than half that amount. We estimated $200 for cinders the books show considerable less than that amount for the nineteen months. The green house and plants cost about our estimate.

 The water tank and tower cost more than we estimated. Our total amount of estimates would cover the total cost of the improvements that we made estimates on. Our estimate was $3,000.00. Mr. Byer or any other one of the cemetery trustees may rake the cemetery ground over with a fine tooth comb and they will not find any other permanent improvement that will amount to much, that was built during the nineteen months that we are considering. The report that was made April 15 by the cemetery board was as follows: Paid for improvements during two years, $9,089.83; paid for labor, $4965.57; paid sexton $1,195; paid loans $4000; paid for sundries, $129.57. There is at least one glaring mistake in this report. The books show that the amount paid out in connection with the seven loans was $5,206.57 instead of $4000 as the report shows. This being the case there is $1,206.57 mixed up with the sexton, labor improvement or sundry account. Since Mr. Oakley took charge of the office a complete and new set of books have been opened and everything seems to be in good shape and no public money is being wasted. Mr. Oakley was elected in the spring of 1895 but did not take charge of the office until October last.

Avoid Complications
 As you would avoid a plague. A complicated grain harvester is a plague. True words were never written than those of the late Dr. Holmes, when he said "The more wheels there are in a watch or in a brain, the more trouble they are to take care of." The simplicity of McCormick Harvesting Machines has won for them thousands of friends. The new Open Elevator is the simplest of harvesters and is not subject to the disorders and disarrangements resulting from the complicated construction of so many so-called grain cutting machines. There's nothing complicated about McCormick Mowers, either. They don't clog occasionally, but they don't bind, clog-up and "go to smash," after the manner of the ordinary mower. Same is true of the McCormick Corn Harvester. Its construction embodies the only correct principle—the only principle that will work in a Corn Harvester.
 The new McCormick Light-Running Open Elevator Harvester and Binder, the McCormick No. 4 Steel Mower, and the McCormick Corn Harvester are unequalled for capacity, light-draft, efficiency of service and long life. Built, sold and guaranteed by the McCormick Harvesting Machine Co., Chicago.

The Safe Store.

There isn't a store in the whole country that sells clothing as "THE NEBRASKA" does. It is an exceptional store, it is a reliable store, it is an absolutely safe store. The price today is the price tomorrow and the next day, and the price to one is the price to all. We have no favorites, we make no discounts, and never resort to catch penny methods of making some goods low in order to sell you other goods high. Our practice of instantly refunding money when goods don't suit is the best proof you can have that our goods and prices are all right. For eleven years we have been building up a vast business on these principles and our business was never so large, our prices never so low, as they are this spring.

Send for catalogue. It contains samples of goods and will save you a great many dollars above what you have to pay for the same qualities at home. It is a book that ought to be in every clothing buyer's hand.

It is recommended that primaries for selecting delegates to county conventions be held on Thursday, July 9; and that county conventions for selecting delegates to state convention be held on Saturday, July 11.
 It is also recommended that the credentials from each county be handed in to the state central committee, prior to the meeting of the state convention, so that a full list of delegates can be made out and the tedious delay occasioned by a committee on credentials avoided.
 It is also recommended, in accordance with a resolution passed by the state central committee, that in the state convention, the following plan of selecting delegates to the national convention be adopted: That nine delegates and nine alternates be selected from each congressional district by the delegates present; and that three delegates and three alternates be elected at large.
 It is urgently requested that every member of the party, who possibly can do so, attend the primaries, so that those selected as delegates may represent the wishes of the entire party.
 Every voter in Nebraska, who favors an American system of finance and is opposed to the gold standard, bond issuing policy of the present administration; who favors the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at 16 to 1; who favors reform in our systems of money, land and transportation; who favors more economical administration of national and state governments; who is opposed to the further domination of corporations in our legislation; who believes that the government should be brought closer to the people; and finally, who is ready to cast aside prejudice and vote for the common prosperity of all; every such voter is cordially invited to participate in our primaries and assist in the selection of our delegates.
 By order of the state central committee,
 F. D. EAGER, J. A. EDEBROTON,
 Sec'y. Chairman.
