

IT IS WAR TO A FINISH.

ILLINOIS SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS TO BE ORGANIZED.

TO FIGHT THE SILVERITES.

A Separate State Central Committee Being Arranged for—The Contest to Be Carried to the State and National Conventions if Necessary—Missouri Democrats Waking Up.

CHICAGO, May 20.—After a two hours' discussion last night, the special committee on State organization of the sound money Democrats reported in favor of organizing a committee of two members from each congressional district and four from the State at large to have charge of the campaign against the present State central committee, Governor Altgeld and free silver.

The conference was for the purpose of taking into consideration what should be done in view of the alleged fact that the silver wing of the Democracy of the State was resorting to unfair methods in the primary elections to carry the State convention for free coinage. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the methods of the silver men, and declaring for State and national contests if necessary.

DEMOCRATS WAKING UP.

The Missouri State Committee May Soon Work the School District Idea.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 20.—At the meeting of the State committee at Excelsior Springs last February, S. B. Cook, as chairman of a subcommittee, made an extended report of the plan for the thorough reorganization of the party by school districts. The report was adopted without amendment or debate, but since then nothing has been done to put its provisions into practical operation until to-day, when Cook, Auditor Selbert and Secretary of State Lesueur held a conference here. It is probable that within a month steps will be taken to give the plan a thorough test. The initiative will be the calling of a joint meeting here or at Jefferson City or Kansas City of the State central committee and the chairmen of the 114 county committees. It is thought that the joint conference will be in session two days and that when its members return to their homes they will be thoroughly prepared for the work of organization by school districts. The joint conference will also probably provide all the money necessary for prosecuting the work in a systematic and vigorous manner and for the maintenance of general headquarters in this city with Chairman Cook in charge.

Dr. Thomas E. Potter tried to dissuade the two from committing suicide and told them that the college had no use for the bodies at this time. The two came here from Harrison county.

ANTI-MCKINLEY A. P. A. S.

The Disgruntled Faction Holds an Indignation Meeting.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A condemnation meeting of some of the delegates of the American Protective Association claiming to represent twenty States was held after the adjournment of the convention, and a preamble and resolutions bearing on the McKinley matter were adopted. The preamble and resolutions adopted follow:

Whereas, The Supreme Council of the A. P. A. of the United States, at its session Saturday evening, by an unanimous vote adopted the report of the National advisory board, which report indorsed the action of the executive committee of said board and in plain language said that the executive committee was justified in publishing the political affiliation of McKinley with the Roman political hierarchy, which affiliation is proven by the affidavits of reputable members of the order, and which affidavits have never been controverted except by the unworn statement of Major McKinley himself, and

Whereas, Major McKinley did on May 14, 1896, to a committee of the national advisory board in the city of Canton, Ohio, state he heartily approved the principles of the A. P. A., and on the following day gave an interview to the press denying that he had met such a committee, thus giving the lie to the report of the committee, which was composed of honorable and truthful gentlemen; and

Whereas, The members of the Supreme council have, during its session, been hounded and badgered by a large McKinley lobby, composed of members and non-members of the order, that has used the most disreputable blackmailing methods to discredit the advisory board and turn the Supreme council into a McKinley ratification meeting, and having signally failed to clear McKinley of the consequences of his propal political record, to-day, after two-thirds of the delegates had started for home, attempted to take revenge by abolishing the national advisory board, and accomplished the same by a vote of 30 to 29.

Resolved, That the delegates in condemnation meeting assembled, denounce the unwarranted interference of the paid McKinley lobby with the affairs of the order, and denounce the cowardly denial by McKinley of the indorsement of the principles of the order, given to our committee, and

Resolved, That because of his record as reported by the national advisory board, we herewith pledge ourselves, by our influence and efforts, to accomplish his defeat.

CHURCH AND POLITICS.

Cardinal Gibbons Gives His Views, With a Rebuke for the A. P. A.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—In reply to some questions addressed through Rev. Dr. Stafford of Washington, D. C., to Cardinal Gibbons, the Cardinal sent the following letter:

It is the duty of the leaders of political parties to express themselves without any equivocation on the principles of religious freedom which underlies our constitution. Catholics are devoted to both the great political parties of the country and each individual is left entirely to his own conscience. We are proud to say that in the long history of the Government of the United States the great Catholic church has never used or perverted its acknowledged power by seeking to make politics subservient to its own advancement.

Moreover, it is our proud boast that we have never interfered with the civil and political rights of any who differ from us in religion. We demand the same rights ourselves and nothing more, and will be content with nothing less. Not only is it the duty of all parties distinctly to set their faces against the false and un-American principles thrust forward of late, but much as I would regret the entire identification of any religious body as such with any political party, I am convinced that the members of a religious body whose rights, civil or religious, are attacked will naturally and unanimously espouse the cause of the party which has the courage openly to avow the principles of civil and religious liberty according to the constitution.

Patience is a virtue, but it is not the only virtue. When pushed too far it may degenerate into pusillanimity.

MCABE AND CRANSTON.

THEY ARE ELECTED BISHOPS BY THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

THE DEADLOCK BROKEN.

The Noted New York Divine Chosen on the Fifteenth Ballot—The Cincinnati Minister Successful on the Next Vote—Details of the Proceedings—Biographical Sketches of Voters.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 20.—Chaplain McCabe and Dr. Earl Cranston of the two new Methodist bishops, being elected on the fifteenth and sixteenth ballots respectively.

On the fourteenth ballot 514 votes were cast, making 336 necessary to a choice. The leaders were Cranston, 261; McCabe, 258; Hamilton, 149; Buttz, 128; Neely, 112; Bowen, 85, and scattering, 70.

The fifteenth ballot was at once taken and the tellers retired. After the transaction of a little business the tellers returned and announced that 504 votes were cast, making 336 necessary to a choice. Of these C. C. McCabe, of New York, received 344 votes; electing him by eight votes. The vote on others was: Cranston, 328; Buttz, 113; Hamilton, 109; Neely, 50; Bowen, 30; scattering, 35.

Then the delegates began to cheer and wave their handkerchiefs and call for "McCabe," "Song," and "Speech" arose from all parts of the hall. Delegates rushed back to where he was sitting and he was surrounded by an enthusiastic following. In the first lull a motion to invite "Bishop McCabe" to the platform was heard. It was carried amid cheers, and as he walked down the aisle cheers were incessant. He declined to speak at present.

The sixteenth ballot was soon announced, resulting in the election of Dr. Cranston as the second bishop. In all 504 votes were cast, making 336 necessary to a choice. Of these Cranston received 366. Cheers again filled the hall, handkerchiefs were waved and applause continued for several minutes while Dr. Cranston walked forward and bowed.

An attempt by Judge Caples of Oregon to make the election unanimous was cried down.

The conference took up the election of two book agents for New York. The nominations were Dr. Homer Eaton of Troy, N. Y., C. R. McGee of New England, J. N. King of New York, R. B. Daugherty of New York, W. M. Swindetta of Philadelphia, G. B. Manis of New York, East, W. M. Evans of Central Pa., and John D. Hammond of California. Dr. Buckley then obtained the floor and moved that nominations be made on a call of conference. This was carried.

Charles C. McCabe was born October 11, 1836, in Athens, Ohio. He entered the Ohio conference in 1860 and was stationed at Putnam. In 1862 he became chaplain in the 122d Ohio Volunteer infantry. At the battle of Winchester, Va., in June, 1862, while looking after the wounded in the field, he was captured and taken to Libby prison, where he remained a captive for over four months. After his release he rejoined his regiment at Brandy station, but with broken health was sent back to the hospital at Washington. He was invited, after partial recovery, to speak at an anniversary of the Christian commission, and George H. Stuart, the president of that organization, asked Secretary Stanton to grant him permission to make the tour of the great cities of the United States in the interests of that cause. After the war he re-entered the regular work of the ministry and was stationed at Portsmouth, Ohio. In 1866 the Ohio conference called him into the service of the Ohio Wesleyan University. In 1868 he first engaged in church extension work and for sixteen years he traveled through the length and breadth of the land and saw the work advance with unexampled prosperity upon every side.

In 1884 he was elected missionary secretary. Through his efforts the cry, "A million for missions," is now one of the brightest facts in the history of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Dr. Cranston was born in Scioto county, Ohio, about sixty years ago, and graduated at Ohio university. He then became a traveling minister of the Methodist Episcopal church and served in that capacity until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted and rose to the rank of captain of the Sixtieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. In consequence he is now an honorary member of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. His service in the church after the war was in Ohio conferences until he was transferred, about 1880, to the Colorado conference, where he became a presiding elder.

In 1884, upon the election of Bishop Walden, he was chosen one of the book agents of the Western Methodist Book concerns in Cincinnati, and has held that position until now. He has always held a high rank as a pulpit orator.

READY TO BE CROWNED.

The Czar and Czarina of Russia Arrive at Moscow.

MOSCOW, May 20.—The arrival of the czar and czarina yesterday may be said to inaugurate the festival season in the celebration of the coronation, for which the city and the whole empire has made months of preparation. The rain was pouring down in torrents as the train arrived at the station, but this seemed to have no effect upon the loyal ardor of the people. The streets were full of mud and the countless flags and streamers fluttered fitfully in a gusty breeze.

The passage of the party through the streets was greeted with great enthusiasm, the route being lined with great crowds of cheering spectators. The movements of Li Hung Chang and Field Marshal Count Yamagata are followed with the keenest popular interest, while the Emir of Bokhara and his suite, in their magnificent robes of gold cloth, and other Eastern potentates in gala attire excite general admiration.

Nearly every nation on earth has sent here a special ambassador or representative, and every province in the vast Russian empire has sent a deputa-tion, making an assemblage which in itself forms an interesting ethnological congress. The tribes of Siberia, the Finns, the Laplanders, the Eskimos, the Tartars, Armenians, Georgians, Chinese, Mongols and a dozen others in strange, outlandish costumes, and unknown tongues, have come to Moscow from all the ends of the empire to renew their homage to the great white czar, the autocrat of all the Russias. They are wandering the streets of this ancient capital in motley throngs, under the wondering inspection of other strange peoples, even from the Westernmost part of America, who have come this long journey for the spectacle.
