

MRS. GEORGE IN THE COURT

Pleaded Not Guilty to the Charge of Murdering Saxton.

THE M'KINLEYS IN CANTON.

The Canton Courtroom Crowded With Men and Women—It Is Thought the Alleged Murderess Will Try to Prove an Alibi.

CANTON, Ohio, Oct. 11.—Anna E. George, charged with the murder of George D. Saxton, was brought into Justice Regnier's court room to-day. Long before the hour court room was filled with men and women, anxious to see Mrs. George and hear her plea.

The eyes of everybody in the court room were upon her as she gazed unconcernedly about the room. Prosecuting Attorney Pomerene was the first of the counsel to put in an appearance, and he spent some time in looking over the criminal code of laws.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

After reading over the affidavit very carefully Mrs. George's counsel spent some time in looking over the criminal laws, and then Attorney Welty said they were ready for the arraignment.

With this statement by the prosecuting Justice Regnier asked Mrs. George if she was guilty or not guilty of the charge made against her in the affidavit.

Mrs. George, while seemingly not disturbed in the least, but in a very weak and scarcely audible voice, answered: "Not guilty."

After the arraignment there was some little controversy between the attorneys as to the time for the preliminary hearing.

Prosecuting Attorney Pomerene desired to have the time for the preliminary hearing set for Saturday on account of engagements in the common pleas court every day during the week.

THE M'KINLEYS IN CANTON.

President and Mrs. McKinley have remained in the Barber house since their arrival here, meeting only the immediate members of the family. They passed as comfortable a night as possible under the circumstances and took a rather early breakfast.

Private funeral services were held from the Barber residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by the Rev. O. D. Milligan of the First Presbyterian church.

The President will join the cabinet at the Pennsylvania station at 9:37, his private car being attached to the special train. Mrs. McKinley will remain in the city for a few days.

TO PROVE AN ALIBI.

It is asserted that the defense will be an effort to prove an alibi and to present a credible story that the shooting was done by a man disguised in woman's garb. The attorneys are known to have made some inquiries in this line.

A postal card, dated Springfield, O., October 8, addressed to the chief of police, Canton, signed X. Y. Z., saying: "I killed Saxton, and I am not sorry for it; catch me if you can," has been received by Mayor Rice.

TO BE REAL TROOP SHIPS.

Transports of a Modern Style Are Planned by War Department.

MOBILE TO BE OVERHAULED.

The Atlantic Transport Liner the First to Be Converted—The Contract for the Work Awarded to the Cramp Ship Building Company.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Plans have been completed by the war department for converting several of the steamships used in carrying troops during the war with Spain into first-class troop ships. The former Atlantic transport liner Mobile will be the first of these vessels to be converted.

The quarters of the men will be between decks. The framework of the bunks will be tubular cast iron, and each bunk will be so fixed that it may be folded back against the side of the ship when not in use.

Other ships to be refitted are the Mississippi, Michigan, Massachusetts, Manitoba, Minnekaska and probably the Roumanian, Obdam and Panama.

Other ships to be refitted are the Mississippi, Michigan, Massachusetts, Manitoba, Minnekaska and probably the Roumanian, Obdam and Panama. It is the intention of the War department to make these vessels the finest troop ships afloat, and it is particularly desired to make the quarters of the men as comfortable as possible.

ARMY OFFICER IN COVENTRY.

A Hotel Keeper's Insult Was Permitted to Go Unresented.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—There is a disturbance in army circles over a report which has reached Washington that an officer of high rank, said to be Major Tucker, son-in-law of Mrs. John A. Logan, had his face slapped by the proprietor of the Hotel Majestic in Atlanta, while in uniform, and that he failed to resent the insult.

The causes which led to the slapping are not given, but are supposed to have been a dispute over the management of the house or the items of a bill. What the army officers object to is the lack of spirit shown in the submission to an affront, all the greater because of the uniform worn, and which, it is contended, should even at the risk of life be answered by a blow or a challenge.

The incident is of greater interest owing to the family connection of Major Tucker, if he be the officer. He is said to have obtained the appointment he now holds in the regular army as a major and paymaster through the influence of Mrs. Logan.
