PLANS TO INSURE ACQUITTAL

Summons For Late Foreign Military Attaches—Eloquent Appeal Made to Emperor William and King Humbert to Permit Subjects to Give Testimony.

M. Labori telegraphed personal appeals to Emperor William and King Humbert to grant permission to Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Colonel Panizzardi, German and Italian military attaches in Paris in 1894, to come to Rennes to testify in the trial of Captain Dreyfus.

The appeals were couched in eloquent terms, invoking the assistance of their majesties in the name of justice and humanity.

The demand of M. Labori that the court-martial should issue process, subject to the approval of the two sovereigns, came like a thunderbolt at Tuesday's session.

The first witness who was called to the bar was Reporter Bassett, whom the Matin sent to London to interview Major Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy.

Captain Dreyfus arose and in a clear voice emphatically insisted that the circular of May 17, 1893, announcing that the probationers would not go to the maneuvers was written in the clearest language.
