A GOOD MOVE.

The Nebraska silver men are endeavoring to secure the services of Hon. F. J. Van Vorhis in the state canvass now on in Bryan's home state.

RANK PARTISANSHIP.

The talk about some people being rank partisans is often indulged in, but the mere fact of the two Seward republican papers not even making a one line mention of so great an event as the coming of W. J. Bryan to their city to speak, is about as rank an exhibition of bitter partisanship as you find.

WHAT WOULD GRANT SAY?

Wonder if plain old General Grant didn't give an angry kick at his coffin lid when his daughter married that Russian prince a day or two ago.

THE WORLD WATCHES NEBRASKA

This is what is usually termed an off year in politics in Nebraska, the candidates for state offices to be chosen consisting of one justice of the supreme court and two regents of the state university.

THE CRY OF TREASON.

The policy of expansion has about it no sacredness that should or can shield it from the discussion and criticism of the people, by whose voice only its adoption or rejection can lawfully be decided.

PROSPERITY FOR WHOM

The Hutchinson, Kansas, Gazette tells about a man who invented a hay press, sold a good many, but when he came to manufacture them he found that he could not get the malleable castings which he must have.

THE BIG COPPERHEADS.

"I believe in the declaration of independence."—Thomas B. Reed, August 13, 1892. "Whatever may happen, I am sure that the First Maine district will always be true to the principles of liberty, self-government and the rights of man."

THE FATE OF NATIONS.

Shall the United States after a Hundred Years of Prosperity, now Repudiate the Constitution?

All of the great civilized powers of the oriental world fell from the highest pinnacle of civic and literary culture by a departure from frugality, common honesty and national economics.

While ministers of the gospel, high in holy orders, proclaim in public assemblies that the Declaration of Independence is a lie and a fraud, (the Magna Charter of our liberties).

Editor Independent:—I see by your issue of September 21 that you have lost all by the big Lincoln fire, so I will come to your aid with the dollar I owe you.

Editor Independent:—I have organized a town site company in this city and contracted with it to locate, survey and estimate the cost and secure the right of way for my North & South railroads.

Editor Independent:—People assembled from a radius of twenty miles around Casford to listen to Hon. Wm. Neville, Cyclone Davis and Mr. Fleaharty.

A CIVIL WAR EPISODE

THE RAID UPON PORT GIBSON AND WHAT CAUSED IT.

Fifty Aristocratic Southern Girls Were Taken as Prisoners of War and Were Carried to Vicksburg and There Held as Hostages.

"I was mixed up in one little unrecorded event of the civil war," said General B., "that was interesting from its very unusualness, and which, as I look back upon it, seems strangely picturesque.
