POLICE OFFICERS INDICTED

They May Be Punished for Assault on U. S. Soldiers.

The Sangamon county Illinois grand jury at Springfield returned true bills against Police Officers Frank Dodge and Charles Waters for assault with deadly weapon and against Waters for assault with intent to kill. The officers found Privates Pearl Scott and Harry Moss of company H, Fourth infantry, Paris, Ill., at 1 o'clock on the morning of August 10, 1899, during the camp exercises of the Fourth regiment at Camp Lincoln, sitting on the steps of the Edwards school, in company with two girls of that city. The officers ordered the party from the premises, and as they began to comply with the order the officer, fell upon Scott and Moss and beat them with their clubs severely. Waters later, it is alleged, shot Scott in the shoulder as he was running from the officers.

VIOLATED EIGHT HOUR LAW

Fine Imposed on Government Contractors at Annapolis.

J. P. Carlin & Co., contractors on the buildings under construction at the naval academy at Annapolis, Md., for the United States government, were fined by Judge Morris in the U. S. district court for violation of the federal law forbidding contractors to require or permit the employes that they have engaged on public work for the government to work more than eight hours a day.

The firm was indicted on two counts. The first was for requiring the men to work more than eight hours a day and the second was for permitting them to work longer than the prescribed time. A fine of $500 was imposed in one case and $10 in the other.

KILL THOUSANDS OF SHEEP

The Cattlemen of Colorado Resort to Violence.

A special from Craig, Colo., says that last week 3,000 sheep were driven from Wyoming into Routt county to the range, forty miles northwest of Craig. Last Saturday fifty masked men captured the herders and then proceeded to kill the entire flock. The herders were warned not to bring any more sheep into Colorado and were released. These are the first sheep that have been brought into this section for several years.

TERRIFIC BATTLE FOUGHT

A Thousand Colombian Revolutionists Reported Killed.

A dispatch from Bogota, dated November 18, report that a terrible battle between the government forces and the revolutionists was fought near Bucaramanga, capital of the department of Santander, in which the government forces were victorious.

It is stated that the battle lasted two days, ending at noon of November 16. More than 1,000 rebels were killed and 2,000 were wounded. About 10,000 men on both sides were engaged in the fight.

Wrecked by a Tornado.

Thursday advices are to the effect that the town of Magazine, Ark., was destroyed by a tornado last night. Magazine is on the new Choctaw and Memphis road, sixty miles east of Ft. Smith. All efforts to reach Magazine by wire today failed. Booneville, ten miles from Magazine, suffered a severe storm, houses being blown down and cattle killed.

Mount for Vice-President.

There is on foot by a number of leading republicans Indiana an organized movement to press Governor Mount as a candidate for vice president next year. They claim in his behalf that he is the logical candidate, is opposed to trusts, is a genuine farmer, and his candidacy on the ticket will insure Indiana for the republican column.

NEBRASKA NOTES.

This is the week the turkey gobbler gets it in the neck.

The coal dealers of Beatrice are now fighting each other through the papers with poetry. Meanwhile coal advances in price.

F. Hover, who was so terribly injured by the cars at Fremont, died of his injuries. He never regained consciousness from the time he was struck.

Will Nettles, a colored youth, was fined $10 and costs for shooting fire arms within the corporate limits of Fremont. He was attempting to slay his neighbor's pigeons.

Hastings is looking forward to the time, which is not so very far away, when the Burlington route and the St. Joseph & Grand Island road will each have a new depot.

Frank Gettier, a farmer who lives seven miles south of Lincoln, near Rokeby, suffered a serious cut on the top of his head by being thrown from his wagon during a runaway.

The beet crop of Dodge county was somewhat damaged by the early excessive rains. The beet harvest is about completed, but the extent of the damage cannot yet be computed.

Governor Poynter has decided to return $2,660 constituting a surplus in the fund created by subscription to bring the First Nebraska boys home on a special train. He will commence at the bottom of the subscription list.

Ed Rooney, a packing house employee from Cudahy's at South Omaha, while intoxicated fell down an area way of the Oxford hotel and was taken to the police station in a badly used-up condition, with bloody face and injured back.

The physicians who are attending Paul Roen, the ten-year-old son of O. T. Roen, cashier of the First National bank of Columbus, entertain hope for his recovery. While riding a horse he was thrown to the ground and dragged a considerable distance.

In the suit of Mrs. W. O. Harnel of Fairbury against the Rock Island for damages, the plaintiff was awarded $2,000, the full amount of the petition. Her husband was killed in the Rock Island wreck south of Lincoln several years ago. The case was appealed.

A fight over the question of incorporation is taking place in Monroe, and the village is divided into two factions for or against the proposition. Both sides have employed attorneys and the indications are that the question will not only be settled at the polls but also in court.

The sale of the military reserve at Sidney brought $5,333, which cleans up all that is left of the old fort. The traces containing the officers' quarters was sold to Edgar M. Westerveld of Lincoln for $3,600. The balance went to the Union Pacific and to a resident of Sidney.

Charles Givens, aged 23, living on a farm near Firth, had husked a load of corn and hauled it to a crib. When he attempted to alight from the wagon his feet caught in the lines and he was thrown violently to the ground, receiving injuries from which he died the following day.

J. P. Johnson of West Lincoln was severely injured by a wagon load of hay on which he was riding turning over and falling upon him. The accident happened in Lincoln just west of Haymarket square on Ninth street. He was pinned under the load and suffered several bad bruises.

William J. Eynart of University Place died as the result of falling into the cellar at the home of his son-in-law, Samuel Hartley. He was intending to go down cellar in the evening about 7:30, when he fell through the trap door leading to the cellar stairs. He struck his face in falling, breaking his neck.

At Tekamah the case of the state of Nebraska vs. John Buey and Martha Ernest returned a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Buey and Mrs. Ernest were indicted by the grand jury upon the charge of fornication. Buey is a bachelor living on a farm near Tekamah and Mrs. Ernest is his housekeeper, and for some time gossip in that neighborhood has had it that they were living together as husband and wife.

Several members of the state board of agriculture held a conference at Lincoln with a committee from the Commercial club regarding the fair, which is to be held next year in Lincoln. The last legislature located the fair permanently at Lincoln. A thorough understanding was reached and there is a strong probability that next year the state fair and the street fair will be merged. It will be what may be termed a state-street fair, though the name has not been determined upon yet.

Lincoln's new auditorium is about half completed. It will be a strong and substantial building, and convenient for the purposes for which it is intended.

The proudest boy in Kearney last week was little Frank Puls, who had received word of his appointment as "orderly" of the 40th U. S. volunteers through the recommendation of Assistant Secretary of War Melkleejohn. He left to join his regiment at San Francisco. His brother Charles is first lieutenant of Company A of the regiment.

The devotees of golf in Omaha have secured grounds for links in Kountze Place, between Spencer and Edmund streets, and steps have been taken to form a club.

We sell "all kinds of coal" except poor coal.

BOERS TO ATTACK

A London, Nov. 23d special says: A dispatch from Nottingham Road, Natal, dated Tuesday, says the Boers have arrived near there.

The Daily Mail's dispatches from Naanaport, dated Wednesday, says that a large force under General Methuen has crossed the Orange river and is advancing to the relief of Kimberley. The Daily Mail says:

"We are able to confirm the report that orders have been issued to mobilize a sixth division at Aldershot for service in South Africa or wherever it may be wanted."

The Daily News has the following from Pietermaritzburg, under Wednesday's date:

"Your correspondent managed to escape from the Mooi river district yesterday before the arrival of 6,000 Boers who are looting the farmsteads in all directions. The Natal Boers, encouraged by the successes of the Transvaalers, joined in looting. The main body of the Boers are within forty miles of Pietermaritzburg at the farthest, and it is said that they intend to attack the town."

Although it is evident that the situation in Natal is again becoming sufficiently alarming, nothing can be officially ascertained to allay public anxiety or the curiosity felt regarding the disposition of the reinforcements recently landed at Durban.

Evidently a considerable force of the enemy is now within thirty or forty miles of Pietermaritzburg, but it is officially announced from there that no anxiety prevails, the garrison numbering a thousand men, with six guns.

General Joubert's plan, apparently, is a daring attempt to defeat the British relieving column from Durban in detail, while still attempting the reduction of Ladysmith.

BODY IS TO LIE IN STATE

Public May Look Upon the Features of Dead Vice President Friday.

The body of the late Garrett A. Hobart, vice president of the United States, will take place on Saturday. The morning services at the residence will be attended by only the members of the family and intimate friends. At the church of the Redeemer in Patterson the public service will be held at 3:30 in the afternoon. On Friday afternoon the casket will be opened in the library of his late home where the public may view the body, which lies in a handsome casket of oak, the plate bearing this inscription:

GARRETT A. HOBART.
1899

Four companies of regular soldiers from Governor's island will take part in the funeral ceremony and will probably act as an escort to the remains.

No Use for Trusts.

The national grange, which has been in session in Springfield, O., during the past week, adjourned sine die Thursday afternoon. Important in the proceedings were the reports of the committees on "trusts" and the merchant marine, both of which were adopted. The grange, in a quite lengthy report, declares that congress must act, and check the spirit of greed and selfishness. A report favoring the rebuilding of the merchant marine was also adopted.

Will Save the Homestead.

The mission of Lord Mayor Daniel Tallen of Dublin and John E. Redmond, M. P., to New York in the interest of preserving the Parnell homestead in county Wicklow, Ireland, has been successful. Thomas F. Smith, private secretary to Richard Croker and general secretary of Tammany hall, presented to the lord mayor in the name of Tammany hall a certified check for 3,000 pounds to save the Parnell homestead. This was $5,000 in excess of the amount needed.

Seventeen Knots a Hour.

The new battleship Kentucky, which is to have her trial trip off the New England coast Friday, has reached Boston. Those who came here on the Kentucky state that she made sixteen knots, her required speed, with ninety-eight revolutions per minute. As the revolutions are expected to run to 110 on a supposed test, those interested feebly sure the vessel will exceed seventeen knots.

David L. Pence, wife, and six children were instantly killed by the bursting of a boiler in a sawmill at Winchester, Va.

Company Incorporates.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state of New Jersey of the Marconi wireless telegraph, and especially to use the Marconi patent. The company is also empowered to construct and operate lines for using this invention over land and sea.

Will Be Sold as Junk.

Workmen at Hastings have begun taking down the old electric wires that have been strung along the streets ever since the original plant was put in. The insulation will be burned off and the wire be sold as junk.

Dies as a Result of Hazing.

Martin V. Bergen, son of Councilman Bergen of Princeton, N. J., died from receiving a hazing at Lawrenceville last Friday. He died from inflammation of the bowels. Young Berger was a freshman at Lawrenceville and was being put through the hazing when one of the hazers accidentally injured him.

CLIPPINGS

OH! GIT OUT.

Nebraska is still the laughing stock of the nation.—Ord Quiz.

Why in sheel don't you get out of it then you poor pin headed cheese. Nebraska has the lowest per cent of illiteracy of any state in the union and we know of nothing that would raise the intellectual average of its citizenship than would an exodus of the pinchy republican quill pushers who are cursing their own state because its electors demand that honest American patriots be elected to office instead of a set of imperialistic freaks who sneeze every time John Bull takes snuff.—Holt County Independent.

THAT BALLOT.

In Knox county 112 voters failed to vote for supreme judge. In Antelope county 183 failed to express their preference for supreme judge. In Holt it is claimed that a much greater per cent failed to vote on the head of the ticket. We can form no satisfactory opinion as to the cause of this oversight. In some places the majority of those who skipped the judge were republicans. In other places the majority were populists.—The Yoeman.

USE THEIR REASON.

Norfolk News: "Nebraska is the only state with the courage to deny an evident fact—the voters say by their votes they see no prosperity. They will require another season of Clevelandism or Bryanism to bring them to their senses."

If Editor Huse ever got off a weekler would clip it and send it to this office for a curiosity. The fusionists of Nebraska cannot be hoodwinked by the well rounded periods of Nebraska's white rose orator, by the beating of tom toms, the waving of flags, or the shouting of prosperity. They look through conditions to causes. In fact, they use their reason. Because their graneries and their larders are reasonably full today they do not fall asleep or hang their heads up to dry. They ask themselves what are the causes of the present measure of prosperity, and are the policies in operation such as will insure its continuance. They do not see that McKinley has anything in particular to do with present prosperity; and they do see that the policy now pursued, and which the administration will make still worse if it dare, will result in another panic within a few years, as surely as the years roll round. The fusionists of Nebraska are too well read to be led to endorse a policy that keeps them on the teeter-board, with a few men in New York and London managing the ups and downs. They don't shout, "Long live Hanna!" when they are up, and curse him when they are down. They keep their eye on him all the time, and strike whenever they get within reach.—The Yoeman.

SUBSTANCE AND FACT.

In introducing Chas. A. Towne, Lieut. Governor Gilbert said: "In name I am a silver republican, in substance I am a democrat; but in fact, I am a populist." That is pretty good, Ed, you may go to the head of the class.—Beaver City Times.

Illustrations by Photograph.

In artistic circles of late some concern has been occasioned by the increasing favor which photography is finding among the conductors of illustrated magazines. Black and white draughtsmen fear that the camera is going to tell prejudicially against their calling. That may be true of the craftsmen whose skill is below the average, but inquiries have elicited the fact that the demand for good and original black and white work is greater now than it ever was. At the same time photography is daily playing a more prominent part in the production of popular magazines, one reason therefor being that every other man is an amateur taker of "sun pictures," and is naturally interested in the productions of his fellows, professional or otherwise.—London Mail.

To Change in Plague Cases.

There is no change in the plague situation at Quarantine, says a New York dispatch. The patients removed to Swinbourne island from the steamer J. W. Taylor are improving. Nothing has been done with the coffee taken from the vessel's hold. The fumigation of the holds by sulphur continues.

Awarded Heavy Damages.

At Rapid City, S. D., John Hedlin was given $12,000 damages in his suit against the Holy Terror Mining company for alleged injuries sustained in the Holy Terror mine. The suit was for $20,000.
