SOME HOT SCRAPPING

Auditor Cornell, Metcalf, Hitchcock and the World-Herald talk back at each other.

There has been some hot scrapping going on between the Auditor and the World-Herald during the last week.

Mr. Cornell went for the editorial in the World-Herald which claimed that that paper and Mr. Hitchcock had been the "whole pot" in the reform cause.

The last report from the ring was that the World-Herald was down, the referee was counting time and had got as far as nine and the spectators were in a great state of excitement.
