"SIG 'EM TIGE."

D. Clem Deaver the renegade populist, who left the party because he couldn't get office, has started an assistant republican paper at Omaha called the "True Populist," the mission of which is to oppose a union of the forces of reform, and every big and little republican paper which we have noticed seems to think the paper is the proper caper. They not the paper is the proper caper. They pat Denver on the back and cry "sic em Tige," and Tige sics.-Plainview News.

SAME OLD THING.

Another republican saint has gone the road which awaits people who have intelligence enough to know better and preach the doctrines of Mark Hanna for the money which is in it. Frank Simmonds, once a prominent candidate for congress in this district, editor of the Seward Republican, high-muck-a-muck in the republican newspaper federation, is behind over $3,000 of money, good in Europe, and under arrest with a splendid prospect of the pen before him, unless his republican pals who haven't been caught yet can figure out some way to cheat justice. Simmons was appointed postmaster at Seward by that man Thurston, the pettifoging senator who draws a salary to represent the state, and takes pay from the Standard Oil Company to represent it against the state. He is some of the new blood ejected into Nebraska republicanism since the days of Mosier and Bartley .-Geneva Gazette.

THE FUNNY PART.

Every true populist in Nebraska will heartily endorse the action of the national committee in firing over the transom the few "middle of the roaders" who tried to create a row at the meeting in Lincoln last week. There may be a few honest and conscientous middle of the road populists, but in Nebraska the few that have ever developed all bear the mark of Mark Hanna and are without character, influence or following. And the funny part of it is the republicans still put money into the sideshow with the fond hope of getting it back .- Exeter Enterprise.

THE JAMESTOWN RAID.

We have not been mistaken in our statement of the situation in England. Joseph Chamberlain is the most hated man in the empire, and will soon get his deserts. At this juncture he is tolerated by a majority in parliament, but on Tuesday that majority was only one of

An English member had moved to re open the enquiry concerning the Jamesson raid, declaring that the former enquiry had been a "farce." A Scotch member seconded the motion and declared that there were strong grounds for suspecting that the colonial office and Mr. Chamberlain had prior knowledge, of the events leading to the raid. He charged, too, that there were influences now at work to prevent the reappointment of a committee.

Sir Willian Vernon Harcourt, who had been a member of the previous importance will come up for discussion. commission, declared that there had not been a full enquiry. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman appealed to the government to allow the inquiry to be re-opened, and declared that it would be a great relief to show the world that the British government to allow the county?

A six column quarto printed on the kind of paper Clem Deaver uses for his limit to the land, or if it does in any way, will be a benefit to it. The ditch is being dug and will probably be finished long before the last of the 12 damage causes against the county is heard.

PRAYER OF THE JINGO.

(As recited by McKinley.)
Oh, God of Gold, be with us yet,
Lest some small island we forget,
And in Thy cause our feet should lag,
Ere hoisting there the starry flag,
Oh, let Thy will be Samuel's care
Until our flag flès everywhere.

We are a chosen people, Thine;
Oh, grant Thy children one more sign,
And fill, us, God, with holy rage—
'Tis Thine, the battle that we wage,
Oh, God of Gold, lest we forget,
Let Jingo valor fume and fret.

Against Thy kingdom and Thy rule, Uprose the Fillipino fool;

In vain his cry for mercy rings,
As o'er the fields his dum-dum sings,
God, steel our hearts a little yet,
Till all are slain, lest we forget.

Oh, God, our humble prayers please hear,
And stay our hearts and bid us cheer
And if Thou deign to grant a sign,
We pray it be a diamond mine.
Oh, God of Gold, be with us yet,
We need Thee much, and don't forget.

WHAT IS SLAVERY?

Over your own will, but be
All that others make of ye.
So that ye for them are made,
Loom and plough, and sword and spade;
With or without your own will, bent
To their defense and nourishment,
'Tis to see your children weak,
With their mothers pine and peak,
When the winter's winds are bleak—
They are dying whilst I speak;
'Tis to hunger for such diet,
As the rich man in his riot.
Casts to the fat dogs that lie,
Surfeiting beneath his eye;
And at length when you complain,
With a murmur weak and vain,
'Tis to see the tyrant crew
Ride over your wives and you.

Men of labor, heirs of glory,
Heroes of unwritten story,
Nurslings of one mighty mother;
Hopes of her and one another,
Rise like lions after slumber,
In unvanquished number;
Shake your chains to earth like dew,
Which, in sleep, had fallen on you.
Ye are many, they are few.

The long line of treasonable aggressions npon the rights and liberties of the American people by the criminal com-mercial conspirators, known as trusts, has reached a climax during the present year, wherein the gigantic strides of the trust power toward the complete subjugation of the entire commerce and industry of the nation have clearly demonstrated that the final supremacy of the trusts and the consequent downfall of the industrial and commercial freedom of the American people is rapidly approaching.-American Anti-Trust League.
