THE WAHOO MEETING

The cyclonic character of the storm at Wahoo on Tuesday, coming as it did about 10:30 a. m., kept a great portion of the crowd away from the meeting. Senator Allen opened the opera house to an audience which comfortably filled the seats, but after he had started people began to come and when Mr. Bryan arrived there were so many people assembled that an indoor meeting was an impossibility and he spoke from a stand in t. ; square.

His greeting from the assembled 3,-000 people was of the kind that makes a man appreciate friends. His address was as follows:

"I want to talk to you republicans, to help your country and help your fellows by your vote as the democrat. populist and the sliver republican is. if I did not have faith in the honesty. in the patriotism and in the good intentions of the republicans, I would not make speeches at all, because I please men who already agree with Rut 1 desire to show you, if I can, that it is your duty to vote with Ha this fall. Now, if you were with us in 1896 there is no reason why you should be against us now unless the new questions have changed your opopinion on the old questions. But I do not believe you can find in this county any man who voted with us in 1896, and who understood the issues then before the country, who has changed his mind on those issues and now believes that the republican party was right in 1896. Therefore I want to talk with you shout some of the new issues for a little while and see if there is a man who voted with us on the old issues who believes the republican party to be right on the new believe you will find many people who were against us on the

Mr. Bryan's Week

Tuesday Mr. Bryan was at Wahoo,

A Joke on Offenbach. M. Ernest Blum told a joke which he and some friends played on Offenbach when "IA Belle Helene" was about to be produced. The composer was most anxious that his airs should not get about before the first night and had asked all his company to be most careful not to let any one hear them, was impossible to help singing them. One day Blum and his friends were sitting opposite Offenbach in a cafe when one of them began to hum a leading air of "La Belle Helene."

"Who taught you that?" cried Offenbach in a rage.

"No one," replied Blum. "I have ently Albert Wolff, who was one of the party, began to sing another of the Photographer 0 ST airs.

"What!" cried Offenbach, "you know that too?"

"I composed it myself," said Wolff. Offenbach then saw that they were playing a practical joke on him and demanded the name of the singer who U fused, and so the composer threatened that he would fine every one in the theater unless they told him. So Blum the whole cafe unless Offenbach relented. The composer, in terror for his music, gave in, beaten by his own facility in writing music.

A Gastronomic Cyclone.

All men and women eat. If they you have no point from which to start don't, they won't last long, and no one need worry as to whether they count for much or not. But good eaters are usually very depend-on-able. By good eaters I do not mean large eaters or greedy eaters, though I may include some of both, but I mean the men and women who enjoy what they eat and show no disposition, either from dyspepsia or other form of indigestion, to quarrel with their food.

Gluttons, however, are not very lovely. I sat at table once with a woman a summer resort who every day for dinner ate 12 ears of corn from the cob. #### When Bees Beat Troops.

It is on record that a swarm of bees as weapons of war were used not once, but twice, and with the best possible effect.

When Themisevra, in Pontus, was besieged by Lucullus, the Romans employed turrets, built mounds and made huge mines beneath the city. While they were creating the mines the people of Themiseyra dug down through the earth to the mines and then cast in MISSOURI RIVER TO PORTLAND upon the Roman workers bears and other wild animals, together with a swarm of bees.

History repeated itself in England when the Danes and Norwegians made their attack upon Chester, about ten centuries since. The town was held by the Saxons and some Gallic allies, who tried stones and boiling water upon the besiegers without effect. As a last resource they collected all the beecamp beneath the city wall.

This had the effect of making things "hum." so to speak, and it is recorded that the enemy were so badly stung that they could move neither arms nor legs.
